Opener Dropped, 7-3; Split Headers 'Out'

By Al Lightner

Still, the inconsistent ones they've been all season, the town Senators broke even in their split double bill with the Yakima Bears at Waters field Sunday, dropping the opener 7-3 and snatching the nightcap 5-2. Thus for their series with the Yaks the local dandies won two, lost two and retained their third place perch in the Jop standings.

The Solons now take a day off before hitting the road again to open a three-game stand in Wenatchee Tuesday night.

The first whirl at split double-headers, installed Sunday, amounts to the last also. General Manager High Luby has decided that playing once in the afternoon and then again the same night is too rough on the ballplayers. And so from now on the Sunday bills will be played in the afternoons.

As an attendance booster the Sunday "split" was a flop also. A crowd of 1247 took in the afternoon game, but only 951 showed up for the arc mix. The combined total of 2098 was just about matched here May 9 when 2050 paid to see the afternoon doubleheader that day.

Two bad inning cost Joe Mishasek his fifth loss in Sunday's first game. The Bears nailed him for three runs on four hits in the third frame, and for four more tallies on five singles in the eighth. The latter splurge broke wide open what had been a tight struggle, as the Senators in the sixth inning tied the count at 3-3 with a big frame of their own.

The three-run Salem sortie was all the resident nine could manage off the educated tosses of one Matt Zidich, righthander optioned to Bears Friday by San Francisco. He was a mighty tough hombre in all but the sixth when a combination of Mishasek's bunt hit, a walk to Richie Myers, Boss Luby's single to left field, and Stetter's single to the same field and George McDonald's one-baser over third brought in the three runs.

Yakima put together five straight singles for the four big bats that broke the tie.

Rawbone Ray McNulty, working despite an ailing elbow on his pitching arm, came through in the finale by holding the enemy to seven hits and picking up 13-hit batting support of his own.

The nightcap was a fine duel between the red-headed right-hander and huge lefty Bill Boemler for five innings. But an outbreak of two runs in both the sixth and seventh innings got rid of Boemler and helped to bring on McNulty's fourth win of the season.

But for two bad pitches McNulty could easily have had a shutout. In the fourth he picked up Mike Baxes' bunt and threw badly to first to get Myers. Two base hits: Beard, Runs batted in: Myers, Zuvella, Beard, 2 McDonald, Tuckett, Sacchetti, Tuckett, Double play: Tedeschi to Beard, Boemler to Tiesela to Neal. Time: 2:01. Umpires: Eller & Pearson. Att: 851.

Then in the sixth with two out McNulty let up on a serve and Jerry Zuvella whopped it over the right field fence for a home run. This was to be all the scoring for the Bears, who could collect no more than one hit in any one inning off McNulty.

Bill Beard's single and Richie Myers' line triple to deep left-center amounted to Salem's first run in the fifth off Boemler. In the sixth a combination of three walks and hits by George McDonald, Pete Tedeschi and Beard netted two more tallies.

Boemler left in the next frame when Dick Faber, Stetter and McDonald hit consecutively. Mac's bingle scoring Faber. Tuckett's perfectly executed squeeze bunt off Reliever Dave Anderson tallied Stetter with the final run of the game.

Pitcher Ludwig Lew has been placed on the disabled list because of a lame arm, and will be out of action at least 10 days. For the season to date the attendance total reads 21,471. The club returns home next Friday night to open a series with Spokane.

Softball Tilts Slated Tonight

The second week of play in the City Softball league takes off tonight at Leslie with a pair of games, first starting at 8 o'clock. In that one the Hollywood Merchants and Jim Hawkins, winners of their first two outings last week, tangle with the Randle Oilers, owners of a 1-1 record. Wimpy Carver, loser of a 1-0 tangle to Campbell Rock Woolers last week, will be on the mound for the Oilers.

Tonight's second game features the South Commercial Businessmen (0-2) and the Salem Merchants (1-1). Warren Miller will do the hurling for the SC's, and Bob Knight will toe the slab for the Merchants.

Funny Man

Billy Mills, reportedly one of the better and funnier baseball clowns now making the professional circuit, will be in action at Waters field next Friday night at eight o'clock, one-half hour before the Salem Senators and Spokane Indians commence their WIL game.

Shows the Big Town hasn't completely forgotten of Bill, what with top-flight scribe Tom Meaney here to get some background for a possible yarn on Bevins. Human interest aplenty in the tale covering a span of only four years. It's a tale of perseverance and courage on the part of our Bill.

