

Turnesa Wins Penn Tourney

Shoots 280 to Take 1st Major Tourney

READING, Pa., Sept. 23 (AP)—Jim Turnesa, one of six golfing brothers, shot a three over par 74 today to win the $15,000 Reading Open Golf tournament with a 72 hole total of 280 at the Berkleigh Country club. It was his first major tournament win of the year.

Turnesa's four round total was four under par for the 6,600 yard layout. It gave him a two stroke edge over Jack Burke, Jr., of Houston, Tex., who finished with a brilliant 36-32-68, three under par.

Jimmy, the 35-year-old veteran from Bearcliff, N. Y., played cautious golf on the last round, winding up with a spectacular par four on the 655 yard 18th hole, where his second shot hit the front of the green and spun into the crowd of spectators at the rear.

Striking deliberately, he hit a down hill chip shot to within four feet of the cup and then finished it. Tied for third spot with 265's were Skeet Riegel from Tulsa, Okla., and Jimmy Clark, 36-year-old blond from Laguna Beach, Calif. Riegel posted a 33-36-69, his best round of the tournament, on the last four over the 6,600 Berkleigh layout. Clark shot a 38-35-75, four over par, his worst round.

Ed (Porky) Oliver from Lemont, Ill., who had a 295 for the 27 holes, disqualified himself after finishing in the money with 296. He reported he played a ball that was out of bounds on the 10th hole.

Bob Duden, Portland, Ore., finished with a 298, good for $125.

Brooks Show Power in Win

(Continued from page 6)
Roy Campanella and Andy Pafo were the big guns in Brooklyn's triumph over the Phils. Campanella pounded out four hits including his homer. Pafo drove in three runs, two on a homer.

Roe allowed only six hits in turning in his tenth consecutive victory. It was the second time this year that Roe has won ten straight. Roe opened the season with ten straight victories.

Sal Maglie also turned in his 22nd conquest in beating the Braves. Maglie allowed 13 hits but kept them well scattered. The Giants, leading, 2-1, broke up the game with two runs in the eighth on Don Mueller's single, a sacrifice, single by Whitney Lockman and triple by Bob Thomson.

In other National League games, the St. Louis Cardinals won a double header from Chicago, 9-3 and 5-2, and the Pittsburgh Pirates and Cincinnati Reds traded shut-outs. The Pirates won the opener, 3-0, as Murry Dickson turned in his 20th victory. Cincinnati captured the nightcap, 2-0, behind Howie Fox.

The Philadelphia Athletics took a doubleheader from the Washington Senators, 12-4 and 8-3. Bob Hooper coasted to victory in the opener. Home runs by Ed "I-1" Joost and Joe Tipton featured the second game triumph.

The St. Louis Browns edged the Chicago White Sox, 8-7. Jim Delahanty doubled and scored the winning run in the ninth on pitcher Randy Gumpert's error.

Look and Learn

By A. C. Gordon

1. What are the six important natural wonders of the United States?
  2. Who was the only woman to command an entire air force in time of war?
  3. Which is the most malleable of all metals?
  4. How many feet are there in one rod?
  5. What animals are referred to by the following adjectives—bovine, canine, feline and equine?
- ANSWERS
1. Niagara falls, Yellowstone park, giant redwood trees, Grand canyon, Rocky mountains, and the Hudson river palisades.
  2. Madame Chiang Kai-shek of China.
  3. Gold.
  4. There are 16 1/2 feet.
  5. Cow, dog, cat and horse, respectively.

When Peter Stuyvesant was Dutch governor of New York, his authority also extended to Aruba and Bonaire, two Caribbean islands.

They'll Do It Every Time

By Jimmy Hato

Top Marathon of the Season... Hard Tops Slate 100-Lap Race Final at Hollywood

The popular hard tops, prime favorites of the auto racing flock this season at Hollywood bowl, will return for their final 1951 program next Saturday night in Hollywood bowl, Valley Sports Promoter Mike Carty has announced.

The hot rods buttoned up their campaign here September 15 with a 50-lap main event as the climax. The midgets drew their season to a close Saturday night with a 75-lapper. The hard tops will bow out next Saturday with a 100-lap main event in the Portland road saucer, the longest auto race in the history of the big racing plant.

Carty will convene with racing officials early this week to go over full details of the gigantic, which may be the last speed show of the season for Salem. The Valley Sports boss who has given bowl racing fans their greatest season this year wants to see no less than 24 cars start in the 100-lapper, which would be exactly double the usual amount of main event contestants.

"With the 1951 championship at stake, a large trophy and added purse money," Carty said Sunday, "we should have well over 40 entries for the meet. I'm going to ask the racing board to place at least 24 cars in the main event."

Trophy dash, heat races and Class B main event will of course take place after the 7:30 p.m. time trials Saturday, all preceding the big finale.

Linfield Plays Game Tonight

EUREKA, Calif., Sept. 23 (AP)—For an coach's objection to playing on Sunday caused two postponements tonight of the football game between Humboldt college of Eureka and Linfield college of McMinnville, Oregon.

Originally scheduled for Saturday, the game was first postponed to Sunday when fog prevented a plane carrying the Linfield team from landing here.

It was postponed a second time, to 8 p.m. Monday, when the Linfield coach protested playing on a Sunday.

Pioneers Blast SOCE at Bend

BEND, Ore., Sept. 22 (AP)—Bruce Longballa, former Bend high school prep ace, led the Lewis and Clark Pioneers to a 50-7 triumph over Southern Oregon College of Education here tonight.

Longballa delivered 11 successful aerials in 17 attempts for a total of 212 yards. His passes, delivered from the T-formation quarterback post, accounted for three touchdowns and set the stage for two others.

The game was marred by the injury of Neil Anderson, a Pioneer freshman and a former Portland prep star. He suffered a spinal injury in the fourth quarter and was taken by ambulance to Bend hospital. Extent of his injuries was not determined.

Saddler, Pep In 4th Clash

NEW YORK, Sept. 23 (AP)—Featherweight Champion Sandy Saddler of New York and Willy Willie of Hartford will have it out again Wednesday night at the polo grounds in their fourth title clash.

The 25-year old Harlem slasher is a 2 to 1 choice to retain his crown in the 15-rounder. Saddler dethroned Pep in their first meeting with a four-round knockout. Pep won it back with a brilliant 15-round victory, and then Sandy took it back once more at the Yankee stadium last September.

The 28-year old Hartford, Conn., veteran dislocated his shoulder in the seventh round and was unable to come out for the eighth; Willie claimed Saddler pulled the limb out of place. Sandy replied that Pep quit under a powerful body assault.

Pros Leading Hudson Action

VANCOUVER, B. C. Sept. 23 (CP)—The Pacific northwest's 10 top professionals took a 4-1 lead today over the 10 leading amateurs in the annual Hudson Cup golf tournament here.

Playing Scotch foursomes, the five pro pairs won four matches and lost one to take a commanding lead into the 10 matches of 36-hole match play tomorrow.

Pacific Edges CWCE 20-0 in 'Rough' Fray

FOREST GROVE, Ore., Sept. 23 (AP)—Pacific university, in a game marked by a fist fight and 38 penalties, defeated Central Washington College of Education 20-0 in a non-conference football game here Saturday.

Pacific moved into the Central Washington end zone three additional times but each time was called back on a penalty.

Clean Fuel

...no dirt...no odor...no ash, long burning...no storage problem...use "Pres-to-logs" CAPITOL LUMBER CO. N. Cherry Ave. Ph. 2-431 or 3-8862

The Nation's Top Comics

DAILY AND SUNDAY in Your Home Newspaper

