Chaese — Selling price to Portland

CHICAGO, Nov. 2-(P)-A strong buying movement in wheat, supported mainly by hopes of better export and flour business, featured dealings in grains on the board of trade today. Wheat more than made up for yesterday's losses.

Other cereals were firm enough without rivaling the strength of wheat. Corn tended to lag, mainly because the unseasonably cold weather in the mid-west will help in drying out the grain quickly, particularly in Iowa.

Wheat closed 2 to 2% higher, corn ½ - ¾ higher, oats ¼ - 1½ higher, rye (new style) ½ lower to % higher, soybeans ¾ - 1½ higher and lard unchanged to 5 cents a hundred pounds higher.
