point served to underline the gravity of the situation.

Dr. John A. Hannah of Michigan State college is chairman of the committee of college presidents, the other members of which are the Rev. Fr. John J. Cavanaugh of Notre Dame, A. Whitney Griswold of Yale, Raymond B. Allen of the University of Washington, E. G. Gustavson of Nebraska, John S. Mills of Western Reserve, Ungeley Lee of Southern Methodist, John L. Pyle of Furman, Albert Ray Olin of Utah, and John D. Williams of Mississippi.

The committee will meet shortly in Washington and intends to call in conference commissioners as the first step. The committee has decided to ask the NCAA to go along on a program to de-emphasize football. Two main points were elimination of spring practice and possibly even of bowl games. A study of the two platoon system was also suggested.

Sands Victim Of Newcomer

LONDON, Nov. 3—(P)—Yolande Pompee, comparatively unknown Trinidad boxer, tonight stopped Dave Sands, Australian holder of the British Empire Middleweight crown, in 2:15 of the seventh round of an amazing upset in Harringway arena. The non-title bout was listed for ten rounds. Each weighed 165.

Docusen TKO'd By Gil Turner

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 13—(P)—Gil Turner, perpetual motion punching Philadelphia waterweight, scored a technical knockout over Bernie (Big Duke) Docusen in the sixth round tonight of a scheduled 10 rounder that made a full scale street brawl look staid. Turner weighed 146½ and Docusen 148½.

Father Outpaces Star On Interception Dash

ADRIAN, Mo., Nov. 13—(P)—Bud Gunn, senior end on the Adrian high school football team, ran 86 yards with a touchdown pass against Belton Saturday night. Then he had to blush a little.

His father, Clarence Gunn, was standing on the sideline at the line of scrimmage when the ball was snapped. The father dashed along the edge of the field and was waiting at the end zone with time to spare when the putting ball carrier arrived.

The elder Gunn quarterbacked Adrian's last undefeated team in the late 1920s.

LARGEST COLLEGE STADIUM

The University of Michigan has the largest, college-owned football stadium. It seats 97,000. Stanford university, with 89,000, has the second largest.

Kerkorian, Gifford Next

Cameron Retains Lead In Coast Yardage Race

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 13—(P)—Three players have topped the 1,000-yard mark in total offense in the Pacific coast conference.

Paul Cameron, UCLA sophomore, leads with 1216 yards — 506 rushing and 710 passing.

Trailing in total offense are the leaders in rushing and passing. Gary Kerkorian of Stanford has passed for 1120 yards and rushed 10 for 1130. Frank Gifford of Southern California has gained 757 rushing and 255 passing for 1012.

Cameron has thrown eight touchdown passes and scored four himself. Kerkorian and Gifford have been responsible for eight touchdowns apiece.

Runner-up to Gifford in rushing is Hugh McElhenny, Washington, with 564 yards. Third is California's Johnny Ginzewski with 547.

Stanford's Bill McColl leads in pass catching, with 84, two more than Washington State's Ed Barker. Barker has gained 646 yards, McColl 497.

PARIS HOLDS 2 OLYMPICS

Paris and London have been the host for two Olympic games, more than any other city. They were played in Paris in 1900, and again in 1924. London had them in 1908 and 1948.

Kazmaier Cinch to Pass Bright

Princeton Star Nears Ground-Gaining Honors

NEW YORK, Nov. 13—(P)—Dick Kazmaier, Princeton's talented All-America brilliant, appears almost a cinch to sweep past Drake's Johnny Bright in the closing weeks of the season and win the individual total offense title among the nation's major colleges.

Figures released by the NCAA service bureau today showed that the Tiger ace was only 53 yards behind Bright's total as Princeton prepared to lay into Yale and Dartmouth in its last two games. Bright, whose jaw was broken late in the campaign, has completed his college career. Bright finished with 1,553 yards in nine games. Kazmaier has rolled up 1,479 in seven.

In jumping from 26th in the national ranking to second in the short space of three weeks, Kazmaier has netted 422 yards rushing and 464 passing—on 22 completions in 42 throws—and has accounted for 19 touchdowns. Bright still leads in touchdown responsibility with 18, but Kazmaier and Babe Parill of Kentucky are breathing down his neck in this specialty, each with 18.

Klosterman Regains Lead
Don Klosterman, Loyola university's T-quarterback, regained the passing leadership on Saturday when he completed 19 out of 28 passes against the Kansas Jayhawkers. The Los Angeles thrower has hit his target 120 times in 233 tries. Parill, the runner-up, has connected on 111 out of 196.

