

Women's Section

SOCIETY • CLUBS • MUSIC

Around Town...

By Jeryme English
SOCIAL NEWS ... centers around the many visitors in the capital, with informal parties planned in their honor ... Miss Ann Monson arrived in the capital by plane Friday afternoon from Honolulu and was met at the airport by a group of her Salem friends ... She plans to be here three weeks and will be the house guest of Dr. and Mrs. Floyd L. Utter ... The Gaiety Hill residence of Mrs. Louis Lachmund will be the scene of an informal at home Sunday for the pleasure of Miss Monson, who formerly resided here ... Hosts for the party with Mrs. Lachmund are Dr. and Mrs. Utter and Mr. and Mrs. Linn C. Smith ... A group of Salem people, who have been to Honolulu the past few years, have been invited to call between 5 and 7 o'clock ... The affair will be held in the lovely garden and patio of the Lachmund home ... Several other parties are being arranged for Miss Monson during her stay in the capital ... before leaving Salem she was secretary to Clay Cochran, manager of the Chamber of Commerce ...

Arriving ... in Salem on Friday for a weekend visit was Arthur Hamilton of Essex, Conn., who is a guest of his mother, Mrs. C. S. Hamilton, at the Senator hotel ... He will also visit his brothers and sisters-in-law, the Ralph and Clarence Hamiltons ... Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hamilton will be hosts for an informal at home at their Glenna Creek Drive residence in honor of the visitor and a few of his longtime friends ... guests will call between 3 and 5 o'clock ...

House guests ... of Mrs. Woodson Bennett and children this week have been Mrs. George C. McCallum and children, Ann, Missy and Douglas of Eugene ... Dr. McCallum and Dr. Bennett left earlier in the week on a fortnight's fishing trip to Alaska ...

Thursday night Mrs. Bennett entertained with an informal bridge party at her Candalaria home for the pleasure of her house guest ... Mrs. Bennett and her children will visit in Hood River and Eugene this coming week ...

Here from the south ... Mrs. Richard Maxfield (Rosemary Gaiser arrived Thursday from Los Angeles for a fortnight's visit with her parents, the Silas Gaisers, and sister, Janet ... Mr. Maxfield will join his wife next weekend and the four will enjoy a week's fishing trip in the Wallowa mountains ...

Spending ... most of the summer at their country place on Corral Creek near Wilsonville are the Elmer O. Bergs and son, Jerry ... Mr. Berg joins his family for dinner in the evening and on the weekends ... Jerry spends his spare time fishing and his parents are enjoying their first vegetable garden ...

In Portland ... Friday night were Mrs. James H. Nicholson, Jr., and Mrs. Ralph Boone, who were guests at a shower for which Mrs. Norman Bay was hostess in honor of Mrs. Boone's sister, Mrs. Brooks Claridge ... Mr. and Mrs. William C. Dyer, Jr., the Kenneth Swans and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Benage were in Portland Friday to attend a dinner dance at The Castle given by the 2nd Battalion of the 162nd infantry for the officers and their wives ...

Stopping ... in Salem the first of the week enroute to Washington were Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Thompson of San Francisco, who visited with Mr. and Mrs. George Scales ... The Thompsons have sold their merchandise business in the bay city and will soon be moving to Everett, where he has a new position ...

A holiday outing ... at Elkhorn Lodge on the Little North Fork of the Santiam for Mr. and Mrs. Terry Randall, who had as their guests over the Fourth, the Claybourne Dyers, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Dyer, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Phillips ...

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin R. Vieska.
 On the agenda ... for tonight will be the terrace dance for which the Spinners will be hostesses at the Walter Kirk cabin in Morningside ... the terrace will be lighted with Japanese lanterns and at one end will be a buffet table ... Thirty couples will attend the affair ... Janet Kirk is chairman of the sport dance ...

Hostesses Honor Miss Bradford
 A linen bridal shower for Miss Donna Bradford was given by Miss Margie Dunnigan and Miss Shirley Leupe at the Dunnigan home on Friday. A mock wedding was presented by Clea Martin, Pat Filler and Billie Miller.

