

Lucile Cummings Sings on Telephone Hour Monday; Gorin, Kirstin Heard

By Maxine Euren
Statesman Music Editor

Columbia Broadcasting company offers the Mendelssohn oratorio "Elijah," recorded by the Huddleston choir almost in its entirety on the air this morning. Dorothy Kirsten will sing on the NBC summer symphony tonight and Lucile Cummings will be spotlighted on the Telephone hour Monday night.

Today's music includes:
10 a. m. on CBS—"Your Invitation to Music," James Fasset, host and commentator. A visit to Huddersfield, England.

"Elijah" Mendelssohn (Isobel Baillie, soprano; Gladys Ripley, contralto; James Johnston, tenor; Harold Williams, bass-baritone, with the Liverpool Philharmonic orchestra, conducted by Sir Malcolm Sargent, and the Huddersfield Choral Society).

8:30 on NBC—Symphony summer concert series, Victor Alessandro conducting, with Dorothy Kirsten, soprano, soloist. Overture to "Ruslan and Ludmilla" Glinka

Since First I Met Thee Rubenstein
Cemin' Thru the Rye Trad.
Hungarian Nance No. 3 Kirsten Brahms
Hungarian Dance No. 1 Brahms
Portrait of a Frontier Town Gillis
Favane Ravel
Perpetual Motion J. Strauss
Vissi d'Arte, from "La Tosca" Puccini
Bacchanale from "Samson and Delilah" Saint-Saens

8:30 on NBC—Soprano Olive Mae Beach is to sing on the Standard hour with Fabien Sevitzky conducting the Standard Symphony orchestra of Los Angeles.

Semiramide Overture Rossini
I'll See You Again Coward
Ziguener Miss Beach Coward
Aria Miss Beach Bach-Sevitzky
January, February, March Gillis
Emperor Waltz Strauss
Sympathy Friml
Giannina Mia Friml

Coppelia: Ballet Delibes

Monday programs will be:
8:30 on NBC—The Voice of Firestone, with orchestra and chorus directed by Howard Barlow, and Igor Gorin, baritone, soloist. It's More Fun Than a Fiddle McHugh

For You Alone Gorin and Orchestra Gehl
Lady of Spain Gorin Evans
Vision Fugitive from "Hercules" Massenet
Song of the Open Road Gorin Malotte
Danse Macabre Gorin and Chorus Saint-Saens
March of the Musketeers Friml

7:00 on NBC—Boston Pop orchestra directed by Arthur Fiedler. Carnival Overture Dvorak
Prayer of Thanksgiving Valerius
Invitation for the Dance Von Weber-Berlioz
Oxford Street March Coates
Egyptian Ballet Luigini
Overture to "Iolanthe" Sullivan
Triumphal March from "Aida" Verdi

8:30 on NBC—The Railroad hour, with baritone Gordon MacRae, soprano Dorothy Wareskjold, Carmen Dragon's orchestra and the Norman Luboff chorus, Springtime in Paris (an original play) including April in Paris, Misset the Lady, La Vie En Rose, La Mer (excerpts) and Gaiete Parisienne.

9:00 on NBC—The Telephone hour with Lucile Cummings, contralto, soloist; Donald Voorhees and the Bell Telephone orchestra. Love is a Dancing Thing Schwartz

Sappische Ode Brahms
Standchen Brahms
The March of Siamese Children Cummings Rodgers
Simple Gifts Trad.-Arr. Copland
The Slumber Boat Cummings Gaynor
Gypsy Airs Cummings Sarasate
Il Est Doux, Il Est Bon from "Hedoude" Cummings Massenet

WCTU Picnic at LeRud Home

The Central WCTU is holding its summer picnic meeting on Tuesday, July 17, at the home of Mrs. Nick LeRud on Chemawa road. Those going by bus take the Keiser bus from downtown at 11:35 and get off at 590 Chemawa road.

Mrs. Lena Lisle will give the devotional message and the question for consideration is "What Is Liquor Doing to America?" A discussion will follow with members taking part.

The bus will return to Salem at 3:20 and 4:10 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Smith, of Salem and Miss Francis Malotte of San Francisco have returned from Pullman Washington where they attended memorial services for William C. Kruegel. He was controller emeratus of Washington State College for many years and was a brother in law of Mrs. Smith and Miss Malotte.

Marie Kirsch
338 No. Capitol
Salem, Oregon

Velma Clemons
690 Vista Ave.
Salem, Oregon

Marie Turner
290 So. 14th
Salem, Oregon

Bernice Eitner
Rt. 2, Box 418
Salem, Oregon

Catherine Durschmidt
885 No. Winter St.
Salem, Oregon

Sally Stinnette
Rickreall, Oregon

Katherine Specht
155 Leslie St.
Salem, Oregon

Betty Bergner
1189 Jefferson St.
Salem, Oregon

Joyce Donna Holt
1420 Ferry St.
Salem, Oregon

Marlene Roschke
864 Kingwood Drive
Salem, Oregon

Ida Jo Henderson
Rt. 1, Box 356
Salem, Oregon

Shirley Valet
745 No. Church St.
Salem, Oregon

Patricia Ann Boyer
736 So. 19th St.
Salem, Oregon

Harriet Ness
1820 No. Cottage
Salem, Oregon

Mary Davey
3105 Lynn Ave.
Salem, Oregon

Virginia Currier
1225 No. 14th St.
Salem, Oregon

Hanna Walter
Rt. 9, Box 160
Salem, Oregon

Lois Chamberlain
2630 Fringle Rd.
Salem, Oregon

Katy Sigmund
245 So. 17th St.
Salem, Oregon

Joanne Jaqua
1381 Center St.
Salem, Oregon

Gwen Hawley
Rt. 2, Box 257
Salem, Oregon

Velma Davis
864 So. 17th St.
Salem, Oregon

Betty Davis
Rt. 2, Box 27
Dallas, Oregon

Dwyn Anne Herberger
2415 Mason St.
Salem, Oregon

Vote for the Queen Candidate of Your Choice! Miller's Hawaiian Queen Contest Closes July 24th

romantic Spain
inspires a slip

LA FIESTA in nylon tricot

by Artemis

Rich nylon lace forms a pair of elaborate fan-shaped insets in the slim skirt. Matching nylon lace is lavished on the bodice. Even the satin ribbon is nylon. All white in sizes 32 to 38, 32S to 36S.

$9.95

Miller's

1ST PRIZE
Week's Vacation
To Hawaii
Via Northwest
Airlines
Hawaiian Express
Stratocruiser

... ON TO HAWAII VIA NORTHWEST AIRLINES HAWAIIAN EXPRESS STRATO-CRUISER! THE VACATION OF A LIFETIME! ... stay at famous hotel ... surf bathing at famous Waikiki beach ... see the talarid, it's glamorous people, meet the "royalty" of Honolulu ... all this and much more for the lucky winner in this contest. Vote now ... don't put it off. Ballot box is stationed near the LITTLE GRASS SHACK Miller's main entrance.

2ND PRIZE
$269.95
Amana
Deep
Freezer

Miller's

"More People Than Ever Are Flying Northwest Airlines"