Immediate Halt · To Zoning Law Abuses Sought DALLAS, Sept. 18—Charges of failure to stop at the scene of an accident were filed today against Allyn Phillips, 38, Dallas sree farmer who purportedly was involved in an auto accident the volved in an auto accident the second of a young

Abuse of city zoning laws should be corrected immediately the farmer who purportedly was Selem planning and zoning commission urged Tuesday night after volved in an auto accident to a roundtable discussion of "flagrant violations" which have come to Zoners directed the city attorney to draft a strong resol salling on the city council to initiate an enforcement campaign.

Commissioners named no names,

at Court and Capitol streets.

After public hearing last night

A business zone request for the Home for Aged

The bodies of three elderly wo-frame home, located 15 miles north of Washington, D. C.

They were trapped by a $50,000 mid-morning blaze which firemen controlled in 30 minutes. Most of the old people had been removed from the building before firemen arrived, but some dashed back inside to try and save possessions.

Enroll 1,208

Statesman News Service

DALLAS, Sept. 18-Turnout for

First graders at the two elemen-

Cabinet Crisis

Blaze Kills 3

the zoners recommended favor-

Carl Greider Continues as

Carl Greider was re-elected president of the Salem Memorial Auditorium committee, and two vice presidents were added to the Named 1st vice president was Col. Mark Hillary, and Chester Stackhouse was named 2nd vice finance, location, building, legal and publicity, Greider said.

Permits Issued For Reroofing

Four reroofing requests topped the permits issued Tuesday by the city engineer's office.

Permits were given to Margaret in suburban delivery schedules garage at 2235 Trade st., $50; N. E. Potter to reroof a one-story garage at 450 S. 20th, $50; Jess Luke, Glenn Creek road; Cannery road, to reroof a one and a half story east off Liberty road near the Lib-V. R. Hickethier, to reroof a oneand-a-half story house at 960 Parrish st., $100.

Other permits went to Buetler drive on Salem route 8. Quistad Lumber company to alter a lumber storage at 495 Wallace rd., for $350; Percy Pugh, to alter a one story business at 1870 Lana ave., for $1,000; L. E. Cooney, to build a one-story garage at 390 S. 14th st., for $1,500; and Fred Klang, to wreck a two-story planning mill at 582 Mill st., $50.

Stock Market Prices Drop

NEW YORK, Sept. 18-(P)-A two-phase rally failed to punch out an advance today in the stock market, and prices ended lower for the second straight sessions. \ the peak of the year attained Friday, the best level in around 21 years as measured by the Associated Press average of 60 stocks. The Associated Press average of 60 stocks declined 20 cents at $99.90, a total loss of 50 cents in the two days since the 1951 peak was seached. The industrial component was down only 10 cents while rails declined 30 cents. Utilities gained 10 cents.

The volume passed the two-million mark with the help of a heavy final hour of 570,000 shares. The day's total was 2,030,000 shares as compared with yesterday's 1,830,-

Grain Market Stages Slump

CHICAGO, Sept. 18-(AP)-Grain prices sagged today in a dull board of trade session. The nearby con-tract in lard was the only bright spot on the board, and pushed grades: Second, 112; third, 134; korea Lecture short covering. The September seventh, 101; eighth, 87. short covering. The September contracts expire on Friday.

Wheat felt the lack of export demand. Corn was under the in-fluence of good weather, as were Iran Faces soybeans, and there was little demand for oats.

At the finish wheat was % to 2 lower, corn was % to 2% lower, oats were % to 1% lower.

SBA's Await Monroe Scrap

Salem Academy's Crusaders go after their second win of the season Friday night at Waters park as they tangle with Monroe's powerful Dragons, newest member of the Marion-Polk circuit. The tilt is set for 8 o'clock.

Dale Parnell's Crusaders opened the season last Friday with a 6-0 victory over Taft.

a. Oregon, Wednesday, Sopt. 18. 1981 Farmer Faces Charges in Hit-Run Crash

comey to draft a strong resolution ate an enforcement campaign.

Commissioners named no names, but they alluded to doctor, dentist and beauty operator establishments now located in residential districts in violation of the zoning code.

