

Fund Program For 1952 Set, Middle Grove

Statesman News Service
MIDDLE GROVE—The Associated Clubs of Middle Grove will raise funds during 1952 by sponsoring events outside the community, members decided Friday night.

Conducting a food concession for the gift sale at the state fairgrounds on Saturday, Feb. 2 will be the first. Last year the group held monthly fund-raising events in Middle Grove.

Purpose of the Associated Clubs is to build a community center. The fund now stands at $2,569.

The group will sponsor a meeting Friday night, Feb. 1, at the schoolhouse to decide on a hobby-craft program in which parents and children will work together. Everyone in the community is invited.

A basket social and costume party will be held Friday night, Feb. 15. Baskets will be exchanged rather than sold.

Committees Appointed
Norman Fletcher, retiring president, installed officers and turned the meeting over to Ernest Crum, new president, who appointed the following committees:

Youth, Wallace Turnidge, Ray Darland; hospitality, Mrs. Ray Darland; Mrs. John Schafer; kitchen, Mrs. Norman Fletcher; Mrs. Wilbur Wilson; publicity, Fletcher, Paul Bassett, Mrs. Ernest Crum.

Melvin VanCleave reported the Middle Grove Boy Scouts will conduct a paper drive on Saturday, Jan. 26. The annual Boy Scout Court of Honor and covered-dish supper will be held Tuesday night, Feb. 5, at the schoolhouse.

The Dows and Paul Bassett were hosts at Friday night's meeting. A Salem instrumental group presented the program.

Albany Tops Blood Record Set by Salem

Statesman News Service
ALBANY—Albany-area residents contributed 363 pints of blood to the Red Cross blood bank and set a new state record Friday.

The bloodmobile visit was sponsored by Albany Elks Lodge. The mobile units operated 5½ hours and 16 cots were in use.

Red Cross spokesmen said the total topped the previous one-day record of 323 pints, established at Salem. The previous Linn County record was 304 pints, at Lebanon.

Amil Killian was general chairman for the event. Oscar Olson head the soliciting committee. Sidney Burt is exalted ruler of the lodge.

Keith Houk New CC Head At Monmouth

Statesman News Service
MONMOUTH—Keith Houk was elected president of the Monmouth Chamber of Commerce for 1952, this week. Other officers are Ralph DuToit, vice-president; Eric Swenson, secretary-treasurer; Gordon Barzee, Dr. Roben Maaske and Ermine Gentile, executive committee members.

Dr. Maaske, president of O.S.C., told the club about the recent addition of graduate work, leading to a master's degree in science, at the colleges of education.

Among projects planned for 1952 is one for publicizing Monmouth's electric power rates, lowest in the U. S., by means of signs to be placed on the highways at the city entrances.
