

Plan Freshman Glee for Willamette

Ruben Menashe, left, will be general manager for Willamette University's annual Freshman Glee next March. Menashe tells some of his preliminary planning to Frances Smith who acted as his campaign manager. Both are freshmen at WU, and graduated from Grant high school in Portland last spring. er to pump water. Under present cold weather conditions five minutes or more could be wasted before water could be hosed on a down-town fire. Ralph DuToit, fire chief, is in charge of ticket sales.

Marriage License Business Booming

NEW YORK, Dec. 24 (AP)—New York's marriage license bureau had a last minute shopping rush, too.

Approximately 500 licenses—nearly double the usual Monday quota—were issued. Many went to service men on furlough.

However, one 21-year-old bride-to-be explained it this way:

"It's the best time to get married because everybody's happy."

Soviet People Believe U.S. Sending Spies

By EDDIE GILMORE
MOSCOW, Dec. 24 (AP)—Soviet citizens, from what can be observed here, apparently are convinced the United States is doing its best to penetrate the Soviet Union with spies and saboteurs for the purpose of overthrowing the present regime. The action of a Hungarian military court in sentencing four American fliers to pay fines of 130,000 apiece or serve three months in jail is the latest spy story to receive prominence throughout the Soviet press. Other stories have been Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky's two speeches on the subject to the United Nations; the arrest of Janos Weissengruber and three others as alleged spies for the United States in Hungary; the announced execution of two men with Russian-sounding names said to have been dropped by an American plane in Moldavia, and the alleged parachuting of spies into Romania. One of these cases is being talked about almost wherever you go. They are openly discussed in stores, buses, subways and markets. A taxi driver who picked me up today was no exception. His first remark when I told him I wanted to go to the American embassy was: "What are those people trying to spy on us all the time for?"

Firemen Plan Benefit Ball At Monmouth

Statesman News Service
MONMOUTH, Dec. 24 — Monmouth's volunteer fire department will sponsor a benefit dance Saturday, December 29, in the I.O.O.F. hall. A dance orchestra from Independence, will furnish music. Purpose is to raise funds to help buy a motor heater for the city's main fire truck. This device connects to the city power lines and keeps the water in the truck motor at operating temperature at all times. The truck motor has to be warm
