6-Week School For Workers Begins Jan. 29

Salem's first co-operative church leadership training school in about five years will begin Tuesday, Jan. 29, Dr. Arthur H. Maynard, dean, announced Friday. The school is sponsored by Salem Ministerial Association, with some 30 churches participating.

The courses will be given each Tuesday evening for six weeks in First Presbyterian Church, designed especially for Sunday School workers but open to all interested.

Seven classes are planned, divided among two 50-minute periods each night. Either one or two may be taken, at a cost of one dollar each.

First session classes, at 7:30, are "Teaching Primary Children," taught by Mrs. R. E. Moshier, Eugene, children's superintendent for Oregon Christian churches; "Teaching Junior Children," by Ruth Towne, on the faculty of Texas Christian University and doing graduate work at Oregon State College; "Teaching Intermediates," by the Rev. B. J. Holland, assistant pastor of First Presbyterian Church; "Christianity at Work in Salem," teacher to be announced.

Gates, Portland, district superintendent of the Evangelical United Brethren Church; "How to Use Audio-Visual Aids," the Rev. Lloyd G. Uecker of Englewood EUB Church; "Improving the Sunday School," the Rev. Donald Payne, minister of education at First Christian Church.

The program was set up by the Ministerial Association's Christian education committee, headed by the Rev. Dudley Strain, and the leadership education sub-committee headed by Maynard. Ralph Johnson is in charge of publicity, and Dr. John R. Turnbull of the book table.

Minister to Retire—Again

More living in an easy chair like this, and less out of suitcase, is the top planning now for Dr. Henry Marcotte, who is retiring from 55 years of ministry in the Presbyterian Church. He said Mrs. Marcotte has packed and unpacked 110 times in 16 years of ad interim pastorates up and down the Pacific Coast. (Statesman photo.)

Dr. Marcotte Ends 55 Years Of Preaching Here on Sunday

A possible record period of ad interim ministering will be climaxed Sunday when Dr. Henry Marcotte preaches at Salem First Presbyterian Church. And it will be done despite a fractured shoulder, the same one that was in a sling 10 years ago for another sermon here.

A minister, outstanding in his denomination, for 55 of his 81 years, Dr. Marcotte has been "filling in" between regular pastors since 1935, at some 20 churches. This is his third such call to Salem. Now he will retire for the second time.

His work will close here with the arrival of Dr. Paul Poling from Philadelphia as pastor, Sunday morning at 9:45 and 11 o'clock. Dr. Marcotte will preach on "Three Abiding Things." He and Mrs. Marcotte will leave Monday morning for their Portland apartment, 1610 N.E. Tillamook.

The fractured right shoulder, which prevented his speaking last Sunday, was sustained last Saturday evening as he fell from a step at the church. X-rays showed it was not serious. He recalled that almost exactly 10 years ago he fractured the same shoulder in a similar fall in Portland, then came here to preach morning and evening.

Marcotte grew up in Michigan and Wisconsin, attended Lake Forest College in Illinois and McCormick Theological Seminary in Chicago. Lake Forest granted him an honorary Doctor of Divinity degree in 1913.

Ordained to the ministry in 1896, Marcotte's missionary urge brought him immediately to the then-rough port town of Astoria, where he served seven years. After an interim pastorate there last year, the church awarded him the title of pastor emeritus.

Prior to his "retirement" in 1935, Dr. Marcotte then ministered at Westminster Church in Portland, Westminister in Pasadena, Highland Park in Los Angeles, First in Berkeley, Park Boulevard in Oakland, Fremont in Sacramento, Central in Eugene.

The terms have averaged about eight or nine months and extended to two years.

He came to Salem just before the church called the Rev. Irwin Williams some 10 years ago and before Dr. Chester W. Hamblin came six years ago. When Hamblin went to Palo Alto in October, Marcotte came back. He said that the past three months have been his shortest assignment, but "really the climax."

The interim work to Marcotte is done with the idea of preparing for the new pastor, helping to call the best man and ironing out local problems.

This time in Salem, the task has been light, he added. Members of the congregation, however, praise his quick raising of $2,500 to bring the Poling family here and to redecorate the manse. The request was over-subscribed on the offering plates.

The Marcottes have two daughters and four grandchildren in Portland and another daughter in Santa Monica, Calif.

