Soybeans Give Market Only Firm Standing

CHICAGO (AP)-Soybeans provided the only firm spot as the grain market drifted lower on the Board of Trade Friday. The buying in beans could sive, but it sufficed to lift prices as much as 2 cents. Otherwise, the market's performance was a pretty sick one for those who would like to see prices go higher. After a steady opening, a slow downward trend set in. Mainly, it resulted from a lack of demand. Final prices were up fractionally from the day's lows. Wheat closed 1/2-1/8 lower, corn 1/2 to 1 cent lower, oats 1/8-1/8 lower, rye 1/4 lower to 1/6 higher, soybeans 1/4 to 2 cents higher and lard unchanged to 8 cents a hundred pounds lower.
