Aid to India, Korea Topic For Meeting

Representatives of several statewide religious, relief, labor, women's, veterans' and educational organizations will gather today in the governor's office to discuss action to alleviate critical food and clothing shortages in India and Korea.

Gov. Douglas McKay called the meeting.

He disclosed that his office had received a large volume of letters and telegrams indicating it is imperative that the state consider some immediate construction action to aid stricken Indians and Koreans.

The governor said the organization that may result from meeting should bring together all responsible and interested groups in the state so that the burden of the relief effort would not fall on agricultural resources alone.

Hit-run Mishap Damages Auto

Little damage was reported in a hit-run auto accident in the 900 block of South 12th street Sunday afternoon.

Harry O. Shontz, Grants Pass, told city police that he was traveling north when a southbound auto swerved into his lane, striking his car on the left rear fender and bumper. Police said a complaint may be filed today. No injuries were reported in the collision.

Owner's Only Squawk In Poultry Burglary

CHICAGO, July 8-(AP)—Thieves surrounded by crates of chickens hauled an 800 pound safe containing $1,000 out of the Star Poultry market early today.

The only squawk came hours after the theft from store owner Louis Winoff, 32, who discovered his loss.

The market is across an alley from the Warren avenue police station.

Little Indians at the annual encampment near Nespelem, Washington, on the Colville reservation are led by an elder in their first war dance. This is a big event in an Indian lad's life. His parents give presents to persons in the crowd to celebrate the occasion. The three-day encampment, which ended July 7, drew Indians of many tribes.

Davis Named Honor Recruit At Navy Base

Seaman Recruit Delbert P. Davis, Salem naval reservist, has been selected honor man of his company during two weeks of reserve recruit training at San Diego, the navy announced Sunday.

Davis is due to return here today with 20 other members of Salem's organized naval reserve surface division, who have been taking the training. His selection, by the company from five candidates named by the company commander, was on the basis of leadership, sportsmanship, military bearing, initiative, response to orders, cleanliness.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Davis, 1340 Hall st.

Taking Nearest Exit Blamed for Fractures

PORTLAND, Ore., July 8-(AP)—Police here are checking on this one. Sherman Baker, 50, is in a hospital with fractures of both ankles. He was quoted by police as saying he'd been arguing with a woman and suddenly decided to leave by the nearest exit. It happened to be a window, and the ground was two stories below.

Abortion Trial Probably Due In September

PORTLAND, July 8-(AP)—The 14 persons arrested yesterday and Friday on charges of manslaughter by abortion, probably will not be brought to trial until September.

That was what District Attorney John B. McCourt reported today. He said the 14 would be arraigned in circuit court within 10 days.

Each has posted bail of $2500 on charges of manslaughter and operating a public nuisance. The manslaughter charge is punishable by a 15 year prison sentence and a $10,000 fine. The nuisance charge carries a maximum sentence of 180 days in jail and $500 fine.

McCourt said four grand jury indictments remained unserved today.

One of those arrested, Dr. H. R. Dewey, said Saturday that two Portland detectives had attempted to blackmail him last summer. He said he refused to pay $10,000 demanded of him and turned the case over to the district attorney. Dewey charged that the indictment resulted from his refusal to pay.

McCourt said city police under Chief Charles P. Pray, now retired, had investigated Dewey's charge.

Naval Reserve Chief Transferred to East

Transfer of Capt. C. C. Phleger, reserve director for the 13th naval district, from Seattle to Great Lakes, Ill., as inspector-general for 9th naval district, was announced Sunday.

Phleger, who has inspected Salem's naval reserve units frequently, will change duties Tuesday.

Acting director will be Capt. M. C. Parr, commandant's representative in Portland.
