Church Rites Unite Couple Saturday

Baskets of white and yellow gladioluses banked the altar of the First Church of the Nazarene Saturday night for the wedding of Miss Ruth Irene Pardo, daughter of Mrs. Theresa Sikorra and William E. Pardo, who became the bride of Thomas C. Hardwick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hardwick of Booths Point, Tenn. The 8 o'clock double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Eugene L. Stowe.

Miss Pauline Petticoat sang and Miss Verlene Erickson was the soloist. Lighting the tapers were Miss Jeanette Gilmour and Miss Kathy Shank, who wore aqua formals.

Of ivory slipper satin was the bridal gown made with a marquisette yoke and long sleeves edged in lace. The skirt was fashioned with tiers of the lace cascading from the waistline in back to the end of the train. An orange blossom headpiece held in place her fingertip veil. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Carry Flowered Lamps—Miss Patricia McCorkle of Eureka, Calif., was the honor maid and wore a yellow taffeta frock with lace bodice. She carried a flowered lamp of green and white, gladioluses centered with a candle. The bridesmaids were sisters of the bride, Miss Donna Pardo, and the twins, Miss Marie and Miss Margaret Pardo, all wearing mist green taffeta and lace dresses. They carried flowered lamps of yellow and white gladioluses centered with candles. Shirley Sikorra, also a sister of the bride, was the flower girl and she wore a yellow frock.

Everett Duckett of Independence was his cousin's best man and ushers were James Hardwick, Jack Hardwick, Jr., brothers of the groom, Joe Pugh, Ray Doran and William Brickson.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Sikorra wore an aqua gown with orchid corsage. The groom's parents were unable to come west for the ceremony.

A reception followed in the church annex. Mrs. James Hardwick poured and Mrs. Jack Hardwick, Jr., cut the cake. Assisting were Misses Kathy Haskins, Marlene Wolvort, Joyce Wright, Jeanne Girard, Ann Haskins, Peggy Hamilton, Mrs. William Brickson and Mrs. Delmar Klassen.

For traveling the bride changed to a deep wine tulle with grey accessories. The newlyweds will make their home in Coos Bay.

Judge and Mrs. James T. Brand have been vacationing at Brettenbush the past week. Mrs. Brand left Saturday morning for Coos Bay to attend the wedding of Miss Ann McGeorge that evening. She is spending the weekend there as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. James Bedingfield.
