Cardboard Box Beneath Auto Contains Boy

YONKERS, N. Y., Dec. 24—(AP)—Bruno O. Boscamp, 20-year-old Vount Vernon, N. Y., motorist, encountered what he thought was a paper carton being blown into the path of his car as he drove up-grade on a windy Yonkers street Sunday.

Boscamp aimed his vehicle carefully at the approaching object so that it would pass beneath the wheels of his car.

Then he heard screams. Stopped, he found that the object, a cardboard box, contained two young boys.

Boscamp telephoned police. Ambulances and police cars raced to the scene.

The boys were badly frightened—but not seriously hurt.

Vincent Mavilla, 8, suffered minor bruises. Peter Richards, 9, suffered no injuries.

They described their conveyance as a "snowless toboggan."

It worked swell belly-buster style, they said, down a steep hill—with a little push.

Boscamp was released without charges.

BODIES BROUGHT HOME

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 24—(AP)—The New Zealand Victory arrived at San Francisco bay Sunday with the bodies of 304 Americans who fell in the fighting in Korea. Bodies of men from cities west of the Mississippi will be held at the port mortuary pending instructions from their next of kin.
