Comparing notes on their college wardrobe and checking campus fashions in the magazines are Norma Hamilton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph S. Hamilton, Miss Sharon Brown, daughter of the Keith Browns, who will enroll for their freshman year at the University of Oregon; and at the right Miss Margaret Miller, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Vern W. Miller, who will be a freshman at Oregon State college this fall. (All photos on this page by Kennell-Ellis studio).

Soon it will be books and exams for these two future Willamette university coeds, above, Miss Judi Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Wood, who has received the Rotary scholarship, and Miss Pat Wegner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wegner.

Records and singing play an important part in the entertainment for coeds in the living organizations on the campus. Here Miss Donna Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson, who is headed for Oregon State college, and Miss Rosemary Rowell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul T. Rowell, who will be studying at the University of Idaho, play a group of popular tunes.

Headed for the University of Oregon are these two freshmen coeds at the left, Miss Gail Lochead, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Lochead, and Miss Mary Sundet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Sundet, pictured with university symbol, the Oregon duck.

Sally Barr to Wed Roger Probert . . .

Today's exciting romantic news is the announcement being made by Mr. and Mrs. Lester F. Barr of the betrothal and forthcoming marriage of their only daughter, Miss Sally Ann Barr, to Roger Probert, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Probert, all of Salem. The engagement comes as a complete surprise to the couple's many friends.

The wedding of the couple will take place on Friday, October 26 in Austin, Texas, where Mr. Probert is a technical representative for the Philco corporation at the Bergstrom air force base. Mr. and Mrs. Barr will accompany their daughter south for the ceremony.

The attractive, brunette bride-elect is a graduate of Salem schools and attended the University of Oregon. She is an active member of the Spinners and is currently serving as president of the philanthropic organization, from which she will resign, as Austin will be her future home. She is employed at Ladd and Bush branch, United States National bank.

Mr. Probert, also a graduate of Salem schools, received his degree from Oregon State college. His fraternity is Phi Delta Theta. During World war II he served in the air force. Until June, when he accepted the position with the Philco corporation, he was employed by the city of Portland.

Four Salem high school graduates headed for college this fall are left to right: Miss Betty Jo Davenport, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville J. Davenport, who has received a scholarship to the University of Southern California; Miss Betty Gilbert, daughter of the Tinkham Gilberts, who will attend Willamette university (her twin sister, Ann, was unable to be present when the picture was taken, but will also attend Willamette); Miss Margie Dunigan, daughter of the William Dunigans, who will register at Willamette; and Miss Carolyn Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Parker, who will enroll at Oregon State college.

Taking time out after a game of croquet to talk over their future college days are Miss Carol Hardie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Hardie, who will enter Lewis and Clark college this fall; Miss Cella Weaver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen L. Weaver, and Miss Lenore Phillippe, daughter of the Harold F. Phillippe, who will register at Oregon State college this month.
