

Ramberg Feted On Anniversary

Mrs. Henry Hanson of Auburn community and Mrs. Earling Lamsden of Portland were hostesses at the Henry Moen home in Monitor Sunday for the golden wedding anniversary of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Ramberg of Canby. Mr. and Mrs. Ram-berg have four children, but Mrs. C. Brecko of Makoto, North Dakota and a son, Julius Ramberg, who is in the navy stationed at Newport, Rhode Island could not be home.

Many friends called between the hours of two and four in the afternoon for the open house. There were friends from Independence to Scappoose and from Molalla to Salem present.

60th Wedding Celebration

ALBANY—Celebrating the 60th anniversary of their wedding Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Aaron C. Wilson at their home in East Albany. During the day many friends called to honor the couple. Aaron Wilson and Ida Matchett were married December 22, 1891, in Mt. Vernon, Wash. Mr. Wilson was born on December 13, 1886, in Scott county, Ind., while Mrs. Wilson was born in Missouri in May of 1867. Mr. Wilson taught school for 18 years in Washington, then moved to Kansas where he served as a rural mail carrier for 27 years before retiring. They came to Albany in 1933 and have since made their home here.

The Wilsons have two sons and one daughter, the latter being the only one able to be here for the anniversary. One son, O. H. Wilson, is in Chehalis, Wash., and the other, F. D. Wilson, is in Arkansas. The daughter, Mrs. E. D. Sears, came down from Tacoma, Wash., to be with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Lefler of Peoria, Ill. have arrived from the east to spend Christmas week with Mrs. Lefler's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hauk.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hadley Dixon, Jr. will be down from Portland today to spend Christmas with Mrs. Dixon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Huntington, at their suburban place on the Wallace Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald G. Herring (Leadell Davis), who were married on December 14 in the chapel of St. Paul's Episcopal church. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Lyle E. Davis and the groom is the son of the O. H. Herrings. (Jesten-Miller photo).

Mrs. Irene Connett of Longview, Wash. is in the capital for Christmas as the guest of her brother and sister-in-law, the L. V. Bensons.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Hemenway of Portland will be in Salem for Christmas as guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Roth.

Sgt. Hamilton, Miss Smith Married

Announcement is being made of the marriage of Miss Joanne Smith of Inyokern, Calif., and Sergeant Richard Hamilton, USMC, son of Mrs. Iva Hamilton of Salem, on Saturday, December 22, at Stevenson, Wash.

Attending the couple were the groom's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Callesen of Salem. The newlyweds will remain in Salem over the holidays, after which they will return to Inyokern to make their home. Sergeant Hamilton is stationed nearby at the China Lake Naval Ordnance Testing station.

Other members of the family, who will be at the home of Mrs. Iva Hamilton for Christmas, will be her two sons and two daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hamilton of Emmett, Idaho, Mr. and Mrs. Reid Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Callesen and Mr. and Mrs. Sylvan Mauer, all of Salem, and the newlyweds, the Richard Hamiltons.

Mr. and Mrs. John Carpenter and children have arrived from Redmond to be the Christmas guests of her mother, Mrs. Lewis Griffith, and his parents, the A. N. Copenhavers.

Miss Marjorie Thomas and Miss Ruth Skinner were hostesses for an informal holiday party Saturday afternoon at the Marion hotel for sixteen of their friends between 1 and 3 o'clock.

On Etiquette

By Roberta Lee

Q. What is the proper way to extend an invitation over the telephone?

A. Do not preface your invitation with "What are you doing Saturday night." This puts the other person in an embarrassing position if he says "nothing," and then finds the particular party in prospect does not appeal to him. How can he refuse then? It is more thoughtful to come right out with your invitation.

Q. How does one properly remove bones from a fish at the table?

A. Lift the end of the bone with a fork, and then lift it all the way out pinched between the knife and fork together—or with the fingers. Do not let the fingers touch the fish.

Q. Should a bride remove her veil before sitting at the breakfast table?

A. No; she retains her veil.

Klovers Are Hosts

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Klover were hosts for two holiday parties at their manbrin Gardens home this weekend. Friday night the Klovers entertained informally for a few of their friends, and on Sunday, invited guests to come in for coffee between 3 and 5 o'clock. Pouring were Mrs. Leo G. Johnson and Mrs. A. W. Johnson, sister and mother of Mrs. Klover, and assisting was the Klover's daughter, Kathy.
