

Ultimatum Against Future Aggression Sought From Allies

By ELTON C. FAY and JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States was reported Friday night to be advising its allies that a Korean armistice—if obtained—should be supported by an implied ultimatum to the Reds. This would put them on notice that all out air-sea war will be waged against Red China if the truce is violated by new aggression.

Discrimination Against Negro Families Told

PORTLAND (AP)—Edwin C. Berry, executive secretary of the Urban League, told the State Fair Employment Practices Committee Friday that Negroes had a difficult time finding adequate housing in Salem and Eugene.

The Urban League is a Portland organization which interests itself in protecting rights of minority groups.

Berry said that conditions were particularly bad in Eugene.

"Many Negro families have been forced to move into an area where they have no sanitary facilities, where they have to carry their water a half mile, and are living in one and two-room shacks haphazardly thrown together," he said.

David Robinson, league president, said it was impossible for Negroes to get housing in Salem.

"The state does not discriminate against Negroes in employment in Salem," Berry said, "chiefly because Negroes to discriminate against."

Word of this reported stand by the U. S. circulated in official circles after American government departments concerned had reviewed the whole, prolonged history of the truce parley and weighed political and military possibilities of the new position.

The U. S. has made it plain in the Panmunjon talks that its overriding interest is to get all United Nations prisoners who remain alive out of Communist hands.

While it intends neither to give any more ground than is found necessary nor to retreat on any points to which the Reds already have agreed, the U. S. is authoritatively described as prepared to make certain further concessions if deemed necessary.

There was great official reluctance to discuss what form these concessions might take.

From what could be ascertained in diplomatic and military quarters, the American position was apparently taking this form:

1. All United Nations prisoners held by the enemy would be released, with a definite deadline for the prisoner exchange to be completed.

2. The line would be at the battle front existing at the time of settlement, presumably about where it is now.

3. If Communist forces crossed that line and broke the truce terms, the war would no longer be confined to the Korean Peninsula.

But the United States would not again be drawn into another stalemate land campaign. Army troops would not be used nor any invasion of the Chinese mainland contemplated.

Instead, a tight blockade of Red China's coast by U. S. air and sea forces, coupled with bombardment of strategic targets within reach of land or sea based aviation or of naval gunfire would be applied.

But there has been nothing to suggest that atomic weapons would be used in such attacks. Conventional explosives are deemed adequate.

Rare Pinochle Hands Dealt

PINCKNEYVILLE, Ill.—(AP)—A pinochle hand with 1500 trumps has been called loosely a once-in-a-lifetime occurrence. Frank Keenan, of Pinckneyville, boasted he was dealt 1500 in trumps, not once, but twice in three weeks.

Moreover, the players were all the same in both games, and the same dealer, Rudy Kohlsdorf, dealt the perfect hands.

One player said they were the only perfect hands he had witnessed in 53 years of playing pinochle.

Olympic Art Revival Sought

ZURICH, Switzerland (AP)—A group of Swiss artists has organized a campaign to revive the art competition of the Olympic Games.

The International Olympic Committee after the London Olympics of 1948 decided to abolish the art competition on the grounds that artists were not amateurs and therefore could not take part in the Olympic Games. At the 1952 Olympic Games at Helsinki, Finland, no medals will be awarded to artists for the first time since 1912.

The International Committee revoked its decision at a meeting at Vienna last summer, too late to permit the organizers of the Helsinki Games to reinstate the competition.

Meanwhile, however, the Danish Olympic Committee has formally proposed that all art projects, whether exhibitions or competitions, should be entirely removed from the Olympic Games once and for all. It is mainly in opposition to this proposal that the "Swiss Artists' Group" for the Olympic Games" has opened a world-wide campaign.

Court Battle Promised on Zone Change

Richfield Oil Co. and the City of Salem announced Friday they would fight in Circuit Court to uphold a recent zone change made on North Capitol at Shipping Streets to permit a new service station there.

Disatisfied with the change, several nearby property owners filed a suit seeking to revoke the zone change. They are represented by Attorney Fred Williams.

City Attorney Chris J. Kowitz said Friday the city would join with Richfield in presenting answers to the suit within a few days in Marion County Circuit Court. The oil company is represented by a Portland law firm.

The lawsuit challenges some of the zoning legislation procedures which have been questioned recently by Alderman David O'Hara and other members of City Council. The suit also alleges the zone change would damage nearby property values.

Bruins Upset Indians 81-63

LOS ANGELES (AP)—UCLA's raehorse Bruins opened their Pacific Coast Conference basketball campaign in impressive fashion Friday night with an 81-63 upset over Stanford.

The Bruins, champions for three years in the Southern Division, broke a 4-all deadlock early in the first quarter, then opened the flood gates to release a torrent of points that swept the favored Sanfords into a 42-23 deficit at halftime.

The Indians never recovered in absorbing their second loss in 12 starts this season. The victory was UCLA's eighth against four setbacks.

Bolanos Loses To Newcomer

NEW YORK (AP)—Chico Vejar, a 20-year-old college freshman on the way up, caught Enrique Bolanos 27, on the way down Friday night to pound out a unanimous 10-round decision over the Pasadena veteran at Madison Square Garden. Vejar weighed 146½, Bolanos 143, the heaviest of his career.

Both Judge Art Aidala and Referee Ruby Goldstein scored it 7-2-1 in favor of the kid from Stamford, Conn. Judge Frank Forbes saw it 6-4. The AP card had Vejar on top 7-2-1.

California struggled from a 27-10-29 halftime deficit to a 45-44 edge at the end of the third quarter. The Bears clinched victory then with a 20-point outburst in the last period.

Howls Over Dragging Contest Anger Mentor

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Coach Dolph Stanley of the undefeated Beloit College basketball team, angered by jeers received in a slow-motion contest Thursday night, said Friday he is not interested in pleasing fans who get out of line.

The Beloit team, which had averaged better than 88 points in nine previous games, switched to a ball-control style of play Thursday night and squeezed by Washington University, 24-21.

The floor was littered with paper fragments thrown by angry, jeering spectators in a crowd of about 3,500.

Extension of Controls Seen

WASHINGTON (AP)—A confident prediction that Congress will extend price, wage, rent and credit controls came Friday from Chairman Spence of the House Banking Committee.

He said his committee will start hearings soon—probably by February 1—on extension of the Defense Production Act which contains the basic authorizations for the entire control program. The law is due to expire June 30.

"I think Congress is bound to continue the law" the towering Kentucky Democrat told a reporter. "If controls were taken off and prices and rents were allowed to rise without restraints, I don't know what would happen."

Pilots Lick Gonzaga

PORTLAND (AP)—Portland's high scoring Pilots steam-rollered Gonzaga 79-56, Friday in the opener of a two-game week-end basketball series here.

The Pilots took an early lead and added to it steadily throughout the contest. They were in front, 41-49, at halftime.

Portland's rangy front line of Forward Ray Foleen and Andy Johnson and Center M. H. McGilvery, aided by Reserve Guard Damien Rocha, paced the attack. McGilvery was high with 17 points. Foleen and Rocha each had 15 and Johnson 13.
