

101 Celebrate Founding of IOOF Lodges

Statesman News Service
JEFFERSON—One hundred and one persons were present Tuesday night when Mt. Jefferson Rebekah lodge commemorated the 100th founding of Rebekah-Oddfellowship in America. Guests represented lodges at Scio, Turner, Stayton, Lynes, Lebanon and Albany and one lodge at Neligh, Nebr.

Twelve Theta Rho girls presented a drill honoring the two organizations and presented flowers to four members. Honored were Mrs. Sarah Roland, a charter-initiate member of 56 years, S. H. Goin, 48-year member; Mrs. Maude Epley, 47-year member; and Mrs. R. W. Curl, 40-year member. The drill was followed by three readings presented by guests from Scio, Turner and Lynes. Mrs. Margie Gentry, noble grand, gave a tribute to Mt. Jefferson lodge.

The silent auction completed the amount needed to buy new officers' regalia, a project undertaken by the noble grand. A sheet cake was presented to the lodge by members of the Past Noble Grand club.
