

Methodist's Conference Opens Today

Oregon annual conference of the Methodist church will open at 4 o'clock this afternoon in Waller hall on Willamette university campus, following committee sessions that started Monday night. This is the 98th annual meeting and some 300 official delegates are expected.

Also on the program today are a memorial service at 4:30 p.m. in Waller hall and the first of nightly public worship services at 7:30 in First Methodist church. The latter will be addressed by Dr. J. Richard Sneed, pastor of Los Angeles First Methodist church.

Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy will speak at daily devotional services at 8:20 a.m., and business sessions will be held each morning at 9, both in Waller hall.

BOAT MISHAP CLAIMS

GROTON, Conn., June 11—(AP)—Eleven persons, including two women and a boy, perished when their fishing craft sank suddenly in wind-whipped seas in Block Island sound yesterday. Three men were saved. Tonight the bodies of five of the drowned had been recovered.

Gen. Wedemeyer Urges U.S. to Regain Initiative

(Story also on Page 1.) WASHINGTON, June 11—(AP)—A policy which he says is designed at taking the initiative away from the communists was urged by Gen. Albert Wedemeyer today in testimony before the senate committee investigating the firing of Gen. MacArthur.

Salem Railway Express to Move Office

Moving of the Salem Railway Express office, by July 1, from 559 Court st. to 411 S. 12th st., across from the railroad depot, was announced Monday by W. A. Link, agent.

Link said the new quarters would be smaller, but would provide better service ultimately because of its nearness to the depot and would have less parking problem. He noted that most of the agency's business is done by telephone, with the three trucks making pickups and deliveries.

The office has been in the Plaza building for 24 years. Its place is to be taken by the Salem Vintage store, now in the Senator hotel building.

Actor, Pals Nabbed at Poker Game

HOLLYWOOD, June 11—(AP)—Actor Charles Coburn's monic slipper slipped its mooring in surprise when vice squad officers disclosed today when they broke up a friendly card game he was having with four cronies.

Cited for violating county gambling laws were Coburn, film producers Howard S. Benedict and Paul A. Malvern, and screen writers Morris Ryskind and Paul A. Yawitz. Specifically, they were accused of playing draw poker.

They will place their chips on the table in Beverly Hills justice court on Wednesday.

Salem Street Problems Get Council Action

(Story also on page 1) A variety of street problems gained the action of Salem city council Monday night. They included:

Approval of petitions for improving Victoria drive south from Court street and Downs street from Crestview to Haight, approval of a driveway for Salem Steel and Supply loading along 7th street, approval of signs to stop east and southbound traffic at Hines street.

Banning of parking on Trade street between Front and Commercial, and on Front between Trade and Perry, with loading zones to be designated by the police department; restricting parking to two hours on Center street between Front and Commercial.

The council also: Approved exchange of city property on Minto's island to Oregon Pulp and Paper company for increased water rights.

Awarded a contract for construction of approximately 22,000 feet of lateral sewers in the Capitola-East Moreland area to State-side Construction company of Roseburg, for $85,788.65, lowest of eight bids.

Approved petition for a sanitary sewer on Victoria drive. Instructed the city manager to have crews keep the city shop property south of Mission street in better appearance.

Referred to the manager for study a request for moving of the playground at High and Lefelle streets or for provision of restrooms and off-street parking.

Removed planned improvement of Duncan avenue, after remonstrances. Tabled to June 25 the proposed widening of 24th street between D and Market, because of confusion over remonstrances.

Authorized China cafe to have a passageway between two buildings at 2055 Fairgrounds rd.