Refreshments were served to Miss Bradford, Mrs. R. E. Bradford, Mrs. W. A. Dunnigan, Mrs. Wilma Linhart, Mrs. J. Wilson, Misses Amy Wilson, Billie Miller, Harriett Just, Berniece DaMoude, Kathleen White, Carol Russell, Margaret Miller, Ione Halvorsen, Pat Filler, Mary Sunde, Clea Martin, Ruth Kreft, Velma Hardy, Wilma Faught and Pat MacDonald.

Piled High
Simple Sandwich Recipe Brings Forth Criticism; Five-Decker Should Please

By Maxine Buren
 Statesman Woman's Editor

One of our male co-workers, who must read our food pages, else he wouldn't know, has been ragging us about a recipe for tongue sandwiches we published recently.

"A detailed recipe for putting slices of tongue between buttered bread is good food for newspaper stories. It's a scoop," he said bitingly.

His criticism was legitimate, the recipe was silly but his is so different than the usual masculine criticism that it almost floored us. The usual man critic of food pages thinks the recipes too fancy.

No Parsley, Please
 Men readers of food pages fall into several classes. Those we think nothing of are the round, plump fellows who want nothing but meat and potato recipes. No fancy stuff, nothing pretty, "and leave off the parsley."

Then there's the fellows who prides himself in being a bit of a cook. He reads the recipes because he likes to and he even tries some on his own range. This man we are mad about. We cater to him.

But here is a recipe, dedicated to our friend and reader with which we hope to vindicate ourselves:

BOB'S SUPER SANDWICH
 Cut bread in thin slides, buttering five slices for each sandwich.

Make layers as follows:
 Bottom layer—Hard cooked egg chopped, mixed with mayonnaise and chopped ripe olives. This is the salad course.

Next layer—Put chopped cucumber combined with catsup between lettuce leaves on the next slice. This we'll call the vegetable course.

Third layer—Place slices of thinly cut tongue on the bread. This is the meat course.

Next-to-top layer—Combine horseradish with mayonnaise and some chopped pickle if you like spread on this slice. Here's the condiment department.

Top layer—Put on a very thin slice of pineapple (make three out of one, if you can) and spread with cream cheese or top a paper-thin slice of cheddar cheese. This is dessert.

Cover all with the final piece of bread, garnish with toothpick olive, parsley, a dill pickle and a slice of tomato.

Here we leave you to eat it. Whether you use a drag saw, gulp it whole or break it into small pieces we'll never know.

Girls Leave for Camp Kilowan

Camp Kilowan, the Camp Fire Girls camp of the Willamette Area council, is starting its third session today. Sessions last a week each, and some of the campers are beginning their third week at camp, located in the foothills of the coast range. Others left today for their first camp life.

The girls board buses in Salem and Corvallis and will start an adventure-filled week of swimming, hiking to Sixty-foot Falls, and cook-outs. Mrs. Frank Hrubetz, a Camp Fire Girls leader, is accompanying the girls on the bus leaving from Salem.

The following are the girls who will be at Camp Kilowan during the next week:

Bluebirds: (3rd and 4th grades) from Salem: Ann Starr, Lorna Avery, Florence Epley, Carol Boehm, Joy Ann Boyle, Delores Lenaburg, Ann Howarth, Susan White, Sue Bennett, Jane Carter, Janet Johnson; from Corvallis: Sharon Parkerson, Lora Bennion, Sue Wallace, Karen Mathews, Christie Long, Sarah Buxton, Susan Van Valin, Emerald Forest Girls (5th and 6th grades) from Salem: Kathleen Larios, Judith Nelson, Marilyn Carr, Shirley Govier, Sharon Elbert, Pamela Wyatt, Mary Lou Kosack, Jean Howarth, Jeanne Barnes; from Corvallis: Gail Bran-dis, Judith Starr, Mary Pease, Ginger Heideman, Owen Williams, Anita Assum, Janet Kirk, Verene Chelidlin, Kathryn Poling, Karen Saling, Gail Williams, Sandra Jones, Geraldine Chapman.

