

Quota of Metal For Consumer Goods Slashed

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3—(AP)—The government today sharply tightened its share of key metals to many consumer goods producers and warned of further cuts if the 10-day copper strike continues much longer.

Industry had been warned in advance that the new cuts in steel, copper and aluminum allocations for the October-December fourth quarter period were coming because of defense needs. But today's slash was deeper than previously indicated.

Makers of many household appliances like stoves, refrigerators and radios were cut down to 58 per cent of their pre-Korean war consumption. This means fewer such appliances and standard household gadgets will be for sale in 1952.

Producers of such items have been on a 70 per cent allocation during the present quarter.

81-Year-Old Fiddler Wins

Spry and witty 81-year-old C. E. Cowden of Medford, having fiddled since he was a youngster, won the old-time fiddlers' contest at the state fair when it ended abruptly Wednesday afternoon because the fiddlers got "too tired to play any longer."

Winner in the under-60 age division was Ray Mack of Salem, who also took the 1950 contest here. Emma Ulery, Salem, was first in the women's division with Maureen Gustafson, also of Salem, second.

Group winners in the men's division of the contest, which started Sunday, were C. C. Mitchell, Tienan; Frank Vader, Lebanon; John W. Bruhl, Portland; Ed Blake, Monmouth; and Albert Liechty, Silverton.

Livestock Men Elect Tangent Man President

Oregon Purebred Livestock association Wednesday night re-elected Lloyd Foster of Tangent president for the coming year. The group met for dinner in the 4-H building at the state fairgrounds.

Also re-elected were Henry Ahrens, Turner, vice president; Claude Sleusloff, Salem, secretary, and T. R. Hobart, Silverton, treasurer.

Stockmen at the session expressed their satisfaction with the increasing participation of youths in livestock events at the fair. They indicated that the time may not be far off when separate barns or separate showing times for 4-H livestock events are necessary at the fair.

Among speakers were R. G. Fowler, Sr., Medford, of the state fair commission; Dick Richards, assistant fair manager; Ralph Morgan, state FFA head.

Food Raiders' Tastes Differ From Judges

Marauders made a substantial dent in Oregon state fair baked goods and candy, and they didn't have the same taste as the food division judges.

When the exhibit room was opened Wednesday, Mrs. Gladys Turnbull, division supervisor, found Mrs. Leana Slanton's date bars (which judges had passed up) were gone; bits of cake had been nibbled but prize sponge cake was on the floor; numerous cookies had been sampled; divinity and peanut brittle were all but gone.

Fairgrounds police said they hadn't a clue to go on, but they intimated they wouldn't have minded joining an eating spree in the mouth-watering cooking department.

Gambling Tax Approved by Senate Group

By Ralph Howland
WASHINGTON, Sept. 3—(AP)—A senate committee approved today a plan to tax gamblers, then trimmed its big revenue bill by an additional $224,000,000.

The revenue measure now is designed to raise an additional $5,972,000,000 annually, including a $400,000,000 take from gamblers. The bill was expected to raise $7,200,000,000 annually as the house passed it.

Only odds and ends remain to be cleaned up before the senate finance committee finishes work on the bill. Members hope to have it framed for floor action by Monday.

The biggest revenue losing provision approved in an afternoon session would give a break to home-owners who must sell their homes and buy others. It provides that an owner need not pay the capital gains tax on the profit from the sale if the entire profit is used within a year for the purchase of another home. If he builds a new home, he is allowed 18 months to use up the sale profit.

Although the treasury has expressed doubts about enforcement of the gambling tax, the senate committee decided to give it a try. The house adopted the levy with a statement it did not intend to give the color of legality to any illegal enterprise.

Amounts handled by bookmakers and other commercial gamblers would be taxed 10 per cent. There also would be a $50 a year occupational tax on persons who handle bets and operate numbers lotteries.

Vets' Bonus Office Opens

Preparations for Oregon's veterans bonus program have moved to new office space, but application forms for the bonus will not be ready for distribution until next month, Supervisor H. C. Saalfeld announced Wednesday.

The office, a division of the state department of veterans' affairs, is now over Bishop's store on North Liberty street.

Saalfeld is assisted by Carl Cover and six other employees, but expects to have about 50 workers when processing of applications get under way.

AIR CONDITIONED
HOLLYWOOD
"Salem's Only Home-Owned Theatre"
STARTS TODAY - OPEN 6:45
SMUGGLER'S ISLAND
TECHNICOLOR
JEFF CHANDLER-EVELYN KEYES
PLUS
UNIVERSAL INTERNATIONAL PRESENTS
FAT MAN'S
Starring
I. SCOTT SMART
and Introducing the World Famous
CHANNETT KELLY

PARADISE ISLANDS
More beautiful than ever! See our Begonia Island. Plenty of fireplaces and wood for Wisner Roasts! Refreshment stand. Open late evenings. 3 miles out Turner Road.

Horace Heidt Show Includes Salem Talent

Six Salem performers will appear with the Horace Heidt band in concerts tonight in Salem under Shrine club auspices.

