Around Town....

By Jeryne English
STATE FAIR TIDBITS ... As usual a capacity crowd everywhere on Labor day ... at the races, shows and on the midway ... Perhaps, the coolest spot, if there was one, was at the races as the grandstand is in the shade ... From out-of-town ... noted Mr. and Mrs. Bland Simmons (Beverly McGilchrist) down from Portland with their two children until Wednesday ... at the races they were with Beverly's parents, the Gordon McGilchrist, her brothers and their wives, the Stuart and Edson McGilchrist ... and Gordon, Jr. ...

Between races ... chatting with John and Joy Johnson were his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Edmond J. Thompson (Marjorie Ann Johnson), who are up from their home in San Rafael, Calif. ... also with the Johnsons were his sister, Elizabeth, and Allan Mann, Jr. of Portland ... With the Arnold Kruegers ... their boys were their son and daughter-in-law, Gordon and Elizabeth Krueger ... and the Dean Trumbos, who are down from Portland for the fair ...

In their usual boxes ... The Ralph Cooleys ... she smart in navy blue with a lilac hat trimmed in velvet ribbon of a deeper shade ... In another group ... The James B. Youngs, Floy W. Shepards, P. D. Quimberry, Daniel J. Fry, Errol W. Kays, and the Paul Hendricks ... With the Charles E. Stricklins their daughter, Nancy, (Mrs. James Rowe), who is here from southern California ...

More of same ... The Leon Ferrys and Dr. and Mrs. John R. Wood chatting with the A. W. Loucks, junior William L. Phillips and Vernon Ferrys ... In another box ... Mr. and Mrs. Evert Givens ... she smart in a deep violet wool with lilac felt ... Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lorenz ... the latter in a deep plum ensemble ... and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bright ... Mrs. Bright in a brown outfit with beige and brown striped jacket ... Mrs. Earl Snell occupying her usual box and chic in a navy blue suit and matching velvet hat ... Always together ... Mrs. Ben Wittner and Mrs. Walter Cline ... the latter choosing a burnt orange hat with her brown ensemble ...

Facing their bets ... Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Ballmer, who are also taking in the nightly horse shows ... the Brazier Smalls ... Mr. and Mrs. Parker Gies, who have just returned from Madras, where they have been living the past few years ... The Gordon Hadleys over from Independence ...

Out-of-town guests ... of Governor and Mrs. Douglas McKay on Monday at the races and horse show were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Clapp of Cottage Grove ... coming for the fair on Wednesday and Thursday as guests of the McKays will be Mr. and Mrs. George A. Braley of Portland ...

On the midway ... The Gene Vandenevdes with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ted E. Reed, up from Roseburg for the fair ... Pat chic in her brown-beige, and white plaid wool and white hat with gold trim ... Mrs. Leona Johnson and her daughter, Miss Julia Johnson, down from Lewis and Clark college for the holiday weekend ... Dr. and Mrs. Wayne Page and children, Judy and Doug, over from Dallas ... With the Solon Stinkles were their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Findley and boys of Corvallis ... Winston and Grace Williams also taking in the sights and the exhibits ...

Usherettes ... at the nightly horse show ... a group of Wilmette university coeds ... Anne Forristal at one of the concessions ... Marion Sparks, who has been in Ashland at the Shakespearean Festival all summer, home just in time to take tickets at the main gate at the Fairgrounds road entrance ... Susan Youngquist awarding the ribbons opening night at the horse show ... Outstanding ... the beautiful floral displays this year ... and noteworthy the gorgeous orchids ... purple, white, green and bronze ones ... as well as the begonias and fuchsias ... and clever are the miniature displays on shelves encircling the towers ... depicting the various holidays with table arrangements and centerpieces ... The culinary division has a new location this year, just outside the entrance to the textile division in the agricultural building ... decorated in chartreuse and burgundy ... glass cases all around the room with islands in the center filled with canned fruit, very effective and colorful ... The teen age set ... probably having the most fun at the fair ... quite a sight to see the boys and girls wearing their Mexican hats, colored felt derbies with feathers ... and at closing time going home with their arms loaded with kewpie dolls, lamps and all kinds of animals such as horses, dogs, cats, fish and ducks ... canes and souvenirs ... all a little weary, but happy they had spent part of their summer's earnings ...

Crib Frame That Can Be Folded and Strapped, Handy Item for Traveling

Traveling with a small baby is always a problem because you cannot take his crib with you and the chances are the people you visit have no cribs in their homes. A good solution to the problem is the folding crib frame that can be strapped on to a regular bed or even a studio couch. The frame has no bottom, so the mattress of the child will be sleeping on the mattress of the regular bed. The straps fit under the bed or mattress holding the frame securely and you have metal buckles at each corner of the crib rail to hold it in place. When folded, the frame is 6 by 20 by 27 inches or suitcase size. When open it is
