Miss Ottosen, Mr. Perkins Married

The wedding of Miss Pauline Ottosen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Ottosen, and Warren D. Perkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Perkins, all of Salem, took place on December 29 at the Central Church of Christ. The Rev. C. L. Bryant performed the 8 o'clock rites. The church choir sang during the ceremony.

The bride wore a white satin gown fashioned on princess lines with stand up collar and a fingertip veil edged in lace, which was caught to a seed pearl coronet. She carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with a red throated white orchid.

Mrs. Leonard McAllister was the matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Shirley Carpenter and Miss Karen Perkins. The honor matron wore a cedar green moire taffeta gown and carried red poinsettias. The bridesmaids wore red taffeta frocks and carried bouquets of white poinsettias. Bonnie Carpenter was the flower girl.

Tommy Proctor served as best man and the ushers were Carl Goldsby and Robert Bruce. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Ottosen wore a maroon suit with black accessories and carriage of gardenias. Mrs. Perkins attended the wedding in a navy blue dress with black accessories and gardenia corsage. A reception followed in the church parlors. Mrs. Robert Meier cut the cake and Mrs. James Smith poured.

After a wedding trip the couple returned to Salem and are now at home at 319 S. 25th St. Women's Society of World Service of the Englewood Church will meet Thursday afternoon at 1:15 o'clock at the home of Miss Lella Luckey, 679 Breys Avenue. The Rev. Lloyd Uecker will be the leader.

Ceremony of Interest Here

Of interest to the couple's many Willamette University friends is announcement of the marriage of Miss Patricia Mae Ryan, daughter of Mrs. Asa W. Ryan and the late Asa W. Ryan of Vancouver, Wash., and Charles John Patterson Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Patterson of Burlingame, Calif., which took place on Dec. 29 at the First Methodist Church in Vancouver. The Rev. Olin M. Graham read the ceremony.

The bride wore a gown of white chantilly lace and satin, full court train and finger tip veil falling from a cap of lace trimmed with satin and seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of American Beauty Roses, white carnations centered with a white orchid.

The maid of honor, an Alpha Chi Omega sorority sister of the bride, was Miss Mary Lynn Scott of Bend. She wore a gown of light aqua brocaded satin with deep aqua satin sash and carried a bouquet of American Beauty Roses and silver leaves. The other attendants were Miss Marilyn Patterson, sister of the groom of Burlingame, Mrs. Lynn Ryan, sister-in-law of the bride, Miss Elaine Evans, both of Vancouver, Miss Ellen Reynolds, sorority sister of Salem, and the junior attendant, Miss Cecilia Ryan, cousin of the bride, Vancouver. Two of the attendants wore gowns of light aqua brocaded satin with darker aqua sashes and the other three attendants wore gowns of light rose brocaded satin with American Beauty sashes. All the attendants carried bouquets of American Beauty Roses with silver leaves.

Attend the Groom
Robert Baer of Burlingame was best man and the ushers were Robert Moore of Mountain View, Calif., Richard Hartley of Silverton, Roger Adams of Mountain View, all Phi Delta Theta fraternity brothers of the groom, and Kenneth Cain, of Sumner, Wash. Miss Betty Jean Mullins, Alpha Chi Omega sorority sister of Salem, sang. Lighting the candles were Miss Sue Hilborn of Vancouver and Mrs. Milton Van Camp, sorority sister of McMinnville.

Mrs. Harry Crawford of Salem, grandmother of the bride, poured at the reception which followed at the church.

The bride graduated from Vancouver High School, attended Willamette University for three years and graduated from San Jose State College. She is now teaching in Los Altos, Calif. Mr. Patterson graduated from Burlingame High School and Willamette University. He is now attending Stanford University graduate school of business administration. The newlyweds will live in Mountain View, Calif.
