Little Black Book Yields More Recipes For Hobbyist to File Away and Forget

Goodness but there are lots of recipes in the world. Some women collect them just like they do salt shakers, old glass or postage stamps, never dreaming that they will ever try them all. Well we've been collecting recipes for many years, because there is always someone asking for special one, and it's sure to be the one we saw somewhere but didn't save. Looking into our beloved "little black notebook" which doesn't contain anyone's telephone number or any secrets of our heart-only recipes, we always find inspiration for a story or two. Those women who like lots of relishes may want to try out, or even just put into their collection, these recipes: The first will have to be used pretty soon, while the walnuts are still immature enough.

WALNUT SAUCE

Use young green walnuts which can be pierced with a pin or needle. Grind in meat chopper, and by the way, wear rubber gloves if you intend to keep your hands white.

- | | |
|--------------------------|-------------------------|
| 1 gallon ground walnuts | 1 teaspoon cinnamon |
| 4 tablespoons salt | 3 pints water |
| 1 tbs. ground mustard | 1 1/2 pints vinegar |
| 1/2 tbs. ground cloves | 1/2 cup sugar |
| 1 teaspoon grated nutmeg | 1/2 tablespoon allspice |

Mix well, simmer one hour, but don't let boil after heating. Cover and let infuse one or two hours. Strain, bottle and process for 10 minutes, seal.

Fresh mint is to be found in lots of garden right now, and might be utilized to this relish:

FRESH MINT RELISH

- | | |
|----------------------------|---------------------------|
| 1 1/2 cups cider vinegar | 1/4 cup seedless raisins |
| 2 teaspoons dry mustard | 1/4 lb. fresh tomatoes |
| 1 cup sugar | 3 medium onions |
| 3 tbs. fresh mint, chopped | 2 chopped unpeeled apples |

Scald vinegar, add sugar and mustard. Cool, add other ingredients. Pour in sterilized jars and seal. Serve with lamb. This makes one quart.

As soon as apples come in plentifully try:

DILL-APPLE RELISH

- | | |
|-----------------------|----------------------|
| 6 large ill pickles | 10 tablespoons sugar |
| 6 medium sized apples | 1 teaspoon salt |
| 1/2 cup onion | 1/4 cup vinegar |
| | 1/2 cup pimiento |

Core but do not pare apples. Put with pickles, onions through food chopper. Add remaining ingredients and let stand in refrigerator 24 hours before serving. Good with ham. May bottle and keep as for other relishes.

Miss Sara Ann Ohling Tells Betrothal

Taking the romantic spotlight this morning is Miss Sara Ann Ohling, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill D. Ohling, whose engagement to Donald H. Wells, son of Harvey L. Wells of Sweet Home, was revealed Friday night at a dessert supper party at the Ohling home on South High street. No date has been set for the wedding.

The bride-elect, an attractive brunette, is a member of the Spinners. She graduated from Willamette university and later took graduate work at the University of Washington. She is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority. Mr. Wells, who is now in the mercantile business with his father in Sweet Home, attended Northwestern university and is a graduate of Oregon State college. His fraternity is Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

The table was covered with a frost pink satin cloth and centered with a tall milk glass compote filled with hydrangeas shading from white to a deep pink. Streamers in the same shades extended from the compote to each place, where individual corsages marked places for the guests. The names of the engaged duo were disclosed in each corsage.

Attending the announcement party were the bride-elect's mother and sister, Mrs. Merrill D. Ohling and Miss Alice Louise Ohling. Mrs. John Slanchik, Mrs. Richard Gahlsdorf, Mrs. Lester D. Green, Mrs. Marvin Goodman, Mrs. Fred S. Anunson, Jr., Mrs. William J. Hughes, Mrs. Roger M. Schnell, Miss Patricia Larson, Miss Lois Mulcahy, Miss Sally Ann Barr, Miss Jeanne Busick, Miss Evelyn Johnson, Miss Barbara Crawford, Miss Marianne Bonesteale, Miss Carmelita Hoppe, Miss Suzanne and Miss Joan Barnes.

Girl Scout Camp Staff Listed

Smith Creek Girl Scout camp is well under way for the annual summer camp period. The regular staff is assisted by qualified senior scout camp aides from Salem and Sweet Home. There are still a few openings in the final session for intermediate Girl Scouts, August 7 to 20. All other sessions have waiting lists.

The staff at Smith Creek is composed of the following: Miss Dorothy Wilson, field director of the Saniam Area Council, the camp director; Miss Joyce Cropp, Seattle, business manager and dietitian; Miss Peggy Boyce, Prineville, water front director; Miss Jean Schuttpelz, LaGrande, assistant water front director; Miss Barbara Smith, Everett, Wash., Mrs. Olive Fields, Eugene, unit leaders. Miss Joe Jensen, Forest Grove, Miss Nancy Pond, Portland, Miss Elaine Robinson, LaGrande, and Miss Patricia Nickel, Albany, assistant unit counselors; Mrs. Elizabeth Hooper, Eugene, coop; Miss Iola Hoxworth, Corvallis, kitchen helper; Ray Thorpe, Eugene, handy boy; Mrs. L. E. Block and Mrs. Norman Dodds, Silverton, registered nurses. One or more registered nurses are needed for the remaining sessions to serve a week or two.

McKees Honored On Anniversary

Jefferson — Forty-one friends and relatives feted Mr. and Mrs. Charles McKee of Waldport at a picnic dinner Sunday in observance of their golden wedding anniversary. The dinner was served at long tables under the big walnut tree on the place they recently bought in Jefferson and plan to move into in the near future. A three-tier, decorated wedding cake was a feature of the dinner.

All of the original wedding guests with the exception of one brother, Wade Thacker of Mantler, Kans., were present Sunday. They included Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Denison and Paul McKee of Jefferson and Mrs. Myrtle Carter of Shawnee, Okla.

Minnie Thacker and Charles McKee were married on July 14, 1901 at Aaron Springs, Indian Territory (Oklahoma). They lived at Bradley, I. T., moving to Shoshone, Idaho, in 1905 and to Jefferson in 1910. In May of 1911, McKee began working for A. C. Miller in his meat market here. That fall, with Earl Lyles, he bought the shop and operated it most of the years he lived in Jefferson.

Selling the market to Mr. and Mrs. Russell Daulton in 1947, the McKees have lived at Bend and Waldport. Several months ago, they bought the Lloyd Bilyeu house on Main street, and plan to soon return to Jefferson.

Mrs. Phagens a State Officer

Salem's delegation to the Oregon Beauticians association convention in Corvallis this week returned with honors, officers reported on Friday. Wilma Phagens of Modern Beauty college was elected state secretary and also was winner of the annual "parade of Oregon" contest. She is to go to Chicago in the fall for the national hairdressers convention.

The Salem unit received the traveling cup for the largest percentage of membership gain during the year. The convention was invited to meet in Salem next year. Principal speaker was Erich Laetsch of Salem, president of the National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists association, the first west coast member to head the group. Other officers elected included Marjorie Hart of Corvallis, president, and Jean Brandt of Lebanon, first vice president. The Salem delegation included Elaine Sutter, president, Hazel Gotchall, Vern Eggers, Melie Selard, Evalyne Czarnetzki, Vivian Enyeart, Margaret Lloyd, Mrs. Phagens and Laetsch.
