were hit hard.

Lone Run Unearned As for the run he gave, it came with one swish of Jimmy Mar-shall's bat. The young lad who has played much of this season as the regular Oakland Coast league first baseman should never have had the chance to swish it, however. He first popped a high foul directly up over Catcher Bill Baard. It must have taken a had Beard. It must have taken a bad hop, or something, for the usually reliable Beard let it get away from him for an error. Then Marshall teed off on a pitch and hit it far over the right field wall. An off-field single by Lyle Palmer with two men out in the fourth, followed by an error, a balk and the purposeful pass had Bevens in the only trouble he was to see for the night. Didn't last long, however, as he whiffed Pitcher Breisinger to retire the

By Ralph Roden NEW YORK, June 22-(A)-The New York Yankees moved to within 21/2 games of the leading Chicago White Sox tonight by beating the Cleveland Indians, 6-0, while the Sox bit the dust at Fenway park, dropping a 6-5 decision to the Boston Red Sox.

Allie Reynolds turned in his second straight shutout, blanking Bob Feller and the Indians on six sin-gles. The Yanks combed Feller for eight of their ten safeties and wrapped the game up with three Sacto Outfit runs in the second inning. Jerry Coleman drove in half of the Yankee runs while Yogi Berra contributed his 11th homer to the
