Rev. Sanders' Parents Visit

Statesman News Service

HAYESVILLE—The parents of the Rev. Robert E. Sanders, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Sanders, of Spokane, Wash., will spend the Christmas holidays with the Rev. Mr. Sanders and his family.

The Rev. Robert E. Sanders, who attended the Youth for Christ conference in Yakima recently, has been appointed the Youth for Christ director for the Salem area. He has announced that rallies shall be scheduled for the first and third Saturday evenings in each month.

The first rally will be held January 5, in the Bush school auditorium, at 7:45 p.m. The speaker will be Dr. Louis Lehman, from Portland, who will bring his radio singers to sing and play musical numbers. Approximately thirty-five churches will be cooperating in this city-wide youth effort.

Middle Grove Group Elects Ernest Crum

Statesman News Service

MIDDLE GROVE, Dec. 24—Ernest Crum is the new president of the Associated Clubs of Middle Grove. Also elected Friday night were Mrs. Paul Bassett, vice president; and Mrs. Ernest Crum, secretary.

Mrs. Wilbur Wilson was re-elected treasurer. John Schafer and Jon VanLaanen are new directors. Wallace Turnidge conducted a discussion of projects which the group might take up for diversion of children and parents together. Woodcraft and leathercraft were mentioned.

The program included piano solos by Ann Kaufman. The Associated Club will sponsor a ham dinner on Friday, January 11.

The Women's Bible class of the First Methodist church will hold a party on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Merlin Estep, 805 E street, at 2 o'clock. Mrs. James W. Taylor will lead the devotions.

Numbers by a string trio, Harry Lucas, Mr. and Mrs. Hal DeSart and Emil Dan Del, accompanied by Tom DeSart.

Greetings

May the spirit of happiness and good will that fills this season live in your home and bless your loved ones for the many years to come. A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to all.
