Around Town...

By JERYME ENGLISH

NEW YEAR'S EVE... dinner dance for Fillicum Club members at the Marion Hotel. The Mirror and Marine Rooms both used for the affair with tables arranged in each. In the Mirror Room white bells, pink wreaths and silver rain as the decor. With red and green bells and crepe paper streamers the colorful note in the Marine Room. The tables festive with gay New Year's hats for each guest, noise makers, green tapers and in the center small bouquets of carnations and silvered greens. At midnight a mass of serpentine released.

Among the guests... Mr. and Mrs. James Bradshaw, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Slick, Mr. and Mrs. James Cooke, who spent their first New Year's in Salem in several years, as they have been residing in Laguna Beach, Calif. Dr. and Mrs. Horace McGee, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Walker, Dr. and Mrs. Otto Kraushaar. Judge and Mrs. Rex Hartley, who were guests of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sears. From Sweet Home came Mr. and Mrs. Max Landon and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Blum as guests of the Chester Olsons. Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hasbroock, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Giles, Mr. and Mrs. William Neusome. Mrs. Anna Lowen, and the newly engaged duo, Miss Gladys Quesseth and Milton Kans. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Loynes.

More of same... Dr. and Mrs. Carl Holm. Dr. John Guiss down from Portland and escorting Miss Mariann Croisan. The young medic here for the holidays for a family reunion with his brothers, Dr. Russell Guiss of Salem and Dr. Lewis Guiss of Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Yeater Jr. and Mrs. Clarence Sellar, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Brown. Colonel and Mrs. Carl Nelson, former Salem residents, here from Wasco, where they now reside.

Lt. (jg) and Mrs. Henry Johnson, who arrived from the east coast for the holidays, at the dance with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Burton A. Myers. The naval officer and his family soon to head for his Navy base at San Diego.

Home for the dance... Mr. and Mrs. Holly Jackson, who returned just the night before from Palo Alto, Calif., where they spent the holidays with Ellen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hasford. The Jacksons drove south on Christmas Eve with their three boys, Phil, Clark and Ralph. The Carl Forters arrived home just in time for the dance. They went north to Victoria, B. C. to spend Christmas at the Empress Hotel. The Forters and daughter, Cheryl, took part in the traditional events at the hotel including the Christmas carol teas, the Yule Log ceremony and the Bear's Head procession following the Christmas dinner. A special occasion for Cheryl was participating in the Children's Fancy Dress Ball at the hotel on the Thursday after Christmas.

AT RANDOM... A fifth child and second daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Burton C. Lemmon (Isabel Morehouse) on December 28 in Tacoma. She has been named Sally and her brothers are Michael, Jon Dennis and Patrick and her sister is Rosemary. Clever announcements were received by Salem friends of the Lemmons telling of their new arrival. A character sketch of the entire family announcing that their basketball team had been completed. The numerals on their basketball shirts telling their ages. Their father was a star basketball player during his college days at Willamette.

Visiting... In the capital are Mr. and Mrs. Howland E. Lake and children, Cathy and Michael, who arrived by train Monday night from their home in Oakland, Calif. They will spend the remainder of the week here with Mrs. Lake's mother, Mrs. David Bennett Hill. The Lakes had planned to come for Christmas, but sickness postponed their trip.

In Grants Pass... last Saturday for the marriage of Miss Claire Lee Ogle and Rudolph E. Erickson were Mr. and Mrs. Wallace H. Bonesteel, who were accompanied by their son-in-law and daughter, Alan and Marianne Riebel of Eugene. Mr. and Mrs. Elmore Hill, Miss Shirley and Miss Marilyn Hill and Mr. Howard Arnot. Egil Okstad and Ove Tønning, Willamette University friends of the bride-elect's sister, Sally Ogle. Marianne Riebel was a bridesmaid for Claire Lee and in October Claire was one of Marianne's attendants at her wedding. Marilyn Hill was among those assisting at the large reception following the rites at the Methodist Church.

