Sweetland Denies Connection with MacArthur Visit

PORTLAND, Nov. 13-(AP)-Monroe Sweetland, Oregon's demo-cratic national committeeman, said today he had no connection with arraangements for General MacArthur's visit here Thursday.

He said he was "amazed" to note his name among the 300-odd listed as arranging for the visit. Sweetland declared MacArthur's trip to the northwest was "to aid the fading fortunes of his senatorial apologist, Senator Cain of Washington."

The committeeman said he did not want anyone to suppose that the trip was a bi-partisan or nonpolitical affair.
