On Etiquette

By Robert Lee

Q. If you happen to meet someone who obviously seems to know you, but whom you have forgotten, and that person says, "You don't remember me, do you?" what should you do?

A. Since it is rather hurting to one's pride to be forgotten, the kind thing for you to do is say, "Of course I do." And then find out later, and as soon as you can, just who that person is.

Q. What is the proper length of time that a hostess should wait for a belated dinner guest?

A. Not more than 20 minutes. To wait longer would be showing lack of consideration to the other guests for the sake of one.

Q. When does a girl correctly wear her engagement ring for the first time?

A. The engagement ring is worn for the first time, "in public" on the day of the announcement.

with twenty other General Federation women... May 1, 2 and 3 were announced as the dates for the state convention to be held in Portland with headquarters at the Multnomah hotel...

My Dear Friends Readers, Friends Help Out Struggling Foods Writer with Brighter Ideas

By Maxine Buren
 Statesman Woman's Editor

Readers are mighty handy people to have around a food page. If it weren't for our dear readers we simply wouldn't keep up on things, no matter how much reading cooking and eating we do. Recently we had a little chat with a friend, who surprisingly enough, is also a reader of Our Paper. Head of a family of four, she does a lot of cooking and being a rural woman, she has farm produce with which to feed her brood of two boys, a large hungry husband and herself.

Freeze Juice
 One of her ideas was to freeze concentrated juices in the ice tray in the freezer, then remove, package and put back into the freezer. Then when she wants a glass of juice, it's a simple matter to take out a cube, put it into the glass, add water to taste and there she is!

She also freezes soup that way and with a bit of practice, knows how many cubes to thaw per serving.

This same woman last summer suggested freezing lots of ice cubes in ice trays, removing and storing in the freezer in sacks so they'd be handy for instant use.

Waffles she also freezes. Makes some extras and wraps them, then they're either put into the toaster, or even simpler, warmed in the oven.

Another reader suggests this

DILL SAUCE FOR SPINACH
 Use equal parts shredded dill pickles and melted butter or margarine. Add a dash of vinegar or lemon juice.
 She also suggests cooking browned pork chops in a covered casserole at 350 degrees smothered in cranberry sauce.
 Cauliflower season brought forth this recipe:

CAULIFLOWER GOLDEN
 Cook separately one head of cauliflower and 1 cup rice. Place unbroken cauliflower in a buttered baking dish, around it and over the top arrange alternate layers of rice and thin slices of cheese. Season with salt and pepper and moisten slightly with milk or cauliflower stock. Bake slowly to melt the cheese.

Costume Party Planned
 Members of Cootiettes club, No. 140, met at the V.F.W. hall for their regular meeting with Mrs. Joe Horneffer in charge. Plans were made for a costume party for the October meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Dale Mauk, 825 N. 18th st., on October 12. The Cootiettes were joined by the Cooties for a no-host lunch.

Latvians Speak To Altrusans

Mrs. E. A. Tieski, Mrs. Hazel Goodman and Mrs. Effie King entertained the Altrusa club members at a dessert supper Thursday night at the former's home on Evergreen avenue.

The program was in charge of the international relations committee with Miss Betty Bolton in charge. Mr. and Mrs. Videvuds Seifers gave interesting talks about conditions in their country, Latvia, before and after occupation of Russia and Germany. They spent five years in Concentration camps before coming to the states as displaced persons. Mr. Seifers said his country was in a condition of devastation and its people were hard working and sincere.

Members present were Mrs. E. A. Tieski, Dr. Martha Springer, Miss Cora Paynter, Mrs. E. A. Jory, Mrs. C. A. Sandstedt, Mrs. George Sumpter, Miss Minnie Just, Miss Annette Schumki, Miss Betty Bolton, Mrs. Verne Robb, Miss Katharine Robb, Mrs. Wayne Keeney, Mrs. Marguerite Kirk and Mrs. Donald L. Barrick.

Mrs. Arthur Stowell and daughters, June and Hazel, have returned home from a trip east to Lansing, Michigan. They made the trip east by plane. They also made a trip north into Canada accompanied by Mrs. Elizabeth Collins of Hamilton, Ontario. From Ottawa they drove to Clarence, Ontario, which was the birthplace of Mrs. Stowell and Mrs. Collins. On their way home they visited the mother and sister of Mrs. Glenn Moody of Auburn community at Clark, Nebr.

Grant Mothers Plan Events

The executive board of the Mothers club of Grant school met Thursday morning at the home of Mrs. Clinton Sigas. Plans were discussed for the monthly meeting and by-laws were read and changes approved. A report was given on the reception held for the principal and teachers.

The first meeting of the Mothers club will be Thursday, October 11 at 1:15 o'clock at the school. R. W. Tavenner will show a film, "How to Teach Reading to the First Graders." Mrs. Wassom, supervisor of the school lunch program, will talk on the objectives of the cafeteria. The 6th grade mothers will serve refreshments.

S. Gagle, Mrs. Russell Eyerly, Mrs. Ed Ped, Mrs. Keith Dyer, Mrs. Albin Churchill and Mrs. Fleener.
