

Seen and Heard..

By JERYME ENGLISH

Miss. will be the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd R. Smith and daughters, Sherry and Nicola. . . . they plan to leave the first of the month for the South, taking a leisurely trip enroute through the Southern States. . . . Mr. Smith is being transferred to Jackson by Michael Baker, Jr., engineers, the firm he has been with the past few years in Salem. . . . He is being sent to Jackson to work on several large dam projects, which the firm has contracted. . . . Mrs. Frank Ward and Mrs. Frank Mohlman are planning an au revoir party for Mrs. Smith on Thursday night at the former's Liberty Road residence. . . .

Leaving for Sacramento soon after the first of February will be Mrs. William T. Waterman and sons, Bill, Johnny and Jimmy, who will join Mr. Waterman, who is already in California. . . . the Watermans have sold their East Nob Hill home to the Paul Wilsons. . . .

New address for Mrs. W. Ludd Read and her mother, Mrs. Martha Burns, is 1317 Cannon Road. . . . they moved this past week into an attractive newly built home situated just to the north of the Robert Cannon residence. . . . Mrs. Cannon is a daughter of Mrs. Read. . . . The Cannons are having lots of fun decorating and doing most of the finishing in the house, which features all wood paneling. . . .

Moving time comes March for four families. . . . The William H. Hammonds and daughter, Connie, who have been living in Portland are moving back to Salem and have purchased the Wayne Hadley home on Saginaw Street. . . . the Hadleys have bought the home of Mrs. Custer Ross on Cross Street. . . . and Mrs. Ross recently purchased the Harold Walling residence in Morningstar. . . . Mr. Walling is now building a new home atop Candalaria Heights. . . .

In Hood River, this past week Mr. and Mrs. John Syme (Margaret-Jane Emmons) moved into their newly built home at 1823 B Street. . . . Mr. Syme is technical director for the new Hardboard Plant of the Oregon Lumber Co., which is located a few miles away at Dee. . . .

A NEW DANCING club soon to be organized by a group of the young marrieds. . . . It is hoped by the committee that plans will be formulated so as to have a March dance. . . . The group plans four formal dinner dances a season. . . . The five couples organizing the new club (a name yet to be chosen) are Mr. and Mrs. Lester D. Green, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Maulding, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Underwood and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Karschnia. . . .

FOLLOWING THE SUN. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Viesko and Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Von Eichen are leaving today for California for a several weeks sojourn. . . . they first will go to Bakersfield, where they will be met by Mr. and Mrs. Victor McKenzie of Carmel, former Salem residents. . . . From there the three couples will vacation in Las Vegas and Palm Springs. . . . The Salem travelers will stop in Carmel for a short stay with the McKenzies before returning home. . . .

NOTEWORTHY. . . . at the Solomon concert on Thursday night at the Salem High School auditorium. . . . a number of out-of-town music lovers were spotted in the audience. . . . Among them. . . . the two music critics from the Portland papers. . . . Hillmar Grondahl and his wife and Susie Aubrey Smith. . . . and to our knowledge this is the first time they have attended a concert here in many years. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Phil Hart, Miss Grace Harrington, who played here with the Portland Symphony as guest pianist a few years ago. . . . Miss Lillian Pettibone, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Laird and their son and daughter-in-law, the Richard Lairds (Harriet Huston). . . . and Margaret Notz Steinmetz, well known accompanist, all from Portland. . . . Several were over from Corvallis, including the Paul Petries. . . .

An informal reception. . . . and gathering for Mr. Solomon followed his outstanding concert at the Beta Theta Pi fraternity house on the Willamette University campus. . . . mostly students on hand to greet the great artist. . . . Dr. R. Ivan Lovell, whose home is also England, introducing the guests to the pianist. . . . the Lovells having entertained Mr. Solomon at luncheon that day. . . . The pianist so friendly and gracious and much younger looking than on the stage. . . . Later the fraternity men serving the artist turkey sandwiches and a glass of milk. . . . punch and cookies for the guests. . . .

On hand to greet Mr. Solomon. . . . she wearing an almond brown suit and pink fur felt hat. . . . Mrs. Ivan Lovell. . . . Dean and Mrs. Robert D. Gregg. . . . two enthusiastic young pianists. . . . Ann Gibbens and Edna Marie Hill. . . .

. . . nearly all of the fraternity men and their dates, who wore pretty afternoon frocks. . . . Just before Mr. Solomon left a group of the Betas asking him to autograph their programs. . . . In riding over to the high school the pianist was amazed at the number of cars, especially the students who had their own cars. . . . he remarked that at universities in England the students would be riding bicycles to the concerts as well as the adults. . . . Solomon will return to England this spring and is now headed eastward and to New York. . . . We especially liked the way the artist told the audience his program was ended. . . . after his three encores he just simply closed the keyboard. . . .
