

Cub Den Chiefs Plan Training Class Saturday

A Cub Scout den chief training conference will be held Saturday afternoon in the Golden Pheasant restaurant basement.

About 50 scouts who work with den mothers in conducting cub pack meetings, are expected to attend the 5-hour session beginning at 2 p.m. A banquet will be held at 5 p.m. followed by a demonstration on cubbing ceremonies.

To be discussed in forums and movies will be pack program planning, den meetings, mutual aid between den mothers and chiefs, pack recreation ideas, handicraft exhibits and other activities pertaining to den and pack meetings.

In charge of the conference is Howard Higby, assistant scout executive. Assisting him as discussion leaders will be Carlyle Shidler, cubmaster of Keizer pack 41; Charles Brunk, Cherry city district leadership and training chairman; Floyd Wittman, assistant cubmaster of McKinley school pack, and Albert Robertson, cubmaster of Turner pack 46.
