On Etiquette

By Roberta Lee

Q. Would it be all right for a girl to send a young man a birthday card, even though he has never sent her a card or given her a gift?
A. Yes; there is nothing at all wrong with this. This is merely a thoughtful gesture, and the young man would be presumptuous to think it anything else.
Q. Isn't it the duty of the bridegroom to buy his own wedding ring?
A. No. He should, of course, buy the wedding ring for his bride, but she should buy the bridegroom's ring.
Q. If a hostess is giving a cocktail party, and has no husband or maid, how should she serve her drinks?
A. She may ask some male guest, who is experienced, to help make the cocktails.

Your Assurance

It is generally recognized that the long-established rituals and the appropriate ceremonies of a funeral service should be under the guidance of a thoroughly-qualified organization chosen in advance. You should base your decision on three major points:

1. Is the executive a man of high standing in your community?
2. Has he a complete establishment including competent, fully-trained and experienced people in all departments and has he all necessary equipment?
3. Are all funeral prices plainly marked?

Choose a National Selected Mortician and you may be sure of personnel and service which meet the above conditions.
