

Senators Finish With 15-9 Rush

Schmidt Winner, Hits Grand Slam
Homer; Myers Has 4-Master Also

ATHLETIC PARK, Victoria, Sept. 4.—(Special)—The Salem Senators thrashed the 1951 Western International league season tonight and at the same time wrung the necks of the Victoria Athletics 15 to 9. The Senators in closing out their rush banged out 17 hits, two of which were home runs. Curt Schmidt the winning pitcher, banged a grand slam homer in the second inning with Joe Stetter, Bill Spitzer and Dick Bartle aboard. The wallop came off Pitcher Bill Pryor.

Snyder Wins 27th, Topples Hurling Mark

VANCOUVER, B. C., Sept. 4.—(P)—Bob Snyder of Vancouver Capilanos tonight set a Western International league pitching record by winning his 27th game as the Caps closed out their season by blitzing Spokane, Indiana 14-0.

Vancouver finished half-a-game behind Spokane, who won the pennant Saturday.

Stagg Feels Chipper As 62nd Year Starts

SELINGSROVE, Pa., Sept. 4.—(P)—A spry, chipper Amos Stagg, 89 years, today opened his 62nd season as a college football coach. The white haired dean of football coaches greeted 35 young football candidates at Susquehanna university where he assists his son, Amos Alonzo, Jr., the school's athletic director, during the grid season.

"I feel better than I have in the past 10 years," Stagg told a reporter with a twinkle in his eye. "I'm looking forward to enthusiasm in a good year."

JOE GORDON No Illusions Now

Joe Gordon is said to be the inspirational brand of manager—certainly his terrific lead in the FCL homer and runs-batted-in races should be some sort of inspiration to his Sacramento underlings. True, Joe had the Saes at his top in the first couple of months—but now look at 'em. Fitting in and out of the league class.

So Joe finds, in his first skippin' venture, that you can't keep a ball club up there solely through your own efforts at bat and in the field. You also require help from the supporting cast...

Placing men on the honor squads before the season actually is launched puts 'em squarely on the spot, makes 'em marked men the opposition particularly likes to gun for. And few are the guys who don't like to knock over the "golden boys" when the chance presents itself...

Angels Defeat Bevos; Suds Fail to Clinch

PORTLAND, Sept. 4.—(P)—A three-run surge in the ninth-inning broke a tie tonight and gave the Los Angeles Angels a 4-2 Coast league victory over Portland's Beavers. The win put third-place Los Angeles 1 1/2 games ahead of the Bevos. Marino Pieretti was the losing hurler and Doyle Lade got the win, giving seven hits.

At Seattle Oakland delayed the Rainiers' clinching of the pennant with a 10-4 victory over the Suds. Second-place Hollywood retained its slim chance with a 7-4 win over Sacramento which moved the Stars six games from the top. San Diego topped last-place San Francisco 5-2.

16-Year-Old Upsets Hart

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Sept. 4.—(P)—Frank Sedgman of Australia, long overdue, finally took his place among the fine tennis champions today when he brought his big game to its absolute peak and slaughtered Vic Seixas of Philadelphia, 6-4, 6-1, 6-1, in the final of the national championships.

Rivera Named Most Valuable

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 4.—(AP)—Centerfielder Jim Rivera, 30-year-old star for Seattle in the Pacific Coast league, today was announced as the most valuable player in the loop and winner of the Charles E. Graham plaque. Rivera received 14 of the 23 votes for the honor cast by baseball writers and managers.

Yanks, Red Sox Start Crucial Series Tonight

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—(P)—The New York Yankees returned to their favorite hunting grounds, the Yankee stadium, tomorrow night for their extended home stay during which they have to nail down their third straight American league pennant.

Twenty-one of the Yanks' remaining 24 games are booked for the stadium, where they have won 42 and lost only 15 so far. The three road contests are in Boston where the Yanks have dropped eight straight.

Leo Kiely (4-3), rookie left-hander, has been selected to pitch for the Red Sox in the series opener against Vic Raschi (17-8). Bill Wright (6-5) and Ray Scarborough (11-7) are expected to pitch for the Red Sox Thursday against Ed Lopat (18-7) and Allie Reynolds (13-7).

The Indians meanwhile entertain the Detroit Tigers tomorrow night in their last home game until the final two days of the season, when they again take on the Tigers. Following tomorrow's game with Detroit the Indians embark on a 17-game road trip that includes stops in every city. The Tribe, however, has only two games left each with the Yanks and Red Sox.

Cleanies Cop Tag Team Win

It took some fast maneuvering by Referee Elton Owen in the final end of the right due—the cleanies—came out of last night's rip-roaring tag team mat scrap at the army with the win. Owen was tossing the grapplers out of the ring right and left as the party got rough in the final heat, and finally settled on a pin hold Gordy Hessel had on Aussie Jack Carter as the finisher.

Amateur Golf Classic Opens Sched Monday

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—(P)—Young Sam Uzzetta of Rochester, N. Y., opens defense of his National Amateur Golf championship next Monday against Eugen Zuspahn of Goodland, Kans., but shortly after that things start gettin' rough. Zuspahn qualified for the tournament last week with 77-72-149 and if that's his average game, the Kansan isn't apt to provide an opening day upset. As champion, Uzzetta was one of 11 players who didn't have to qualify.

Haney Favors Sched Change

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 4.—(P)—Fred Haney, manager of the Hollywood baseball team, is all in favor of the Pacific Coast league's shortened 168-game season—with reservations. Sliced from 200 games this year, the season ends Sunday, a month sooner than 1950.

26 Stocks Booked for Fair Races Sunday

A total of 26 stock cars, including all those that have capped most of the gold and glory in the Hollywood Bowl events this season, will be entered in the State Fair's auto racing program next Sunday afternoon on Lone Oak track at the fairgrounds. It was announced by Northwest Sports yesterday.

The answers to everyday insurance problems

By Sid Boise

QUESTION: We can't find our fire insurance policy anywhere. Can you tell me if we can have it replaced?

ANSWER: Yes, the company will have you sign a lost policy release and will issue a new one. Better keep the new one in a safe deposit box with other valuable papers.

* If you'll address your own insurance questions to this office, we'll try to give you the correct answers and there will be no charge or obligation of any kind.