Meaney saw Bevins' dramatic one-hit losing performance in the Series of 1947 and now has completed the picture with a look at Bill hurling before the home folks on a diamond far removed from Yankee Stadium.

The NY scribe Friday night saw a Bevins minus that tragic sore arm, saw a Bevins who is pitching again when many said he wouldn't. . . .

Scant are the chances that Bevins again will hurl in the Stadium, but regardless of that the meat of a whopping story is there. . . .

Incidentally, Meaney has a good piece in current Colliers on the Cincinnati Red strong-boy, Ted Klusweid. . . .

Bill mentions that he and his Cave-men ballers were up through here on a three-day road trip and points out that you'll find three-day, expenses-paid, among high school glove and bat ranks most rare. And we'll agree, since baseball is so often the poor relation of prep major sports. . . .

:20.4 Furlong But—
When the announcement went out at Saturday's Northwest conference meet that Lewis and Clark's Bud White had ran the furlong in :20.4 there was widespread amazement and quickly in his wake the inrush of skepticism. For :20.4 happens to be just one-tenth of a second off the world's mark racked up by Mel Fation of SC a few years ago.

The customers just didn't think White and Wu's Ted Mertz, who was pressing him in a none-and-rose position, were going that fast.

Shoot-Offs Decide Titles

Gordon Miller, Frank Sandberg Win Honors

A pair of Portland shotgun aces racked up the big titles as the four-day 1951 Oregon ATA tournament terminated at Salem Gun club Sunday—but those titles were decided only after shoot-offs.

Frank Sandberg of Portland took the State singles crown as he shattered 25 straight in a shoot-off with Gordon Miller of Eugene. Miller muffed the final shot.

The States Handicap gonfalon went to Frank Simpson of Portland after he emerged the victor in a three-way shoot-off with Ted Jantze of Trail and Don Peters of Sublimity.

Simpson had one miss in his 25 trigger-pulls in the Handicap playoff. Jantze was runnerup with two misses and Peters was guilty of four.

Sandberg and Miller had dead-locked at 197 birds apiece at the end of the two days of firing in the 200-bird singles action. Sandberg got 99 kills on his first 100 pigeons Saturday and came back with 98 Sunday.

Miller had 98 Saturday and almost got a possible Sunday with 99.

Arnold Reiger, the famed Seattle shooter, also had a 99 Sunday but his 97 of Saturday gave him no better than third place.

Simpson, Jantze and Peters all wound up with 96 birds in the Handicap, with Peters carrying top handicap of 22 yards. Jantze was weighted with 20 and Simpson with 19.

P. J. Barton of Bay City and Don Wagner of Summerville, tied for fourth in the 'Cap with 95 birds each.

William Schwabauer of Canby hit 100 birds straight in the second half of the singles Sunday but was out of the running since he didn't fire the initial half.

Leading scores in singles: Gordon Miller, Eugene, 197; Frank Sandberg, Portland, 197; Arnold Reiger, Seattle, 196; John Winters, Eugene, 195; Robert Dudley, St. Helens, 193; Dick Skeeters, Medford, 194; M. Germans Eye Tennis Title

LONDON, May 20 (AP)—Germany, playing in its first Davis Cup tennis competition in 11 years, advanced to the third round today along with Sweden, Belgium and Poland. The Germans clinched their second-round series with Denmark when Ernst Buchholz, a big, powerful player, rallied to beat Kuri Nielsen, 2-6, 3-6, 6-3, 6-3, 6-4. It gave the Germans a 3-1 edge in their best-of-five series.

Then, as a mere formality, Baron Gottfried von Cramm, the amazing 42-year-old star, whipped youthful Torben Ulrich, 6-4, 6-2, 6-4, in the final singles match.

Germany will meet Belgium in the third round. Belgium clinched its series with Egypt with a four-set doubles victory.

Sweden also advanced on a doubles triumph. It was Sweden's third straight victory and it, too, still must play two meaningless singles matches.

Poland won its series against Switzerland by taking two singles matches for a 4-1 advantage.

Indians Rap Braves Twice

By The Associated Press

The Spokane Indians edged closer to the league-leading Vancouver Capilanos Sunday by grabbing both ends of their Western International league doubleheader from Tri-City, 7-2 and 4-2, at Kennewick.

At Tacoma, the Tigers and Wenatchee split their twin bill. Tacoma grabbed the first game with a four-run rally in the ninth. The Chiefs came back to edge the Tigers in one extra inning of the scheduled 7-inning game.

