

Amerks Earn Big Lead in Ryder Play

Britons Trail By 3-1 Count

U. S. Almost Assured Of Retaining Trophy

By WHI Grimley
PINEHURST, N. C., Nov. 2.—(AP)—The United States Ryder cup forces wove a pattern of birdies in the blustery winds and chilling rain that were supposed to favor the British today and stepped off to a 3-1 lead as action opened in the international classic.

The sharp shooting Americans now only need to win four of Sunday's eight singles assignments to keep the coveted golf trophy they have won six times out of eight since 1927.

Oliver, Ransom Lee
Only the keen putting blade of Charles Ward, a 134-pound mite from Birmingham, and fine iron play of Arthur Lees, grayling 43-year-old Yorkshire pro, kept the British from suffering a complete rout this miserable day over Pinehurst's No. 2 course. Ward and Lees, one of the invaders' lightly regarded tandems, turned back round Ed (Porky) Oliver of Seattle and Henry Ransom, the slender stylist from St. Andrews, Ill., 1 and 1.

It wasn't difficult to pick out individual stars and these honors definitely went to curly-haired Jackie Burke of Houston, 28 year old baby of the U. S. squad, and Sam Snead, the PGA champion from West Virginia who heads Uncle Sam's forces. Burke teamed with Clayton Heffner to beat Max Faulkner, the dashing British open champion, and Dal Rees, rater Britain's greatest match performer, 5 and 3.

Snead, his iron whistling the ball dead to the flag throughout the day, paired with Lloyd Mangrum, the cool little veteran from Nile, Ill., to down the highly-rated Scottish threesome of Jimmy Adams and John Panton, 5 and 4.

The other American point was captured by national open champion Ben Hogan of Fort Worth and Jimmy Demaret of Ojai, Calif., who produced sufficiently to trounce Irish Fred Daly and young Ken Bousfield, 5 and 4.

Bearcats Face Whits Tonight

Williamette's hopes rest on the ability of such backs as Chuck Kosi and Bob Hangle and perhaps to an even greater extent on the passing arm of Benny Holt, the freshman from Hawaii who recently won the starting job at quarterback. Holt's aerials were big factors for the locals in their last two games against Lewis and Clark and CPS.

Stocks Nose Down Again

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—(AP)—A quiet retreat carried the stock market down today in the slowest session in more than two months.

Prices were marked down all around without evidence of selling pressure. Steels, motors, oils, and rails all participated in the decline along with chemicals, radio-televisions, rubbers, and farm implements.

Losses extended to between 1 and 2 points at the most in active areas while gains were generally held at a point or less.

The volume of trading came to only 1,230,000 shares. That's the lowest since Aug. 27. The total yesterday came to 1,430,000 shares.