Eveneth Shetterly, justice of the passes here said he nameded the

In other zoning action at the commission's city hall meeting, attention was given three proposed service station projects, including a preliminary and to the peace here, said he suspended the balance of Phillip's sentence because he was badly needed at home to harvest crops. He is the father of four children. Memorial Chief service station projects, including a preliminary nod to remodeling work at the Master service station said he had issued the complaint said he had issued the complaint said he had issued the scene charged failure to stop at the scen

Public hearing on this project Phillips would be arraigned in was set for October 23. Change justice court here later this week. from capitol to special business The co-ed Ramona Carol Lane, group's board of directors, in an election held Tuesday night at the YMCA.

zoning is considered necessary to hospital where her condition today was reported good. She had regarded the service station, as a support of property was reported good. She had regarded the service station, as a support of property was reported good. She had regarded the service station, as a support of property was reported good. She had regarded the service station, as a support of property was reported good. at the time the capitol zone was created, technically may not make substantial alterations.

was reported good. She had registered at Oregon College of Education, Monmouth, shortly before the accident occurred.

Others re-elected were Fred ably to the city council on a proposed special business zoning for Richfield service station at the northeast corner of Capitol and The nominating committee was Rex Kimmell, chairman; Bruce Williams and Mrs. Max Rogers. The board of directors will meet within the next two weeks to name the chairmen of five committees: finance, location, building, legal fi northeast corner of Commercial and Rural streets was withdrawn by Clifford Daue in the face of opposition from 59 per cent of the affected property area. This also lowing Tuesday's call for removal had been proposed for service staof a Summer street house facing the new state highway building.

Jewels in Busy Several street name proposals The board of control authorized were considered, with most petibids for moving or wrecking of the tioners citing the recently an- Rose Lemke residence, 335 N.

nounced postoffice improvement Summer st., purchased recently. In the east half of that block, J. Simmons, to reroof a one-story which soon will require street between Chemeketa and Center names. Among the new street streets, the state has owned for rifled a showcase of $64,000 worth names are Pali drive, located off sometime two houses from which of jewels today in the crowded, sometime two houses from which of jewels today in the crowded, state agencies are moving gradual- bustling lobby of the Waldorfly. It has filed suit for condemna- Astoria hotel. house at 1674 N. Liberty st., $247; erty cannery; Hampden lane, a tion of the one at 385 N. Summer part of county road 739 near Aust. owned by Mrs. H. L. Stiff. For thief, although scores of persons the other remaining home, owned could have stretched out a hand burn road east of Salem; Stoneway drive, replacing the name View by James T. Brand at 351 N. Sum- and touched him. mer st., negotiations are under way but with the final outcome somewhat dependent upon result of the court action.

> Hopes to Extend Mall of control, said it is hoped to exwinter, by splitting Summer street.
>
> The houses in the half-block facing Summer would be and of the world's show places—was more crowded than tend the mall to Center street this COLESVILLE, Md., Sept. 18-(P) A swift fire killed three patients in a home for the aged here today and East Summer to be flat and and sent 41 others to nearby hoslandscaped, not a sunken garden as in the block to the south. Money for the relocation will come men were recovered from a small, from both highway and general charred section of the three-story

The western portion of the new street would come just east of the alley in the block. Mills said the state is not "trying" to acquire store's display windows were not properties in the west half of the block, nor has it obtained any.
That half has the First Presbyterian church, which has received assurance that no state building will displace it for several years.

Can Buy Property

There as elsewhere up to Union street between Winter and Capitol, it can buy when property is offered at a price the state con-siders reasonable.

The 1951 legislature authorized $250,000 for this purpose, and about $100,000 is left from other the first day of school here was appropriations.

1,268 students, Supt. S. E. Whitworth reported today.

The total is 11 less than last year, but about 35 more high school pupils are expected to enroll when the prune harvest ends.

The freshman class of 117 students is the largest in high school this year. There are 97 sophomores, 87 juniors and 93 seniors for a total of 394 compared with 412 last.

Four residential properties have been purchased between Center and Union, one in each block of the capitol zone, plus a vacant lot on Summer street bought several months ago when a large apartment house was proposed for the site.

Three of the houses are being rented. The fourth will be rented.

87 juniors and 93 seniors for a to-tal of 394 compared with 412 last year. soon. It is the just-purchased L. L. Riggs property at 492 N. Sumtary schools here total 113, three more than last year. Other total Series Starts

About 35 people, including three civilians, turned out at the armory on Airport road Tuesday night to hear the first of six lectures on lessons learned in Korea, delivered

TEHRAN, Iran, Sept. 18—The Iranian cabinet was in the throes of a shakeup today as Premier Mohammed Mossadegh moved for a showdown fight with both domestic critics and the British on his oil nationalization program.

Informed sources said Finance Minister Mohammed Ali Varesti handed in his resignation, following three others who have left cabinet posts recently amid the growing opposition to Mossadegh's no-compromise policies. Varesti was Iran's chief negotiator in the oil talks with Britain which collapsed August 22.