Phils Rap 35 Hits to Whip Pirates Twice

NEW YORK, May 20 (AP)—Eddie Lopat, who throws "plenty of nothing," turned in his seventh victory without a defeat today, pitching the New York Yankees to a 7-3 decision over the St. Louis Browns in the first game of a scheduled doubleheader. The second game was rained out.

Lopat slow-balled the Browns on eight hits in going the distance for the seventh time. He also helped his own cause by booming out his third home run of the season in the sixth inning.

The Yanks cracked a 1-1 tie with three runs in the fourth against Dick Starr and sealed the verdict in the fifth when Joe DiMaggio socked a two-run homer. Chicago's pesky White Sox noosed out the Washington Senators, 5-4, to remain two games behind the Yankees. Ed Robinson doubled home Orestes Minoza from second base with two out in the ninth to break up the game. Robinson also hit a two-run homer in the fifth.

Hal Newhouse pitched the Detroit Tigers to an 8-4 victory over the Red Sox in Boston. The triumph was Newhouse's fourth straight.

Cleveland and Philadelphia split a doubleheader. The A's won the opener, 2-1, as Dick Fowler outdueled Bob Lemon. The Indians took the nightcap, 5-3, to snap a six game losing streak.

Fowler allowed only three hits in bagging his first victory. The Indians won the nightcap with an eighth inning rally. They scored twice to break a 3-3 tie on a walk, two singles and a fielder's choice.

The National League treated Sunday customers to an avalanche of base hits with the league-leading Brooklyn Dodgers and the Philadelphia Phillies supplying most of the fireworks.

Brooklyn slaughtered the Reds, 10-3 and 14-4, at Cincinnati while the Phils smothered the Pirates, 17-0 and 12-4, at Pittsburgh.

The Dodgers and Reds battled on almost even terms in the opener with the Brooks out in front, 4-3, going into the seventh. The Dodgers then lowered the boom on Earl Blackwell, scoring three runs on a homer by Jackie Robinson. Cal Abrams added a two-run homer in the eighth and the Brooks pushed another across in the ninth.

Clyde King, making his first start of the season, pitched behind a 15-hit bombardment in the nightcap.

The Phils pounded out 35 hits in their twin massacre of Pittsburgh. Richie Ashburn was the big gun with four hits in each game. Dick Sisler drove home his runs during the melee and Mike Goliat, Del Ennis, Andy Seminick and Ed Palagiri weighed in with homers.

Old Dutch Leonard scored two victories in relief as the Chicago Cubs captured 4-3 and 5-4 thrillers from the Boston Braves at Chicago.

The victories enabled the Cubs to take second place from the Braves, who dropped to fourth. The St. Louis Cardinals took over third place by beating the New York Giants, 8-7. The Cubs trail Brooklyn by a game.

A big day in the seventh inning rally enabled the Cards to beat the Giants at St. Louis. The Cards started the uprising with two out and the Braves empty. Four singles, a double and two walks featured the rally. Red Schoendienst drove in four runs including two in the last seventh.

Sacs Grab PCL Lead As Bevins Drop Two

SACRAMENTO, May 20 (AP)—Sacramento jumped into a two-game lead in the Pacific Coast league by winning a doubleheader with Hollywood here tonight. The Solons won the first game 4-3 on Joe Gordon's 17th homerun and captured the nightcap 2-1 when Gordon drove in both Sacramento runs in the eighth inning.

Meanwhile, Oakland was tromping on the Portland Beavers in their twin bill at Emeryville. The Oaks took the opener 6 to 3 and then came from behind on Lloyd Christopher's seven-inning homer to capture the nightcap 8 to 6.

Getting his first start in three weeks in the opener, winning Pitcher Bill Ayres had a shutout until the ninth inning. Then Beaver Catcher Joe Rissi reached home for a homer with Frankie Austin aboard.

At Los Angeles, Seattle and Los Angeles divided the doubleheader, the Rainiers coasting to a 13-7 triumph in the opener, the Angels winning the finale, 9-4, by way of a five run assault in the fifth inning.

At San Diego, 40-year-old Guy Fletcher pitched his first 1951 Pacific Coast league victory as San Diego beat San Francisco 6-2 in the opener of a doubleheader. San Francisco took the second game 4-3 on the strength of Wally Hood's five-hit pitching and hitting by Eddie Lake and Jim Brideweser.
