

Assemblies' Camp Meeting Draws Crowds

BROOKS, July 6 — Nearly 1,000 persons are living on the grounds at Bethel Gospel park this fortnight for the annual Assemblies of God camp meeting. A missionary rally will be a highlight Sunday at 2:30.

Some 3,000 persons attended services on July 4. Members of the denomination are here from over the northwest. Services are daily at 10:30 a. m., and 2:30 and 7:30 p. m., closing Sunday, July 15.

The program is directed by the Rev. Alwood Foster, Salem, state superintendent of the church. The Sunday afternoon program will include reports by missionaries returned from South America — the Rev. and Mrs. Franklin Dunbar, the Rev. and Mrs. Paul Brown, the Rev. and Mrs. Wilfred Morris; from Africa — the Rev. and Mrs. Earl Downey, the Rev. and Mrs. Harry G. Downey, the Rev. and Mrs. Herman Engelage, Mabel Schaefer; from Fiji Islands — the Rev. and Mrs. Lawrence Borst; from Hawaii — the Rev. and Mrs. W. G. Hunter; from Formosa — Garland Benedit; from Alaska — the Rev. and Mrs. Roy Randall and Mildred James. At 10:30 Sunday speaker will be the Rev. Bartlett Peterson, president of Central Bible Institute, Springfield, Mo., on "The Triumphs of the New Testament Church," and at 7:30 p. m., Rev. A. A. Wilson, Kansas City, Mo.

Dallas Pulpit Gains Pastor; Music Tonight

DALLAS, July 6 — The Rev. William E. Cross, wife and two children, Judy and Gary, have arrived in Dallas to take over the pastorate of the Foursquare Gospel church, left vacant by the resignation of the Rev. and Mrs. Edwin Gurney.

The Gurneys are entering the evangelistic field and will go to Chehalis, Wash., for their first engagement. Later they will travel through the northwest states. The Rev. J. J. Regier, pastor of Grace Mennonite church for the past two years, has resigned to accept a position with Grace Bible Institute of Omaha, Neb., effective August 1. Regier will act as contact man for the school and carry on evangelistic work.

John W. Lundberg, tenor soloist from Westmont college in Santa Barbara, Calif., will present an informal evening of sacred music at Dallas high school Saturday night at 7:45. Dallas Youth for Christ is sponsoring his appearance.

Missionary Talks; Men's Chorus to Sing at First EUB

Dr. V. L. Farnham, recently returned missionary to China, will be the guest speaker in the morning worship service Sunday at First Evangelical United Brethren church. In the evening service at 7:45, the special feature will be a sacred concert by the Salem Singers, a men's chorus under the direction of Ernest Friesen. Also featured will be a brief message by Captain C. E. Stabbert from Seattle. This is a benefit performance for the Marine Medical mission, a missionary boat along the coast of Alaska. The singers recently had a brief cruise on the boat.

Lutheran Camp Chapel Inspirational

SILVERTON — This is Chapel in the Forest, at Luther League park near Colton, where many Oregon Lutherans have attended meetings during the past week. The inspirational chapel, with its large wooden cross behind the platform, is part of a 61-acre camp. The band shown here is from Estacada union high school. The camp will be the site next week of an outing for Clackamas county 4-H clubs and the following week of the annual Luther League Bible camp. (Statesman farm photo.)

Silverton SDA Church Plans Special Rites

SILVERTON, July 6 — The quarterly communion service for the Silverton Seventh-day Adventist church has been announced for Saturday morning at 9:30 a. m., with the Rev. R. G. Schaffner of Salem in charge. During the same service Vester Alden will be ordained as a deacon of the church. The Sabbath school will follow the worship hour after an intermission and singing festival.

Reports of the Luther league convention by Delegates Phyllis Lively and James Moen, Delane Rivenes, Dean Libner and James Ohren will be made Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at Trinity Lutheran church, prior to the sermon. The annual Luther league Bible camp at Colton, sponsored by six Lutheran synods, will be July 14 through 21.

The Rev. Arnold W. Nelson of Immanuel Lutheran church has announced a Luther league recreation hour for 7 p. m. Sunday followed by a program at 8:15. The semi-annual business meeting of the congregation is set for Wednesday at 8 p. m.

Rock Creek's Program Set

SILVERTON, July 6 — Pioneer day at the historic Rock Creek church near Monitor will be observed Sunday, July 29, reports Gilbert Noe, chairman of the event. Dr. Robert Gatke of Willamette university will conduct the morning services in which Mrs. Irva Graham, great granddaughter of the pioneer William Shuive family, and Mrs. Fred Frick (Marilyn Moe) of Silverton, will take part. Walter Meacham, executive secretary of the Oregon Trail association and widely-known member of an Oregon pioneer family, who died Sunday, was to have addressed the meeting. Talks by W. W. Morrison of Cheyenne, Wyo., and Alan Gribble of Silverton will be made. The Edwin Eymann orchestra and chorus of Molalla will appear.