Airport road Tuesday night to hear the first of six lectures on lessons learned in Korea, delivered by two army officers.

Tuesday night's program, which included a 15-minute movie, was given by Lts. Leighton Wilson and Walter L. Scholfield, who spoke on infantry operations, emphasizing the need for teamwork between the military branches.

Additional lectures will be delivered over the next three months by pairs of army officers, speaking on different phases of military operations.

TAX INCREASE GAINS
WASHINGTON, Sept. 18 -(P)- lapsed August 22.

Deputy Premier Hossein Fatemi said Mossadegh probably will present new ministers to Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlevi by Satur-November 1.

WASHINGTON, Sept. WASHINGTON, Sept. Sept

TUMBLERFUL_Jembel two-week-old Chihuahna puppy weighing just eight ounces, is grateful for cool sides of glass in Long Beach, Cal., home during summer heat wave.

Man Suffers

Art Larson, about 65, who gave his home as New York city, was taken to Salem General hospital late Tuesday after he apparently suffered a heart attack on Edgewater street, near Wallace road. City Ambulance service said the man had no identification, and had probably collapsed while walking along the street. He was report-ed in "pretty good" condition.

Thief Snatches

NEW YORK, Sept. 18-A bold thief, more flitting than a shadow,

Not a soul apparently saw the

The Roy W. Johnston Co. show-case was a few feet from the Lexington avenue entrance to the hotel. The Waldorf-Astoria covers the block bounded by Park and Roy Mills, secretary of the board Lexington avenues and 49th and Hotel employes said theh Wal-show places-was more crowded a former state department offithan usual today because the cial, testified that he had "taxed" ing Summer would be razed. Plans call for the space between West on is in town.

Johnston, proprietor of the jew- leftwing publications. He said elry store which opens off the Friedman replied he had reported lobby, said he thought the sliding only to his superior, John Carter doors of the showcase had been Vincent, who has denied Senator The lock on the case was missing.

A fortune in jewels displayed in other lobby showcases or in the

Saves Woman

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, O., Sept. 18 (P)-Mrs. Joseph R. Yoho apparently was saved by a telephone bell today.

She was washing clothes in the basement of her home when she heard the telephone ringing up-stairs. Just as she reached the phone, a gas burner in the base-ment exploded, shattering win-dows and furnishings there.

You Can Beat the High Cost of and have FUN doing

Nohlgren's FAMOUS BUFFET

For Lunch and Dinner With Mary Barton at the Organ

All You Can Eat

Portland Mansion Witness Calls Offered as Museum Friedman Top

Commie Brain

Mrs. Alice Widener, a New York writer, said this description later was explained as a practical joke. She said, however, she considered Friedman a communist.

She testified before the senate is continuing an investigation of the Institute of Pacific Relations zation, in its exploration of sub-

"Top Commie Brain"

Andrews as saying.

"Practical Joke"

work "for the communist cause"

really fell for a practical joke."

Last Friday Eugene H. Dooman,

McCarthy's (R - Wis) repeated charges of communist sympathies.

Old time modern

GARDENS

Bay to Patagonia.

The skunk ranges from Hudson

PORTLAND, Sept. 18-(P)-A 60year-old stone mansion near a city park was offered to the Oregon Historical society today for use as

It is the Leadbetter mansion WASHINGTON, Sept. 18-(P) washington park. Mrs. Caroline P.

Leadbetter, former president of the Oregonian Publishing Co., attended in the made the offer.

It is the Leadbetter mansion, located at one of the entrances to Wirgil T. Golden chapel, for Mrs. George O'Neil, 80, late resident of the Oregonian Publishing Co., Boyce sanitarium, Monday. that Julian R. Friedman, former state department employe, had been introduced to her as "one of the top brains in the communist made the offer.

The city council must give its approval before the offer can be

Vet Pension Bill Passed Over internal security subcommittee. It Truman Veto (IPR), a private research organiversive influences on Far Eastern policy. The institute has denied Chairman McCarran (D-Nev), dential veto for the first time this session, and some veterans dissaid before today's session that "pressure is being brought to bear" to eliminate further funds session, and some veterans dis-abled in civilian life will get their eight grandchildren, and three pensions doubled. for the subcommittee's probe. He

The senate joined the house in pushing through a bill to give $120 be the Rev. W. S. Frederick of monthly to low-income war vetsaid he suspects the pressure comes from administration sourcerans so handicapped they need ment will be at City View ceme-"I think we have been getting an attendant. They had been getpretty close to some of those people down there and they don't like it." he said.