Though the man with the generous voice and spirit wouldn't say his preaching days are over. But he doesn't expect to travel quite so fast.

Revival Under Way At Santiam Chapel

LYONS — Revival meetings which began Jan. 6 at Santiam Chapel will continue until Jan. 27, with the Rev. Ferris Dodd of Halsey in charge.

Services are conducted at 7:30 o'clock every night except Monday. Saturday evening is an all-musical service. The Nelson party is assisting with music. The Rev. Wells Gage is the pastor.

LABISH SINGING SLATED
LAKE LABISH — The young people will have charge of a sing-spiration replacing the preaching service at 7:45 p. m. Sunday at Labish Community Church, according to B. M. Brooks, pastor.

CHOR MEMBER SUES CHURCH
MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—A choir member who fell down the steps of a Methodist church here recently enroute to choir practice has sued the church for $1,250. She contends the steps were poorly lighted.

Youth Crusade To Continue At Jefferson

JEFFERSON—The Youth Crusade which began here Sunday will be continued for another week with an afternoon meeting scheduled for Sunday at 3 o'clock, and no meeting Monday night. Gordon McLean, teen-age evangelist conducting the series, will preach at the Marion Friends Church that night.

A youth choir has been organized, and full houses have attended the programs nightly. The choir practices each night at 7 o'clock, followed by a devotional period at 7:30 and the service from 8 to 9. Mrs. Leonard McCaw is pianist. Bill Arnold is song director.

The Rev. Edison Habegger of Los Angeles, will show colored motion pictures at Tabot Community Church Monday night at 7:30 o'clock. Pictures are those taken during the past year in the heart of Africa—of wild elephants, little pygmies, and leaf-dressed natives, as well as what the power of the gospel will do for those who heed.

Habegger has travelled in the Holy Land, Europe, Africa and throughout this country. He is district superintendent of the Missionary Church Association of Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Radio Marks Anniversary

NEW YORK (AP)—The chairman of the Radio Corporation of America, David Sarnoff, recently saluted the 50th anniversary of the first signal radio signal sent across the Atlantic by sending the letter "S" around the world at a gathering of radio executives in the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel.

He pressed a series of three "S" on a telegraph key. The signals were heard over a loud-speaker by the luncheon gathering less than one-eighth of a second later—after they had travelled around the world.

Sarnoff also exchanged greetings by radio-telephone with Marcella Maria Cristina Marconi, widow of the wireless inventor, and her daughter.

Driver Saved From Train

HIGHLAND PARK, Ill. (AP)—With the emphasis on the millionth traffic fatality, these two didn't quite make the list.

Mrs. Irene Prior, driver of a brand-new automobile, and her companion, Mrs. C. V. Nichols, were stalled on the Chicago, North Western Railroad tracks.

As the speeding "400" approached, a motorist, J. Dwight Evans, and a gatekeeper, John J. Janusik, tried to push the car off the tracks. They couldn't move the car. The tires were wedged in an icy rut.

With the train a short distance away, both men pulled the women and four grandchildren in Portland and another daughter in Santa Monica, Calif.

Though this is a second retirement, the man with the generous voice and spirit wouldn't say his preaching days are over. But he doesn't expect to travel quite so fast.

New Leader

REV. DONALD B. PAYNE

Payne Begins Youth Work Here Tuesday

The Rev. Donald B. Payne, new minister of Christian education and director of youth work for First Christian Church will begin his work here Tuesday.

Payne, 29, comes from Corvallis, where he has been minister of the First Christian Church for four years. His home was in Chehalis, Wash., before entering Texas Christian University, then graduate work at Yale University, and serving as associate minister at Tacoma First Church.

He is a member of the Oregon Christian Student Foundation, administering work on the campuses at Corvallis and Eugene, and is chairman of the youth committee and member of the education committee of Oregon Christian churches.

Payne is married and has two small boys.

AIRLIFT FOR BOOKS
KUANTAN, Pahang, Malaya (AP)—Recently a small Chinese merchant area several miles inland from here—but not without difficulties.

There are no roads to the area and a trip upriver would take two days through dangerous jungle. So, in order to supply books to the school's 41 pupils, an airlift was ordered and the books were dropped squarely in the school grounds.
