The answers to everyday insurance problems *
 By Sid Boise

Question: Several years ago some neighbors had a small fire in their kitchen but it got into the walls of the house and the firemen had to tear off most of the clapboard exterior to put it out. Is the damage done by firemen paid for by the fire insurance company?

Answer: Yes, any damage done by the firemen in fighting a fire is covered by the standard fire insurance policy.

* If you'll address your own insurance questions to this office, we'll try to give you the correct answers and there will be no charge or obligation of any kind.

CAR-SAVER "TIPS"

Friend of mine who's a bicycle speed-burner tells me racing bikes don't have brakes.

Make you shudder a little? May be you figure, as I do, that being able to slow down fast is the most important feature of any vehicle—I guess racing bikes excepted.

That's why, out on the highway or just driving around town, you'll be glad you let Car-Savers inspect your master brake cylinder.

You can count on them to check such things—all the points that involve your safety whenever your car is on the greasy lift.

Leave hand-braking to bike racers and take time now for a check-up at your Standard Station or independent Chevron Gas Station.

No car ever made friends so fast!

Chevron Supreme gives you...not one, not two... but all eight high-performance qualities

You need them all in the kind of driving you do

If you're like most drivers, you put in most of your mileage around town. For this day-to-day driving, and for your occasional cross-country trips, you need a gasoline with all-around quality, not just some special feature.

STANDARD STATIONS INC.

It's true, of course, that gasoline can be designed and produced to stress one performance feature at the expense of others. But, Chevron Supreme you'll find, gives you all eight high-performance qualities.

Anywhere in the West, under any driving conditions, Chevron Supreme Gasoline means reliable performance. Try it—see why more motorists every day are switching to Chevron Supreme.