Mrs. Widener said she was invote. This was 17 more than the troduced to Friedman in the spring of 1947. She said the meetnecessary two thirds of those voting. The house overrode the veto by a 318-45 vote August 17. ing was arranged by Clark Andrews, whom she identified as a This means the measure become radio producer for the American law, despite the official objections of Mr. Truman. In vetoing the bill August 7 he said it would "aggra-Broadcasting system at the time. "The man you are going to meet is one of the top brains of the communist party," she quoted vate an already existing disparity in the government's treatment of non-veterans and veterans whose disabilities are in no way connected with military service." During the meeting between The law does not involve vetthe three of them, she said, Fried-man remarked he had done good erans crippled in connection with as a state department employe in Chipa. Auto Price She added he told her he was placed "in a tough spot" while in China because he was asked to Rise Granted write a report on the Chinese com-munist labor movement. Mrs. Widener testified she broke off the conversation, told Fried-man she thought he was talking WASHINGTON, Sept. 18 -(A)-The government today approved a "treason" and said she intended request of General Motors, giant reporting him to proper authoriof the automobile industry, for permission to raise the retail factory prices of its cars by an esti-The next day, Andrews tele-phone her, saying, "we really took mated $61 to $209. General Motors can put the price you for a ride last night . . . you increases into effect tomorrow.

The Studebaker corporation of Friedman, who was born in South Bend, Ind., became the 1920, worked as a state depart- fourth automobile manufacturer to ment employe and later a foreign seek higher prices for its autoservice officer from 1943 to 1946. mobiles. Studebaker asks for price His services then were terminated hikes ranging from $15.78 to $117.-"without prejudice" when his rat- 36 at the factory retail level. ing, junior economic analyist, was eliminated by legislation.

Services Set Thursday for Mrs. O'Neil, 80

early Tuesday the companies con-tended they would have to gener-ate more steam power this fall and winter because of low water.

She had been ill for many months, following a fractured hip sustained in a fall at her home last year,

Born in Claremont, N. H., on May 29, 1871, Mrs. O'Nell came to Salem with her husband and family in 1912, and was active in church and musical affairs for many years. Her husband preceded her in death in 1950 at the age of 88.

She is survived by three sons, Paul F. O'Neil of Polson, Mont.; Charles F. and Virgil G. O'Neil, both of Salem; two sisters, Mrs. John L. Dame of Newport, N. H., WASHINGTON, Sept. 18 -(P)- John L. Dame of Newport, N. L., and Mrs. Fred J. Peters of Black-wood, N. J.; one brother, Arthur great-grandchildren.
Officiating at the services will

Power Rate Decision Due In Few Days

Decision as to whether he will approve requests for temporary rate increases ranging from 9 to 23 per cent to three large Oregon power companies probably will be released within a few days, public utilities Commissioner George H. Flagg said Tuesday.

The applications for increase rates involved the Portland General Eectric company, the Pacific

STARTS TODAY - OPEN 6:4

"JOE PALOOKA IN THE SQUARED CIRCLE"

At a hearing concluded here

Only three or four witnesses protested the proposed increases, included was the city of Portland which was represented by City Commissioner Fred Peterson.

SALEM

Gates Open 7:00

STARTS TONITE

In Technicolor

"THE LAST

Ronald Reagan Rhonda Fleming

-Plus-

Can It Happen Now?

THE MAN FROM

PLANET X"

Oann Rain or Shin

ELSINOR

NOWI & Open 6:45

in WONDERLAND

Walt Disney's **

* Special Added Treat!

MATURES HALF ACRE

OB

OUTPOST

31

CAPITOL THEATRE Every Saturday at 12:30 Kids—Fill out this Membership Application and bring it with you Saturday Matineel C. K. C.—CAPITOL KIDS CLUB

ALL FOR FUN! . FUN FOR ALL

At the Address

RUSTPROOF Burner Oils

A Richfield Product

CALL 2-8432

POR PROMPT ACCURATE PRINTED-METER DELIVERY

Office and Station at 14th and State

HUFY PREDERICK

NOW! * Open 6:45 DOUBLE HORROR SHOW "SOUL OF A MONSTER"

"THE BOOGIE MAN WILL GET YOU"

TECHNICOLOR

O DONE DA

GORDON MACRAE

COLOR CARTOON ' NEWS

NOWI & Open 6:45

MAN COTTEN - COLVET

PEKING

XPRESS

(ind ada