Choral Group To Sing at Stayton Today

STAYTON — Santiam Choral club will sing its fifth annual Christmas concert at the Stayton grade school Sunday at 4 p.m.

The group, under the direction of Felix French, Salem, and accompanied by Ruth Spaniel, Stayton, will sing carols. Featured in solo parts will be Mrs. Paula Sullivan, Mrs. Barbara Shower and Mrs. Clarice Judson.

KC's Help Needy
The Knights of Columbus will again this year distribute baskets to the less fortunate at Christmas. Christmas cheer boxes were placed in the grocery stores in Stayton, Sublimity, Jordan, Lyons, Mehama, North Santiam and Marion, to receive donations of food stuffs or cash for the baskets.

Last year over 35 baskets were distributed by the Knights. These baskets contained not less than $20 worth of supplies and it is anticipated that this year even more will be distributed.

In addition to personal contributions and assistance from the treasury, $180 was raised from a dance staged in Stayton.

Meeting Postponed
A special meeting of the city council scheduled for last Tuesday was postponed because of illness of two members, George Schlies and Jos. Spaniel were unable to attend.
