Rhubarb, Maple, Strawberries Provide Flavor for Three Simple Desserts

By Maxine Buren
Statesman Women's Editor

Outdoor play for the children and garden work for the adults make desserts more important than ever in spring and summer. A few simple but filling puddings in the family cook's repertoire should do much for the menus at this time of year.

Here are three good desserts, rhubarb, using a product of so many home gardens, gives the first its flavor, maple flavor is the feature of the second, and the third depends upon strawberries for interest.

RHUBARB PUDDING

- 1/2 cup entire wheat flour
- 1/2 cup brown sugar
- 1/2 cup milk
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- 1 tablespoon butter
- 1 egg

Rhubarb
Cut rhubarb fine, and put in bottom of pudding pan. Mix dry ingredients and add egg, melted butter and milk. Pour over rhubarb and bake in moderate oven about 45 minutes. Red pie cherries may be used, also.

NORWEGIAN FEIN PUDDING

- 3 egg yolks
- 1/2 cup maple syrup
- 1 cup cream, whipped
- 3 tablespoons cold water
- 1/4 teaspoon maple flavoring
- 1/2 cup walnuts
- 1 tablespoon unflavored gelatin

Heat syrup to the boiling point, add gelatin soaked in water and stir until dissolved, add to beaten yolks gradually, beating continuously. Cool until it thickens, then fold in cream. Turn into wet molds and chill. Serve with whipped cream.

COLD STRAWBERRY SOUFFLE

- 3 egg yolks
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- 1 cup cold water
- 1/2 cup sugar
- Few grains salt
- 1 cup cold water then 1 cup cut strawberries. Chill, add 1/2 cup cream, whipped, and 2 egg whites beaten. Add vanilla and chill.

W. A. Regier of Immanuel Mennonite church at Fratum reading the ceremony.

Mrs. Jake Regier of Dallas played the wedding marches and accompanied Mrs. W. F. Krenz, Victor Point, soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown with a fingertip veil worn with a beaded headpiece. She carried a cascade bouquet of yellow and white carnations.

Mrs. Robert Lierman of Cutler City, in an aqua formal dress, was matron of honor for her sister and Miss Yvonne Goode, of Salem, was bridesmaid. Her dress was an orchid formal. Both wore bands of yellow and white carnations in their hair and carried fan bouquets of the same flowers.
