

Spokes Again Nip Salems, 5-4 Chisox Top Browns, Regain Amerk Lead as Boston Tounces Yankees

Arm Miseries Halt McNulty

By Al Lightner
Statesman Sports Editor
Anyone knowing a really good whammy-buster bring him to the ball park tonight. Looks as if the resident Senators are woefully in need of same, and pronto if they're to get an even break with the Spokane Indians.

The pesky Spokes, No. 1 nemesis for the 12th Solons, sneaked through with another one-run victory last night, 5-4, added it to the 4-3 conquest of Friday night and went 2-0 ahead of Hugh Luby's men for the series. The most recent addition brought the season total to seven wins for the Tribe to only a pair for the Salems. There seems to be no collaring the cocky crew from the Inland Empire.

Saddened sufficiently enough by the 5-4 Indian win, the fine Saturday night gathering of 2,010 absorbed another jolt right along with the Senators when Raybown Ray McNulty was forced to leave the game in the fifth inning because of an ailing arm. Ray has had elbow trouble right along this season, and all too suddenly it laid him low last night. Just how serious it will be remains to be seen.

Just before the red-headed right-hander came up lame the Salems appeared to be on their way to bopping Alan Strange's visitors. The score was 4-1 for the Salems going into the fatal fifth. But before McNulty and his successor Ludwig Lew could do anything about it the Spokanes slammed three runs across to tie the score. Lew was victim of the third run of the inning, and when he was nicked for another in the seventh he absorbed his fifth loss of the season.

Big John (The Chew) Marshall was McNulty's opponent for three and one-third innings. In trouble every one of 'em, Marshall yielded to a pugnacious-looking bantam named Bob Roberts in the fourth frame. What a young and hard-throwing Roberts then did to our men for the next five and two-thirds frames wasn't at all nice to see.

Salem was able to get four hits and a base on balls off him and unbuckled three distinct threats. But the kid had more than enough when in the bind, and pitched his way clear each time.

Tucket Hits in Two
Salem's first tally arrived on Dick Faber's single, a walk and Bill Spaeter's single. No. 2 was the result of a walk, Jim McKeegan's double and Richie Myers long fly. Singles by Faber and Glenn Stetter, a walk to Spaeter and Glenn Tucket's two-run single in the third gave Salem a 4-1 edge. Spokane had nicked McNulty for a run in the first as a result of a walk, McNulty's two-base error and Steve Mesner's two base hit.

The Tribe broke the tie when Eddie Murphy walked to start the seventh, was forced by Edo Vanni who then swiped second base and went to third on an error, and then tallied on another ground-out.

Salem had the sacks jammed but one out when Marshall was waved out in the fourth. Roberts came on to whiff the first Solon swinger and get the next one out on a side-retiring fly to center.

A walk with one out and George McDonald's double in the seventh started trouble for Roberts. But he got the next two men easily enough, leaving the potential Solon runs at second and third. Myers singled with one away in the eighth, but he was left right there also. And in the ninth Stetter's leadoff single and Spaeter's sacrifice again set it up. Not one to be inconsistent, Roberts fanned both McDonald and Pinch-hitter Curt Schmidt to end the game.

Plenty of Victories Should Come of This

Lean Len Loses Close One

Ernie Koch streaked his yellow 'No. 1' car to victory here Saturday night to unseat Len Sutton as the hot-rod king of Hollywood bowl. A crowd of more than 3,000 saw Sutton — winner of the last two hot-rod meets here — finish an eyelash behind Koch in the 35-lap main event.

Lap 13 of the final race was hoodooed by the most spectacular collision of the racing season here. It started when veteran Frankie McGowan skidded to a halt on the east turn. Don Lorenson, of Corvallis, slid out of control to miss McGowan and was hit broadside by Don Porter of Salem.

Na One Hurt
It looked like a three-alarm ambulance call for a moment, but neither driver was hurt.

Winner Koch grabbed the lead on the eighth lap after Palmer Crowell had set the early pace. Crowell faded to fifth at the finish behind Andy Wilson and Max Humm who placed three-four.

Koch also beat Sutton in a special 7-lap heat race, and Frankie McGowan beat them both in the trophy dash.

Early comers got an additional thrill when Crowell crashed into a guard rail on the west turn during a warm-up spin. It was the third race meet in a row that "fence busters" have been in action at the bowl.

With the field of cars a bit lean last night, the promoters cancelled the class-B main-pro substituted a pair of semi-pro events that were better than some of the consolation races on record.

Emra Gets Win
In the better one, five of the hot trucks (on hand to get the push trucks started) battled it out for five laps with Bud Emra winning. Emra, a stock-car racer, got plenty of competition from Marvin Van Cleave of the Silverton tractor firm.

In the other special race, the three slowest hot rods in the time trials lined up against two high-way-variety hot-rod (known to the trade as "chair cars"). The racing models, paced by "Crash" Timmings, finished one-two-three.