Aldersa Girls (7th and 8th grades) from Salem: Alice Stewart, Janet Larson, Warilyn Zeller, Helen Boyle, Pamela Lindholm, Suzanne Biver, Heather Watson, Jacqueline Doerfler; from Corvallis: Darlene Rands, Judy Stevenson, Elaine Applegate, Janice Wiggleworth, Judith Dery, Kathy Mosier.
Betsy Gallarman, Dorothy Blacker, Fay Webber; from Dallas: Coleen Dhoebel, Wilma Kitzmiller, Joy Ann Grooms; from Mill City: Evelyn Johnson, Cleo Jose.
Greenwood Girls (younger high school) from Corvallis: Hazel Pease, Celestia Onsdorff, Virginia Ellison; from Dallas: Lois Meeker, Sarah Bossatti.
Labish Garden Picnic
 The Labish Garden club met at the home of Mrs. William

Zenger on Thursday for the annual picnic. A report was given by Mrs. Jack Bartlett, who attended the state convention in Hood River. Installation of officers was held with Mrs. Joseph Henry as president; Mrs. Ed Zielinski, vice-president; Mrs. Alvin Van Cleave, secretary-treasurer. The next regular meeting will be Thursday, July 12 at the home of Mrs. Zeno Gregg for a 1:30 dessert luncheon.

The Statesman, Salem, Oregon, Saturday, July 7, 1951—3
Miss Chindgren A June Bride
 Of interest to Salem friends of the couple is announcement of the marriage of Miss Beverly June Chindgren, daughter of State Representative and Mrs. Herman H. Chindgren of Molalla, and William Arthur Monrose, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Monrose of Canby, which took place on June 24 at the Colton Lutheran church at 4 o'clock with the Rev. Luther Cornay officiating.
 Both are graduates of Molalla high school. The new Mrs. Monrose just finished her sophomore year at Lewis and Clark college and her husband attended Oregon State college for two years. He is now assistant secretary of youth activities at the Portland YMCA. The couple is living at Colton for the summer.

NELLY DON — SALESMAN'S SAMPLE DRESSES ... ALL SIZE 12's

1 1/3 OFF

Save Your Sales Slips for Your Favorite Queen Candidate IN OUR HAWAIIAN QUEEN CONTEST

As Low As 7.30

Fresh and pretty as the season! Nelly Don's wonderful group of Petal-light voiles—done with the new "soft look". These are the smart and simple dresses you love for town and travel or a summer evening—made with Nelly Don's fine attention to detail, fit and line.

Town plaid casual (above) topped with Ottoman cotton. In pima voile, Tebilized*.

Irish crochet (above right) defining oblique closing. New modern print in pima voile, Tebilized*.

Bouffant-sleeve dress (lower right) in confetti print voile, Tebilized*. Seen in May Harper's Bazaar. Deep neckline, full skirt.

Tucked-front dress (above left). Graduated tucks give dark and light effect. In fine, imported voile, crease-resistant.

Choir-boy bow dress (lower left) in polka dot pima voile, Tebilized*. Seen in April 15th Vogue. Crisp white pique collar and cuffs.

*Tebilized® for crease-resistance.

These Illustrated And Many More, No Two Alike!

Baseball Tonite 8:00
Salem vs Spokane
 PRE-GAME FEATURE
Crack American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps Displays Its Talent

AUTO RACES
Saturday, July 7, 1951
Time Trials 8 P. M.
HOLLYWOOD BOWL
HOT RODS
 A full field of the Northwest's finest Drivers
Special Feature
8 Various makes of street roadsters
 Watch the Hot Rods Roll at Hollywood Bowl
in a special feature race

EARN 2% Bonus Plan Savings Account
Inquire Today!
Willamette Valley Bank
 1000 Fairgrounds Rd.
 Ph. 3-7521
 Salem

Miller's