Shirlee Lively Weds Robert Siegfried

The Jason Lee Memorial church was the scene of the marriage of Miss Shirlee Lively, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy G. Lively, and Robert Siegfried, son of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Siegfried, on Saturday night at 8 o'clock. The Rev. James Wilson performed the nuptials. David Kennedy sang and Mrs. Edith McClure was the organist.

For her wedding the bride chose a white nylon marquisette floor length gown over white taffeta. The bodice was of nylon lace fashioned with cap sleeves and she wore long marquisette mitts. A lace Juliet cap held in place her shoulder length veil and she carried a prayer book marked with an orchid and lilies-of-the-valley.

Miss Cindy Lively was her sister's only attendant and wore a blue marquisette frock over taffeta. To the waist of her gown she pinned a corsage of sweetheart roses and stephanotis. The bride's other sister, Miss Virginia Lively, lighted the candles and wore a similar frock of pink marquisette over taffeta. She also wore her corsage at the waist.

Lawrence Baer stood with the groom as best man and ushers were Bruce Fraser of Portland and William Shattuck.

Mrs. Lively chose a navy blue sheer gown with matching accessories and corsage of pink roses for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Siegfried attended her son's marriage in an olive green silk gown and corsage of yellow roses.

A reception followed in the Kirby room. Mrs. Virgil Wilson and Mrs. Dale Lively presided at the coffee urns and Mrs. Bruce Fraser cut the cake. Assisting were Mrs. Ivan Bingenheimer, Mrs. Lawrence Baer, Miss Margaret Sweetland, Miss Vonna McBride and Mrs. Harold Schuttpeitz of Corvallis.

After a wedding trip to the mountains the couple will be at home in Salem at 890 Gerth street. For going away the bride changed to a lavender suit with white pique trim and white accessories.