Salem Slates Shotgun Meet

The annual Pacific International Trapshooters association zone shoot, one of the largest shotgun tournaments in the Northwest each summer, is to be banged off over the Salem Gun club ranges next weekend, July 13-14-15. Sharpshooters from Washington, Idaho and California, as well as many from Oregon, will fire in the big meet. Many of those now participating in the huge Sun Valley, Ida., classic will no doubt appear here also.

Included in the three days of shooting will be class championships, and 16-yard, handicap and doubles events. The meet will wind up with the zone handicap championship event Sunday.

Vancouver's Capilanos saw their WIL lead cut to three games Saturday night as they bowled to Tacoma, 8-3, while second-place Spokane was tripping Salem. Other games saw Yakima nose out Victoria, 6-5 and Wenatchee whip Tri-City, 8-1 in the first game of a twin-bill. (Second Wenatchee-Tri-City game on page 2).

Chisox Top Browns, Regain Amerk Lead as Boston Tounces Yankees

NEW YORK, July 7 (AP)—The Chicago White Sox pulled a game ahead of the New York Yankees and Boston Red Sox in the stirring American league pennant race tonight by beating the St. Louis Browns, 5-3.

Chicago entered the game a half game in front as a result of Boston's 10-4 victory over the Yanks in an afternoon game at Boston. A defeat would have dropped Chicago into third place with the Yanks regaining the lead and Boston moving into second place.

But Some Wonder Why
American Squad Favored In Tuesday All-Star Go
By Jack Hand
DETROIT, July 7 (AP)—By force of habit the American league rules a 7 to 5 favorite over the Brooklyn-dominated Nationals for the 18th all-star baseball game Tuesday at Detroit's Briggs stadium.

Minus Cleveland's Bobby Feller and other top pitchers like Yankee Vic Raschi and Allie Reynolds because of a league rule limiting pitcher picks to one from each club, the Americans rely on the old home run power to do the job.

Nationals Boost Power
Actually the long ball power is on the National league side in the starting lineups, decreed by vote of 4,274,978 fans in a poll conducted by newspapers, radio stations and magazines.

Each starter, except the pitcher named by the manager, must go at least three innings. After that Boss Casey Stengel of the Americans and Eddie Sawyer of the Nationals are on their own.

The Nationals open with such fence busters as Gil Hodges of Brooklyn who leads both majors in homers, Stan Musial of St. Louis, Del Dennis of Philadelphia and Bob Elliott of Boston. The American starting crew includes Vic Wertz and New York's Yogi Berra. Yogi, bothered by a sprained back, may not be able to make Kiner back.

Sawyer can bring on Ralph Kiner of Pittsburgh, just back from his three-day suspension, Wally Westlake of St. Louis, Duke Snider of Brooklyn, Willie Jones of the Phils and Bruce Edwards of Chicago all of whom can blast the ball into the seats. To say nothing of Red Schoendienst, the St. Louis second baseman who broke up the 1950 game, Chicago's Comiskey park with a 14th inning homer for a 4-3 National win.

But tradition and a 12-5 record in the series dating back to 1933 stand on the side of the Americans. (Cont. Next Page)

'Dwyer' Taken By Battlefield
NEW YORK, July 7 (AP)—Battlefield, George A. Widener's 1950 two-year-old champion, tossed a big monkeywrench into Counterpoint's claim for this year's three-year-old championship today as he won the $57,900 Dwyer stakes at Aqueduct after a furious stretch duel with Altered.

Counterpoint, which had beaten Battlefield in their last two meetings—the Belmont stakes and the Peter Pan handicap — finished ninth in the field of 10 sophomores.

Mixed Doubles Starts Today
Drawings will be held today, 2 o'clock, on the Willamette courts for the City mixed doubles tennis tourney. Action will start today in the event and will continue through the week. Director Del Ramsdell urges all interested men and women to turn out today.

CHIEFS SET EXHIBITION
WENATCHEE, July 7 (AP)—The Wenatchee Chiefs of the Western International league will meet an all-star semi-pro team in an orthopedic hospital benefit game here Monday night.

Puzzles Phils

Ralph Branca Wins 7th for Brooks
NEW YORK, July 7 (AP)—The heavyweight divisions' young guard finally gets it crack at the limelight Thursday night when Rex Layne and Rock Marciano, two of the best punchers around, battle it out in a ten rounder in Madison Square Garden.

Like the recent LaMotta-Murphy brawl, this figures to be a free-swinging affair from the start. Both hit hard and both can be hit. Layne, 23-year-old pride of the Rockies, from Lewiston, Utah, is a 7 to 5 favorite to win and hand Rocky his first pro defeat.

The winner will move right in line for a title shot. Once heavyweight champion Ezzard and the old guard get through their various round robin eliminations, the champion will have to deal with either Rocky or Rex.

Once again, there will be no telecast or broadcast for the general public.