If Klosterman registers 15 or more completions this Saturday night against Hardin-Simmons he will break the collegiate record of Don Heinrich of Washington last year. Kazmaier's uncanny throwing accuracy in his last three games has made him the top marksman in the land. He has completed 81 of 95 tosses, a 84.2 percentage.

Big Ollie Matson of San Francisco was idle the past week, but still tops all the nation's ball carriers.

Matson's week off almost cost him his individual scoring leadership. Hugh McElhenny of Washington racked up 22 points against California to pull within four points of Matson's 102 total on 17 touchdowns.

WALCOTT IN BUSINESS

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 12—(P)—Jersey Joe Walcott entered the restaurant-bar business today. The heavyweight champion and his manager, Felix Bochechle, were listed as among incorporators of a new firm, Jersey Joe Walcott, Inc., that bought the liquor license of Huyler's restaurant.

Series Pot 'O Gold for Yanks

NEW YORK, Nov. 14—(P)—No wonder you see those Yankee ball players parking their flashy convertibles in front of expensive mid-town restaurants.

Why, they make enough in the World Series money each year to keep an average guy going. With the Yanks' 12th habit-forming, this World Series business.

In the last 21 years the New York American league club finished out of the first division only once—in 1925. You know, each of the first four clubs in each league gets a slice of the World Series action.

Red Patterson of the Yanks and his battery of adding machines, whittling away the football season by running up totals on the Yankee dough, came up with a staggering bank balance. Starting in 1931 when Miller Huggins won the first Yankee pennant, the New York players have been paid a total of $3,315,908.46 from the series pot o' gold.

Closest to the Yanks in the 31-year total are the St. Louis Cardinals. But they have less than half as much—$1,616,618.50.

A fellow could struggle along on that kind of a bonus every year, too.

The New York Giants had nibbled at the big World Series money in 14 years with Leo Durocher whipped them home in a driving finish this year. Still the Giants are third among the majors since 1921 with a player tally of $1,247,553.25 from the last 31 series.

McColl, Deacon Tackle No. 1 Linemen of Week

NEW YORK, Nov. 13—(P)—A Pacific coast giant and a stalwart from the south—a pair of young men to gladden the heart of a college coach and cause a professional coach to reach for his fountain pen—were named today as the Associated Press linemen of the week.

They're big Bill McColl, Stanford's unstoppable end, and Tackle Bill George of the Wake Forest Deacons, who looked more like a demon to Duke last Saturday. McColl's pass-catching in the coast's game of the day won him the best offensive player ranking while George was named tops defensively.

Coach Jess Hill of Southern California still hasn't figured out a way to stop McColl from catching passes. The 6 foot, 4 inch, 225-pound receiver took a 14-yard aerial from Gary Kerkorian for the first touchdown in Stanford's thrilling 27-20 victory over Southern California.

Wisconsin's terrific trio of linebacker Derald Teteak, Tackle Bob Leu and End Fat O'Donohue also came in for lots of praise for their offensive defensive work in the Badgers' 16-7 victory over Penn.

Another offensive defensive star was Les Richter, California's All-America guard. Richter knocked down Washington runners all day and also chipped in with a field goal and four conversions in Cal's 37-28 victory over Washington.

Better performance 4 ways with DODGE 2-TON "Job-Rated" TRUCKS

- MORE ECONOMICAL POWER
A big, high-compression 236.6-cubic-inch engine developing 109 h.p. You get the right engine for top economy with aluminum pistons, four piston rings (top ring chrome-plated), exhaust valve seat inserts and other extra values.
- SPEEDIER DELIVERIES
Five-speed transmissions, 2-speed rear axles, and choice of axle ratios give you greater pulling power, faster getaways and higher top speeds. Low loading height and hinged stake center sections help you to save work and time.
- EASIER HANDLING
You can turn sharper, maneuver better and park easier with a Dodge 2-ton "Job-Rated" truck... because you get wide front tread, cross-steering (except on C.D.E. models), short wheelbase and worm-and-roller steering gears.
- BIGGER PAYLOADS
In Dodge 2-ton "Job-Rated" trucks you can move extra-big payloads without overloading. That's because a lot more of your load is carried on the front axle. Deep, rugged frame and all-steel body stakes and sills mean extra strength.

Five-speed transmission available
Two-speed rear axle available, too

Heavy frame; long, strong springs; big-capacity axles

THIS 2-TON CHASSIS is engineered to fit your body needs. On wheelbases of 128", 152", 170", and 192", it will accommodate a wide variety of bodies, from 6 ft. to 12½ ft. in length.

Dodge 1½-ton "Job-Rated" trucks provide similar features and advantages.
