August Stock Market Makes Driving Finish

NEW YORK, Sept. 1-(P)-August made a driving finish in the stock market this week and reached a peak near the highest levels of 21 years.

By all expectations, stock were supposed to act like an old man looking forward to resting in the Indian summer sun. That's because the market usually is quiet and dull before the three-day recess for Labor day.

August's best, and closed at $97.60. That is only 20 cents below the 1951 high which in turn is the highest since Sept. 23, 1930. Another overall bullish sign was volume. It came to 7,356,000 shares this week with prices rising as compared with 6,103,000 shares last week when prices were falling.

PAPER RAISES RATES

ASTORIA, Sept. 1 -(AP)- An increase in subscription rates was announced today by the daily newspaper, Astorian Budget. The monthly rate was boosted from $1 to $1.25 and the annual rate, payable in advance, from $11 to $13.50. Higher production costs made the increase necessary, the newspaper
