NEW YORK, Oct. 25-(AP)-New England support for rugged Rocky
Marciano, unbeaten Brock ton, Mass., slugger, today shaved the odds close to even money for his big 10-round test against Joe Louis tomorrow night at Madison Square

Walk one side of the street and you hear it's even Stephen-6 to 5 and take your pick. On the other side, Louis remains a 7 to 5 favorite. By ringtime—10 p. m. (7 p. m. PST) — the 37-year-old Brown Bomber may go to 8 to 5.

Coast-to-coast radio (ABC) and television will beam this heavyweight brawl to millions. Still some 15,000 are expected to pay $150,000 or more to see it in the

With $185,000 from TV and radio rights, the fighters will slice up a juicy gate. Louis' 45 per cent should be about $132,000 and Marciano's 15 per cent around

Not since Louis rocketed up the ladder from the Golden Gloves has a non-title heavyweight brawl excited so much interest. Louis is the magic name that lights the flame. But the lure now is the chance of being in on the killthat night when some youngster will knock the Bomber into re-tirement for keeps.

The Salem backfield combination of Quarterback Dave Tom, Halfbacks Bob Joy and Don Davis and Fullback Burt Harp, starters in last week's 21-0 win over Leb-anon, likely will open play for the Viks tonight. Bill Nelson might be inserted in place of Tom. Joy and Wee Chuck Puhlman teamed to complete 10 of 19 passes in the Lebanon game. Davis, Harp and Joy led the Vik ground attack also. Mike Campbell, sophomore second stringer also turned in commendable ground advances.

The Viking line, which has had but one bad game this season and that against Bend, likely will line up with Dennis Garland and Al Heston as ends, John Conder and George Meyers as tackles, Derald Knittel and Don Berg as guards and Captain Mary Langeland at center on offense. Defensively it will be Knittel and Hestons at ends, Meyers and Bob Thiessen at tackles, Berle Akers and John Perry as guards, Garland and Berg as linebackers, Harp and Vern Rouse as defensive halfbacks and Davis at safety.

Jap Ball Nine Finally Scores on Barnstormers

TOKYO, Friday, Oct. 26 - (P) -The American All Stars defeated the Yomiuri Giants 6 to 3 at Sendai Thursday, but for 30,000 Jap-anese baseball fans it was a great day anyway.

It was the first time the Japanese had been able to score on the visiting All-Stars.

Loop Clashes Saturday

NEW YORK, Oct. 25-(A)-The college football spotlight turns this week to half a dozen vital conference games, but none more important than the meeting between Princeton and Cornell at Princeton's Palmer stadium. The Ivy league championship is at stake.

These two are not only undefeated and untied, but rate jointly as the east's best for the season half ended. The game, to be played before a sellout throng of 49,000 is the only major contest of the week between unbeaten teams. It pits two great passers, Dick Kazmair of Princeton, and Cornell's Rocco Calvo.