Winners of recent auditions here, the performers are a singing trio of schoolgirls, Carol Lee, Sidney Kremer and Laurel Herr, who topped the auditions; Norvada Smedley, 21-year-old soprano, and a husband-wife singing duo, Bill and Harriet Bush.

The trio and Miss Smedley will be in the 6:30 p.m. show at Salem high school auditorium. One of the acts will be selected to compete in talent finals with the Bush couple in the 9 p.m. show on the same stage.

Shrine members said Wednesday that tickets are still on sale downtown until 5 p.m. today, then go on sale at the school. All seats are reserved.

Guard Rebukes Control Board For Pen Policy

A state prison guard alleged Wednesday the state board of control is attempting to "clean up the prison at the expense of the guards," before the new warden takes over.

The guard is Russell Knowles, president of the prison chapter of the Oregon State Employees association. He emphasized, however, that he was not speaking for the association.

His remarks were sparked by a board of control proposal Tuesday that state police recruits serve apprenticeships as prison guards.

Knowles said that nearly all the guards at the prison could be efficient, competent men if given proper training. As an example, he cited an instance which he said occurred last Saturday night when two convicts, one a condemned murderer, were halted by guards' shots.

One of the guards, Knowles said, was forced to shoot at the fleeing men with a 38 calibre pistol because "he could not use the sub-machine gun at his elbow because he had not been properly instructed in its use."

"A wholesale dismissal of guards at the prison will not solve the disciplinary problem," said Knowles. "Guards should be dismissed when necessary, but only through good reason."

Knowles denied there are two factions in the guard personnel set-up, as alleged by State Treasurer Walter Fearsoon. He said guards work well together, when they have the proper coordinating instructions. He added that all guards "will be strictly behind" the new warden if he can "straighten out the prison's internal discipline."

WASHING APPROVES BASES
WASHINGTON, Sept. 3—(AP)—The senate gave swift approval today to a $5,387,869,178 expansion of American military bases at home and abroad. It was the larg-

Escapée from City Jail Finds Salem Too Hot

Salem must have been just too hot for Verne Donald Taylor from Gonzales, Texas.

City police said they found him disrobing in the back seat of a parked car because, Taylor told them, he was just "too warm" Tuesday night. So they locked him in the "cooler" in lieu of $40 bail on a drunk and disorderly charge, followed by conviction Wednesday morning.

Taylor was assigned to work on the dog pound, but it still was too much for Taylor, apparently, because he "hot-footed" it out of there in midafternoon. Police figure he is cooling his heels now in other climes.

Another man went with him, Poundmaster William Wilson reported. He was Jack C. Bowers, transient, working out a $15 fine for drunkenness.

Car, Ambulance With Patient Aboard, Collide

An auto and an ambulance with a patient aboard collided, causing considerable damage to vehicles, at South 21st and Mill streets Wednesday afternoon, city police reported.

The patient, William Minkiewitz, 68, of 1222 N. 17th st., being returned home from the hospital, was apparently only shaken up slightly in the accident.

The Salem Memorial ambulance, driven by Dorlan E. Swan, 663 S. Winter st., was travelling east on Mill street and the auto, driven by Donna R. Rorer, Salem route 7, box 408E, was travelling south on South 21st street, police said.

The ambulance was damaged on the left side, the auto sustained damage to the right front and rear fenders and right front wheel, police said.

Minkiewitz was transferred to City Ambulance service ambulance and continued home.

est construction program of its kind ever presented to congress in peacetime.

McKay, Posse, Rodeo Court At Horse Show

By Maxine Buren
Staff Writer, The Statesman
The Governor's Guard, led by Gov. Douglas McKay maneuvering a precision drill, the queen of the Pendleton Roundup, Julie King, and her court, and the 560th Air Force Band from Moses Lake, Washington, provided color and interest at Wednesday night's horse show on the state fairgrounds.

Opening event was the five-gaited class, riders to be 18 years or under. Best of the class was The Gypsy King, owned by Mrs. K. W. Jerald, and ridden by Millicent Jerald; second Fats Fascination, owned by Fatty Olin, Bellevue, Wash., and ridden by the owner; third was Minnie Mercer, owned by Al Erickson, Yakima, and ridden by Julie Erickson.

Second event was the combination three-gaited class, shown to harness and saddle. The three top places went to Easter Dainty Supreme, owned by Ellendale Acres, Eugene, with Bill Fyock up; Mary Ann McDonald, owned and ridden by Sandra Curi, Pendleton; Acres Silver Star, owned by Mrs. K. W. Jerald, Seattle, and ridden by Millicent Jerald.

Hackney Ponies
Next class, the Hackney ponies, was won in the same order as previous nights: Bugle Call, owned and driven by Mrs. Bill Fyock, Eugene; Fire Key, owned by Mabel Kerr, Canby, and driven by Loren Kerr; King's Courier owned and driven by A. W. Davis, Cove.

Judged best of the junior riders in the next event, was Terry Neal Taylor, Longview; second Patsy Olin, Bellevue, Wash., and third, Julie Erickson, Yakima.