Miss Baltimore Wed Recently

WILLAMINA—At a candle-light ceremony Saturday evening, Dec. 22 at 8 p. m. at the Church of Christ, Miss LaVelle Baltimore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loyal Baltimore of Willamina, became the bride of Richard Lee Hofrichter, son of Mrs. William Pinniger of Olympia, Wash. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Leo Woodruff.

Miss Susie Johnston played the wedding music, and accompanied Clifton Huddleston of Salem, when he sang. Miss Judy Shetterly and Miss Joyce Huddleston in lavender ballerina gowns lighted the tapers. The bride was given in marriage by her father, and wore a ballerina length gown of white French chantilly lace over satin, fashioned with a scalloped neckline, long sleeves, Peter Pan collar, and a full gathered skirt. Her fingertip veil was held in place with a cap of lace and seed pearls. Her bouquet was of white chrysanthemums and stephanotis, centered with a white orchid with a yellow throat.

Mrs. Arnold Hultley of Seaside was matron of honor and wore a green taffeta ballerina gown with a bouquet of multi-colored chrysanthemums. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Howard Lindbeck of Eugene and Miss Yvonne Hubbard of Newberg, in yellow taffeta ballerina length gowns. They carried bouquets similar to the matron of honor's, tied with yellow ribbon. Lynette Kluth was flower girl.

Howard Lindbeck of Eugene was best man and ushers were Dudley Roberts of Willamina and Bob Shetterly of Eugene.

A reception was held in the church basement, Mrs. John Cage, aunt of the bride, cut the cake, assisted by Mrs. Victor Emmons. Mrs. Frank Smelser poured the coffee, Mrs. Leo Woodruff was in charge of the punch bowl, Mrs. Gail Burke of Dallas and Mrs. Chet Canby had charge of the gifts, Mrs. Robert Buswell of Amity passed the guest book, Joyce Huddleston and Judy Shetterly passed the groom's cake, and assisting were Mrs. Jess Myers, Mrs. W. B. Matthews, Miss Nina Mendenhall and Mrs. Shirley Mendenhall.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Baltimore wore a two piece navy blue dress with black accessories and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Pinniger chose a green suit with black accessories, and an orchid corsage. The couple graduated from the Willamina High School and both attended Linfield College. The bride is employed in the office

Wedding Takes Place in South

From the South comes news of the marriage of Mrs. Gladys Christensen of Salem to William Loftus of Los Angeles, which was quietly solemnized on Saturday, Dec. 29 in St. Helena, Calif. at 3 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Land, Salem, brother-in-law and sister of the bride, went south for the nuptials. The couple will reside in Los Angeles.

Engagement Of Interest

Salem friends are interested to hear of the engagement of Miss Jean Keith of South Pasadena, Calif., to Robert R. Boardman Jr. of Salem. No date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Keith is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Keith of Applegate, Ore. She attended teachers college in San Francisco and is now doing religious work in Pasadena.

Mr. Boardman is the son of Mrs. Robert R. Boardman of Salem and the late Mr. Boardman. He was in the marine corps during World War II and attended Oregon State College.

On Sunday Mr. Boardman left San Francisco for Japan to be with the Navigators in religious work with men in service.

Mrs. Phillip Allison, chairman of the Marion County Red Cross Motor Corps, has invited members of the corps to her Fairmount Hill home this afternoon for coffee at 3 o'clock. Plans will be outlined for the coming year's activities of the corps.

New Shrine Instituted

Mrs. Miller B. Hayden was in Seattle last week to take part in ceremonies instituting a new Shrine of White Shrine of Jerusalem, to be known as Madonna Shrine, U.D. Mrs. Hayden, a member of the Supreme Committee of Credentials, acted as Supreme Chaplain. Also in Seattle for the instituting was John Pettl of Los Angeles, the Supreme Watchman.
