Prep Grid Teams Primed for Playoff Clashes Action at North Marion Today

UPSIDE-DOWN CAKE! WOW! OH, BOY! UPSIDE-DOWN CAKE JUST LIKE MAMA USED TO MAKE!

By Al Lightner

Footballing by the state's prepalevens reaches the pre-playoff elimactic stage the coming weekend as a few squads enter final games that are to determine district champions in both Cluss A-1 and A-2 divisions. Most of the district titlists are alre dy qualified for the opening round of the playoffs next week. there will join the fold this weekend either by establishing eliminating victories or by a vote of their respective district members.

Districts 1 and 2 in the A-1 di-Districts 1 and 2 in he A-1 di-sion have been designated as Grant and Roosevelt of Portland, respectively. They ended in a tie for the Portland title and a flix of a coin gave Ted Ordahi's Grant Generals the No. 1 spot. Astoria is the No. 2-A champ, Hillsbore stands forth in No. 4-A, Marshfield losms as the 5-A king but must beat North Bend Friday night to prove it (Grants Pass is the 6-A champ, Mae-Hi will become 7-A representative with an expected win Friday over Pendleton and a district vote will decide whether Salem, Bend or Corvallis is the 8-A winner.

Corvallis plays at Albamy Friday when all district champion—

Small, Quick Linfields Eye Bearcat Game

LINFIELD COLLEGE, Mc-Minnville, Nov. 7-(Special)-The Linnfield college Wildcats, a small team as college football squads go, but one that is noticeably fast, are looking forward to their Saturday night Northwest conference clash with Willamette university Bearcats here. Game time will be 8 p.m.

The Wildcats, spearheaded by their pony backfield of Ad Rutsch-man, Dewey Dye, Randy Harrison and Jerry LeBlanc, every one of them from Hillsboro high, have won three and lost two in games thus far. Last Saturday they-walloped Southern Oregon's Red Raiders at Ashland by a 43-6 count, with Harrison scoring four touchdowns in the parade.

A T-formation team, Coach Paul Durham's Wildcats have also defeated Eastern Washington and Pacific U. They've tied with Hum-bolt State, Whitman and Oregon college. Defeats were taken from Lewis & Clark and College of Idaho, the latter by a single point.

The selections were made by Moialla, Gene Barrett of Mt. Angel, Don Bryant of Estacada and In the Buck Woodward of Sandy.

A-2. League officials feel that those two schools are equally as close to District 7 A-2 members of the present (Prineville, Redmond, etc.), and since there are only five members of that district as compared to eight now in the WVL, they hope to see Hood River and Wy-East moved to 7 A-2.

League officials feel that Ron Walzers and Big Charles Jepson have been the mainstays during the season.

McConnell's 32 receptions are matched by George Wooden of Oklahoma A. & M. and Jim David of Colorado A. & M., but his yards gained gives him a hig lead over Wooden's 395 and David's 390.

Just behind this trio are two more coast luminaries, Ed Barker of Washington State with 31 catches and Fred Snyder of Loyola (Calif.) with 29.

WESTON, Mass., Nov. 7-(P)Rain slowed down Boston university's football squad today as it polished its attack for an improving Oregon eleven which will invade Fenway park in Boston which is saving money for the athletic departments of both BU and Oregon. Instead of scouting each other two or three times this fall as is the custom with major opponents, Donelli suggested that Oregon and BU secont each other just once and exchange movies on one of their games.

Oregon authorities approved of the plan and each school saved an estimated $356 or more in traveling and other expenses connected with scouting.

ON TO MASNINGTON State Snyder of Loy-ola (Calif.) with 29.

In making three interceptions last week, Shaw wrested the national lead from Bill Albrecht of Washington, although the Huskie safetyman hauled in two himself. Not only has, Shaw equalled the Oregon individual mark set by Jake Leicht in 1945, but he has put himself within striking distance of the national high of 12 interceptions set by Hank Rich of Arizona State last season. He has three more games in which to turn the trick.

The statistics show that Alabama's Bobby Wilson still is the country's leading punter with an average of 43.4 yards on 43 boots. Dave Mann of Oregon State took over third with 41.5.
