

Sgt. Sexton Returns from Korean War

Returning to the United States today after nine months in a paratrooper commando squadron in Korea, is Sgt. Fred Sexton, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Sexton, route 8, box 14.

Sergeant Sexton is one of 12 Oregon soldiers docking this morning in San Francisco aboard the transport ship Sgt. Howard Woodford. Others from the mid-valley area include Sgt. Albert C. Lilly, 305 Lillys lane, Corvallis, and Sgt. Lester M. Crocker, 1415 E. 3rd ave., Albany. The transport arrives with 3384 soldiers all returning from Korea on the army rotation plan.

A rifleman in the 187th airborne division, Sergeant Sexton arrived in Korea in September, 1950. He enlisted in the army in July, 1948, and took basic training at Camp Campbell, Ky., and advanced training in Japan.

His 30-day furlough will be the first visit with his parents since March, 1949, when he went overseas.

A resident of the Salem area for 15 years, Sergeant Sexton attended Popcorn school, and Salem high school until his enlistment in 1948. He has one brother in the merchant marine, and another who recently enlisted in the air force. His parents expect him to be sent either to Camp Campbell or to Fort Breckinridge, Ky., after his furlough. He will complete his enlistment period in July.

Otto J. Wilson President of Exchange Club

Otto J. Wilson, local automobile dealer, was elected president of Salem Exchange club at a meeting Wednesday. He succeeds Dr. Lewis P. Campbell.

Serving with Wilson for the next six months will be Irvin Bryan, vice president, and Charles Siewert, treasurer, and Dr. George Martin, re-elected secretary.

Elected to one-year terms on the board of control were Donald Barwick, Sid Boise, and Thomas Roberts. Kenneth Potts was elected to fill a pro tem vacancy on the board.

Wilson said the club would continue the annual junior golf tournament in August and the toy rehabilitation program during Christmas.

July 22 was set as the date for a picnic at Neskovin.