Arabians Judged
Of the Arabians in English equipment, Hara Zeyd, owned and ridden by Faye Thompson of Eugene was named best, and second and third were Shayk of the Spring Meadows Farms, Portland, and ridden by Rodney Bowditch, and Naseyn, owned and ridden by Mrs. Paul B. Adams, Grants Pass.

Again the rooster division was large, with 13 competing. One

Services Set for Cornelius Cooley

Statesman News Service
SILVERTON—Funeral services for Cornelius Cooley, long-time Silverton resident, will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday at Ekman funeral home with the Rev. Arthur C. Bates officiating. Interment will be at Belcrest Memorial park in Salem.
Cooley died Monday at his home, horse, Sundance, owned by Carl Windolph, Portland, fell, but was uninjured and was re-harnessed and continued in the competition. Vicksburg, owned by the Green Valley Stables, Salem, driven by Tuck Higgins, took blue ribbon. Second winner was Miss Painter Guy, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Cy Slocum, Eugene, and driven by Tom Metcalf and third, Mr. Jones, owned and driven by Loren Kerr, Canby.

The final event was the pair class, parade division, where equipment counts 25 percent. Winning first place were Belvedere's Valley Gold and Cobb's Gold Sissie, owned and ridden by Mr. Lyle Cobb; second to Oregon's Silver Tony and Oregon's Silver Flash, owned by Arthur Frank and Daughter, Portland, an ridden by Ross Mae Frabke and Carol Flesher. Third place winners were Linda Blue and Cinda Blue, owned and ridden by Mr. and Mrs. Quentin Rugg, Pendleton.

SALEM
2-7829
NOW SHOWING
Open 7:30, Starts at Dusk!
Donald O'Connor
- - in - -
"DOUBLE CROSSBONES"
- - in - -
Errol Flynn
Randolph Scott
Humphrey Bogart
- - in - -
"VIRGINIA CITY"
Open Rain or Shine

Oregon Pulp Workman Hurt

Edward Klukis, 49, fell 25 feet from construction work at Oregon Pulp and Paper mill Wednesday morning, suffering severe face, head and chest injuries, city first aidmen reported.

He was taken to Salem Memorial hospital where his condition last night was termed "good." Klukis was employed as a carpenter.

ELGINORE
NOW! • Reg. Priced Academy Award Winner!
JOSÉ FERRER
And the one and only...
Cyrano de Bergerac
MALA POWERS

CAPITOL
NOW! • Contin. Daily
CATTLE DRIVE
TECHNICOLOR
JOEL McCREA
And! The Bowery Boys in LET'S GO NAVY

GRAND
NOW! • Contin. Daily!
RANDOLPH SCOTT
SANTA FE!
TECHNICOLOR
William Lundigan
Valentina Cortes in House on Telegraph Hill

STATE
Doors Open at 8:45 P. M. - RIGHT NOW!
THE MAN FROM PLANET X
And! Glenn Ford
Vivica Lindfors in THE FLYING MISSILE

LIBERTY
Doors Open at 8:45 P. M. - DOUBLE HORROR SHOW!
"CRY OF THE WEREWOLF"
And "RETURN OF THE VAMPIRE"

STOP At The Jewel Box
Back-to-School
WITH All New MODELS
ELGIN
for the First Time
17 JEWELS
FOR AS LITTLE AS $33.75
New smarter, smaller designs by Henales. Elgin All-American craftsmanship throughout! Amazing new watch values! PAY ONLY $1 A WEEK

WORLD PREMIERE broadcast
ICE FOLLIES
OF 1952
HEAR your favorite stars in person at this exciting world premiere from Hollywood!
KSLM 9:30 - 10:00 P. M. Thurs., Sept. 6, 1951
MUTUAL BROADCASTING SYSTEM

TONIGHT! — 2 Shows
6:30 P. M. HORACE HEIDT SHOW 9:00 P. M.
NEW SONGS NEW DANCES NEW COMEDY NEW COSTUMES
SALEM HIGH AUDITORIUM
Tickets After 5 at Auditorium
Tickets on Sale at Stevens & Son, Jewelers U. S. National Bank Miller's Dept. Store
All Seats Reserved $1.20, $1.80, $2.40, $3.00 Tax Included
Sponsored by: Salem's Shrine Club Benefit Shrine Hospital for Crippled Children

ROBERTS BROS.
177 NORTH LIBERTY announce with pride the opening of their new
Cosmetic department featuring:
Hazel Bishop
Barbara Gould
BOURJOIS
KINGS MEN
YARDLEY
SHULTON
At last . . . at your favorite store . . . famous names you've read about in the cosmetic world. Brand names known for years as quality-plus . . . now for you in Roberts' resplendent Cosmetic Department. We're happy to provide for you the choice lines all in one location. Pay us a visit today, get acquainted . . . learn of the varied items . . . the beauty helps that can be yours.

DOUBLE GREEN STAMPS
THURSDAY
S&H GREEN STAMPS ARE YOUR EXTRA SAVINGS ON ALL PURCHASES