

Reunion for Dormans

FORT WORDEN, Wash., Aug. 18—It was both a reunion and a homecoming here for Oregon's state finance officer, Harry Dorman (right), who was a 2nd Lieutenant at Fort Worden 33 years ago. His son, 1st Lt. Robert Dorman, is now here with the 369th engineer amphibious support regiment. The elder Dorman flew to Fort Worden recently with Gov. Douglas McKay who reviewed the troops.

210 Participate In Hobby Day At Playgrounds

The eight Salem city playgrounds closed out their series of special days Friday afternoon when 210 entries were recorded for the annual Hobby Horse day.

Largest attendance was recorded at Englewood playground, where there were 75 entries and 140 participants.

Lists of the prizewinners show that many "family teams" combined talents to walk away with many of the laurels. Several children won prizes in more than one division. The horses were made by the children.

The contest was divided into best-decorated hobby horses, and hobby horse races for boys and girls aged 3 to 5, 6 to 8 and 9 and older.

Winners at the playgrounds, in first, second and third order, were:

Street, Dam Work at Silverton

SILVERTON—The Silverton city water department completed a new six-inch main last week on North Second street between C and D streets. Other lines on D street were tied in at the same time with a one and half inch line. The work will better water pressure for six homes and the proposed new church building on North Second street.

In the meantime, considerable progress is being made in the construction of the Abiqua dam east of Silverton.

Pouring cement for a large section of the dam proper was completed during the past week. This segment brings the dam up to over half its height.

A section five feet square is being left out of the dam to serve as a diversion tunnel for the water while the rest of the dam is being poured. Later, this section will be filled in.

The base of the settling basin near the dam has been poured and forms for the sides were being completed this week. Also an 80 foot section of 14-inch pipe is being laid connecting with the settling basin.

F. S. Lord and company of Portland are the contractors in charge of construction.

Oregon Planes Flying to Virginia

Planes from the 463rd troop carrier wing will leave Portland air base Friday on the first lap of a trip to Norfolk, Va., to participate in a display of air power at Camp Pendleton, near Norfolk, August 25.

Capt. Jack J. Haak, a Willamette university graduate, and wing liaison officer, and Capt. Stanley P. Richardson, troop carrier group liaison officer, will be in charge of the mission.

Italian Court to Try 2 Ex-GIs For Slaying of Wartime C.O.

ROME, Aug. 18—A provincial prosecutor decided today an Italian court will try two former American soldiers—either in person or in absentia—for the behind-the-lines slaying of U. S. Maj. William Wholohan in 1944.

Aroldo Borghese, general prosecutor of the Turin district, changed an earlier decision and said he would ask for extradition of former Lt. Aldo Icardi of Preakness, N. J., and former Sgt. Carl G. LoDolce of Rochester, N. Y., after further investigations.

"The two Americans, if they are not turned over to the Italian magistracy," Borghese said, "will be tried in absentia."

A trial in absentia is largely for the record. A person convicted in such a trial is subject to punishment only if he comes to Italy.

In any case, imprisonment is the top penalty. Italy abolished capital punishment for ordinary crimes in 1948 and for political crimes in 1948.

Both Icardi and LoDolce have denied charges of the U. S. defense department that they got rid of service (?) the killing occurred on foreign soil.

But the United States seems to be leaving the way open for Italy if she wishes to bring them to trial, as she is doing with the two Italians. Former partisans Giuseppe Mannini and Guastiero Tozzini will go on trial soon for murder. They have been in jail nearly a year.

Italian fears that the Americans could not be extradited under existing agreements appeared clarified by opinions of the legal section of the U. S. embassy in Rome. Sources there cited the U. S.-Italian extradition treaty of 1888, which includes murder as one of the crimes for which extradition may be sought by either country.

SUGAR RATION CUT

LONDON, Aug. 18—(P)—The ministry of food has ordered cuts in the sugar allocation to caterers and manufacturers, to save dollars. But the domestic ration will be maintained at 10 ounces weekly, the ministry said.

Russian Ex-Premier Plots Against Kremlin

MUNICH, Germany, Aug. 18—(P)—Alexander Kerensky, exiled ex-premier of Russia, met secretly Friday with anti-communist refugee groups in Germany to map a campaign against the Kremlin. Russian sources here said Kerensky is trying to unite several independent groups, now operating separately, in order to increase their effectiveness.
