Margaret Day, Cpl. Nelson Wed Thursday

Poinsettias, holiday greens, baskets of white flowers and candles banked the altar of St. Joseph's Catholic Church on Thursday morning for the marriage of Miss Margaret Cecilia Day, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Day, and Corporal Clarence William Nelson, USAF, son of Captain and Mrs. Robey S. Ratcliffe of Sacramento, Calif.

The Rev. John O'Callahan performed the 10 o'clock nuptials. Gerald Neitling was the soloist and Mrs. Raymond Barton the organist.

The bridal gown of white satin was fashioned redingote style over a net skirt with a strapless bodice of satin. The redingote was made with a mandarin collar, satin buttons to the waistline and long sleeves. The full skirt terminated in a train. Her imported French illusion veil cascaded from a satin half hat adorned with rows of illusion entwined with tiny seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of gardenias, bouvardia and stephanotis.

Mrs. Howard E. Hicks was her sister's matron of honor and wore a red net redingote with short sleeves and silver trim over a strapless, white moire taffeta gown. Miss Dolores Brunkal, the bridesmaid, wore a green net redingote over white moire taffeta. They both wore silver, half hats to match their dresses and carried white and red poinsettias respectively tied with contrasting ribbon.

Attend the Groom
 John Godlove stood with the groom as best man and Anthony Davey was the groomsman. Ushers were Phil Day, Raymond Dvorak and James Lancaster.
 For her daughter's nuptials Mrs. Day chose a grey silk gown with grey and burgundy accessories. Mrs. Ratcliffe wore a taupe moire gown with beige and brown accessories. Their corsages were of red carnations.
 A reception followed at the Salem Woman's club. Pouring were Mrs. Gene Shaw, Mrs. J.

Mrs. LeRoy J. Stewart; and the flag bearer, Gail Jones; Mrs. Paul Hauser will present the chapter with a crown and scepter.
 A reception will follow the installation. Mrs. H. M. Boesch is in charge of refreshments and Mrs. J. Edgar Reay and Mrs. Anna Kirkpatrick, decorations.

On Etiquette

By Roberta Lee

Q. How do a man and his wife go about notifying business and social acquaintances that they have legally changed their name?
 A. The quickest and simplest way to do this is to mail out formal announcements as "Mr. and Mrs. William" (original name) announce that by permission of the court they and their children have taken the family name of Jones.
 Q. Should a girl working in an office give or send her employer an inexpensive Christmas gift?
 A. No. She should wish him a Merry Christmas as he or she is leaving the office on Christmas Eve. In some cases, a Christmas card addressed to him and his wife is appropriate.
 Q. When an elderly woman brings a young man over to a girl who is seated, for the purpose of an introduction, should the girl rise?
 A. Yes; in this instance the girl should rise, as deference to the elderly woman who is standing.

Marriage of Duo Told

Miss Dorothy Jean Winter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Winter, became the bride of Russell Alvin McAdams, son of Mr. and Mrs. George McAdams, all of Salem, on Dec. 22 in Vancouver, Wash.

Attending the couple were Miss Barbara McAdams, sister of the groom, and Walter Winter, brother of the bride.
 Following the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents in Salem. Mrs. Alice Stanton, Dallas, grandmother of the groom, who celebrated her 80th birthday on the wedding day, cut the cake. The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Alice Snook of Aberdeen, Wash., was also here for the occasion.
 The newlyweds will make their home in Salem.

Ladies of the GAR will meet for a no-host luncheon this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mary Mann, 1598 Mission Street, at 12:30 o'clock. A business session will follow.
