McKay Points To Visit of 26 Korea Vets

A call to Oregonians to give cour valorous fighters in Korea a rousing expression of support was sounded by Gov. Douglas Mc-Kay here Monday.

Governor McKay's appeal was in behalf of an all-out welcome for the 26 United Nations battle veterans from Korea who will visit Portland Wednesday on a nationwide tour amied at strengthening the country's defense effort.

"I hope Oregon will make a dramatic contribution to this impression by giving these representatives of our Korea fighters a rousing welcome," Gov. McKay

The governor urged as many citizens as possible to see the downtown parade starting at 10:45 s.m. Wednesday and to attend the civic luncheon for the visiting veterans at the Multnomah hotel at 12:45 p.m., and the public mass meeting in the Portland Civic au-ditorium at 8 p.m.
