Two Charges Dropped for Evidence Lack

Charges of obtaining money by false pretenses and of burglary not in a dwelling lodged against Richard Edward Dougherty, Mill City, were dismissed when he appeared in Marion county district court Saturday.

District Judge Joseph Felton dismissed the charges for lack of sufficient evidence. Both were brought by a service station owner, Paul Paris.

Bound over to the Marion county grand jury Saturday were Antonio Joseph Rentz, 4055 Brooks ave., charged with attempting to set fire to his house last week, and Elmo C. Lowe, 1031 S. 25th st., charged with obtaining money by false pretenses. Both are being held in Marion county jail.

Free Enlistment Closes on July 15

This week will be the last in which draft-age men can enlist after receiving orders for physical examination, officials reminded this week end.

After July 15, recruiters may not accept men who have received such calls.

Special permission was granted from June 15 to July 15 for men to enlist in services of their choice, even if they already had taken their physicals.

GI Schooling Benefit Law Deadline Near

Unless tardy veterans who still intend to use their GI bill benefits sign up and get in school by July 25, they will lose out on the benefit altogether, for on that date educational benefits for World War II veterans come to an end.

The veterans administration says that mere filing of an application is not sufficient. Actual school attendance is required by July 25.

Veterans who have not completed courses and have dropped out of school, must re-enroll by July 25 in order to get the rest of their training time.

Exceptions to the expiration date are granted by the veterans administration to men who have been called back into the service. They are in the same classification as students now on summer vacation.

Phone Merger Hearing Set

Proposed merging of the Blachly-Deadwood Telephone company with the new Pioneer Telephone cooperative in Lane county will be considered at a public hearing slated for July 12, Public Utilities Commissioner George H. Flagg has announced.

The Pioneer cooperative, recently granted a large loan by the rural electrification administration, is purchasing facilities of the Coast Telephone company and intends to absorb several small cooperatives in providing extended communications service to sections of Benton, Lane, Lincoln and Polk counties.

Timber Sale Date Reported

Bids will be opened July 27 at Oregon State college for sale of timber from 196 acres near Forest peak, north of Corvallis, the school of forestry has announced.

Minimum bids are $12 per thousand board feet for some 6,500,000 feet of Douglas fir and $4 per thousand for 450,000 feet of white fir.

A tour of the area for possible buyers is slated to leave the forestry building on the campus at 1 p.m., July 23.

Marion, Polk Jersey Breeders Claim West Linn Show Honors

By Little L. Madsen
Farm Editor, The Statesman

WEST LINN, July 7 — Honors were accorded Marion and Polk counties' Jersey cattle breeders here Friday night at the Clackamas County Jersey Cattle club's achievement dinner held at West Linn hotel.

Honored from Polk county was M. N. Tibble of Independence, who was recently announced as the master Jersey breeder of the United States and awarded the trophy for this by the American Jersey Cattle club.

Honored from Marion county was Floyd E. Bates of Salem as newly elected western Jersey director for the American Jersey Cattle club. And Bates presented to Clackamas county the Jersey Bulletin Achievement cup for 1951. The cup is awarded each year to the county in the United States, which, according to the judges, has done the most for the furtherance of the breed.

The 1951 trophy award is the fourth time this honor has come to the Clackamas county club. Introduced by Mr. Bates as officers during the winning years were Mrs. Anton Malar, secretary for the 1920 achievement winning; George J. Horning, Jr., president, and Vesta Mark, secretary, in 1942; Martin M. Fox, president, and Mrs. George Horning, Jr., secretary, in 1945; and Harry Lais, president, and Mrs. Charles Couche, secretary in 1950. N. H. Smith, president in 1920, is now dead.

Walter Leth, former Polk county agent and once western director for the JCC, was toastmaster at the dinner which was attended by close to 100 Jersey breeders and friends from Clackamas, Marion and Polk counties in Oregon and Clark county in Washington.

A feature of the evening was the naming of the Clackamas county Jersey queen, 13-year-old Margaret Rider, daughter of the Milton Riders, and an eighth grade student at Canby. Miss Rider will reign in Clackamas county for the coming year and will vie with other Oregon counties for state honors at the Oregon state fair.

John D. Lienhart, Woodburn, 1951 president of the Clackamas Jersey Cattle club, introduced the queen following the balloting.

Presenting of trophies won at the spring Jersey show also was made during the evening, with three of the trophies going to Elmer Dietz of Canby. These included the Dr. C. H. Seagrave trophy for the best females from any one breeder; the First National Bank of Portland, Oregon City branch, cup for the grand champion bull; the United States National Bank of Portland, Oregon City branch, cup for the grand champion cow.

The Anderson Tractor & Implement trophy to the Canby FFA chapter for the high team in FFA judging contest was presented by Elmer Anderson. Lienhart presented the Clackamas county award to Ronald Toddy for high individual 4-H judging honors; to Don Rider for FFA showmanship, and to Glenn Arnett for the 4-H showmanship.

Mr. Lane, as out-going president, and Mrs. Couche as out-going secretary, were presented gifts from the club.

The word "ptomaine" was invented by an Italian chemist named Selmi for the basic substances produced in putrefaction, and is now used to indicate a certain class of food-poisoning.

The penitentiary to line up plans for the blood day Tuesday. It is hoped 300 pints may be obtained from the day's operation.

Bleachers Threatened By Trash Fire Embers

Third base bleacher seats were a hot spot Saturday afternoon at Waters park when a whirlwind scattered a trash fire into dry grass.

City firemen said attendants were burning trash in a cleared space when the whirlwind "fouled" the slow-burning embers under the bleachers and along the fence. Firemen were called in for relief role and retired the side without damage.

OSEA to Aid X-ray Drive

The Oregon State Employees association will co-ordinate state plans for participation in the Marion county 100 per cent chest x-ray campaign.

E. F. Schmidt, chairman, announced that a campaign to obtain voluntary contributions would be undertaken to help defray local costs of the survey.

OSEA President Robert Ashby announced that his group would be seeking membership in the "100 per cent club" being sponsored by Jason Lee, county chairman of the x-ray drive.
