WASHINGTON, Sept. 23-(AP)-Rep. Arends, a house republican leader, today called Ambassadorat-Large Philip C. Jessup "unfit" to serve as a delegate to the Uni-

He urged senate rejection of President Truman's nomination of

The Illinois lawmaker said testimony before the senate's internal. security subcommittee last week that Jessup is "pro-red China", and added, "This alone should disqualify" him for the U. N. post.

A senate foreign relations subcommittee plans to hold hearings this week on the appointment of Jessup. eThe only witness scheduled so far is Senator McCarthy (R-Wis), who has charged that Jessup. The only witness schedmunist causes." The ambassador has denied it.

Jessup said he had no comment on Arends' st tement.

26-Hour Mock Air Attack Hits California Cities

HAMILTON AIR FORCE BASE, Calif., Sept. 23 -(A)- Twenty-six hours of continuous mock air attack on the San Francisco and Los Angeles areas ended early today. Combat directors at the western aid defense force and Hamilton air force base declared the air defense exercise highly satisfac-

For security results, the officers declined to comment on performance or results. But they did say the radar aircraft detection system and the navy and air force jet fighters were given a thorough workout during the exercise. The mock strike units were supplied by the strategic air command's 15th Air Force. All interceptions were made at altitudes

New WAF Recruiter Goes to Work

PFC Anna Cumhings, WAF, explains some of the avangiages of a career in the military service to Ruby Ann Mathis, 550 S. 16th st., and Betty Friesen, 1498 Center st. The big air force display is located at Sears, who with other stores across the nation have donated the space for recruiting posters.

Stassen Asks Truth Pierce Iron Curtain

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 -(AP)-Harold E. Stassen said today that if truth can pierce the Iron Curtain, "the people of Russia will, themselves, tear down the walls of the Kremlin."

Stassen, president of the University of Pennsylvania, heads the Crusade for Freedom, a private organization of citizens which sponsors broadcasts over "radio free Europe."

He said similar broadcasts will be undertaken soon to reach the er of the French and Russian sect- people of Asia over "a well planned 'radio free Asia'."
