Shuttles are flying this week during class hours for about 30 women attending a special weaving class at the Pi Beta Phi house, 1445 State street, by Miss Beria Frey of New York City. The amateur weavers are convened in Salem from all over the state, and some from out of state. Here plying the shuttle at her loom is Mrs. R. G. Brady, 3755 Garden rd., and watching are, from left, Mrs. William H. Burghardt, 860 Union st., Miss Mabel P. Robertson, president of the Salem Weavers Guild; Miss Frey; Mrs. G. M. Shields, San Gabriel, Calif.; and Mrs. John Tanner, Temple City, Calif. (Statesman photo).

Samuel B. Gillette, who is visiting here from Kent, Wash., and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Mason Bishop, have invited a few of their friends to a one o'clock luncheon this afternoon at Silver Falls lodge... Thursday afternoon Mrs. Stephen Tabacchi will be a luncheon hostess at her new home on West Lafayette... Her guests will include Mrs. John Griffith, Mrs. William L. Phillips, Mrs. Floyd Shepard, Mrs. John Caughell and Mrs. D. R. Dunlop.

A little boy... was born to Mr. and Mrs. James Frederick Sprouts (Shirley Clark) on Tuesday morning at the Salem Memorial hospital... He tipped the scales at seven pounds and has been named Michael William... the proud grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Francis E. Clark... Returns home... Mrs. Roger M. Schnell was in San Francisco last week with her navy lieutenant husband and to say goodbye before he left for duty in Japan... Mrs. Schnell and their son will remain in Salem while he is overseas at the home of her mother, Mrs. John Beakey...

Mrs. Charles Norlon, with Mrs. Manno Dalke as assisting hostess, entertained for the June meeting of the Swegle Woman's club on Tuesday. Plans were made for the annual family picnic to be held the first Sunday in August at Silver Falls park.

Miss Steckley Weds in South

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Reimann are announcing the marriage of their daughter Miss Florence Steckley, to Gerald M. Kennedy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Kennedy, on June 1 in Clovis, New Mexico. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Loris of the First Christian church of Clovis.

Immediately following the marriage the couple returned to Lubbock, Texas, where they will reside while Mr. Kennedy is stationed at Reese Air Force base.

Miss Betty Cox Tells Troth

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Cox of Dallas are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Miss Betty J. Cox, to Ronald R. Ruggles, son of Mrs. Gladis Jaque of Yoncalla, Oregon and E. Ruggles of Independence. No wedding date has been set.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Dallas high school and her fiancé of Yoncalla schools. Mr. Ruggles is employed at the Willamette Valley Lumber Co.

Miss Marilyn Waters Weds Mr. Arnold

Bouquets of roses and gladioluses banked the altar of the First Congregational church Tuesday night for the lovely summer wedding of Miss Marilyn, Elizabeth Waters, eldest daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth H. Waters, and Jerome Thomas Arnold, son of Mrs. Kathleen Arnold.

It was at 8 o'clock that Dr. Seth R. Huntington performed the nuptials before a large gathering of friends and relatives of the couple. George Miller was the soloist and William Fawk the organist.

Of white nylon net over satin was the bridal gown fashioned with a ruffled skirt, which ended in a short train. The draped bodice was strapless and was worn with a net jacket with ruffled sleeves. Her white illusion veil was adorned with ruffling and cascaded from a crown of seed pearls and rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis centered with white purple throated orchid.

Miss Susanna Howell, the maid of honor, wore an orchid net gown and carried yellow roses. The bridesmaids were Miss Frances Mathews and Miss Dorothy Pederson, whose frocks were of orchid net. Miss Clarice Waters and Miss Claudia Waters, twin sisters of the bride, who wore orchid and blue net gowns. The girls wore matching stoles and headresses with their frocks and their bouquets were of roses shading from pastel pink to dark pink. Sue Schaefer, the flower girl, wore a blue taffeta frock with pink stole.

Attend the Groom Earl Eshleman stood with the groom as best man and seating the guests were Ronald Walters, Ronald Phillips of Portland, Douglas Rogers and Benjamin Solvon of Albany.

For her daughters wedding Mrs. Waters selected a gray crepe gown with matching headress and Mrs. Arnold wore a rose crepe gown with headress to match.

A reception followed in the fireplace room. Mrs. N. J. Arnold of Lebanon and Mrs. Bertha Walker poured. Mrs. Harrol Dicksey and Mrs. Stanley Waters cut the cake. Assisting were Mrs. H. S. Whiteside of Corvallis, Mrs. Richard Arnold, Miss Edna Manning, Miss Betty Brinkley, Miss Carol Streib and Mrs. Carl Beck.

After a wedding trip along the Oregon coast the couple will be at home in Salem. For going away the new Mrs. Arnold changed to a maroon suit with blue accessories and a white orchid corsage.

Feted on Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Cross were honored at a picnic lunch on Sunday at Silver Creek Falls in observance of their 40th wedding anniversary.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Cross, Mrs. Juanita Curry and Rickey, Mr. and Mrs. William Cross, Ronald and Susan, Mrs. M. E. Johnson of Great Falls, Mont., and Mr. and Mrs. Travis Cross and son, Craig, of Eugene.

Diane Riggs Tells Troth

Announcement is being made of the engagement of Miss Diane Riggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl H. Riggs of Salem, to Claude A. Vaucher, son of Dr. and Mrs. Edouard M. Vaucher of Geneva, Switzerland. The wedding of the duo is planned for this fall.

The news was first told at a party on June 2 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Mikkelsen in Seattle for a group of the couple's friends from Seattle Pacific College. The betrothal was disclosed in individual wrapped pieces of candy.

Miss Riggs, a graduate of Salem schools, and her fiancé are seniors at Seattle Pacific College. Mr. Vaucher attended the College of Geneva before coming to Seattle.

Graduate Feted At Supper

Miss Novada Smedley, who was among the Willamette university graduates on Sunday, was honored at a supper party following the commencement exercises when Mr. and Mrs. James Qualls entertained at their North 24th street home.

Attending were Miss Smedley, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Smedley, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Goddard, Robert Goddard, Miss Vada Whitten and Ira Whitten of Phillipsburg, Kansas, Mrs. Ida Carper of Lincoln, Nebraska, and the hosts.

The out-of-town guests came west for Miss Smedley's graduation. She is the granddaughter of Mr. Whitten. The visitors have been taken on numerous scenic trips and last week attended the Rose Festival and the Ice Follies in Portland. They will return to Nebraska by car, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Goddard and son, Robert.

Mrs. Leon Brown was hostess for a salad luncheon on Tuesday afternoon at her home for members of her study group.
