Tuesday games: Cascade at Salem Academy, Philomath at Sacred Heart Academy.

Capitol League basketball action Tuesday night finds four teams booked for a pair of local games, Philomath's Warriors at Sacred Heart Academy and Cascade's Cougars at Salem Academy.

The Philomath-SHA contest is to be played in the Parrish Junior High gym. The Crusaders will be hosting the Cougars in the former's West Salem gym. Both main events get under way following 7 p.m. prelims.

League-leading Stayton will be idle in league play but has a return match scheduled Tuesday at Scio. The Loggers upset the Staytons last week at Stayton.

By all measurable standards, the two local quints should rack up the league wins in the Tuesday nighters. Salem Academy is currently in second place while the Cascades have yet to win a league game. Sacred Heart after a mid-season slump has shown definite signs of recovery lately and should prove plenty tough to handle from here in.

Coach Leo Grosjean's Cards have won their last two games, over Columbia Prep of Portland and Cascade Salem Academy on the other hand saw a fine winning streak cracked last week at the hands of Stayton.

Stayton's Huge Hal Titus, with 70 points in four games, leads the league in scoring to date. Salem Academy's Bob Johnson, although held to two points in the Stayton game last week, holds down second spot with 53 markers. Virg Webber of SHA has 50 for third place, tallied in three games. Dave Neilling of Stayton is next with 47, and Bob Brotherton of Salem Academy has 46. Johnny Roy of SHA has 40 and Mulkey of Philomath has 38.

Amity 4 3 .571	Sherwood 1 6 .143
Banks 4 3 .571	Yamhill 0 6 .000

Tuesday games: Amity at Dayton, Sherwood at Williamina, Banks at Sheridan, North Marion at Yamhill.

Dayton High's Pirates, still rolling unopposedly along toward the Yawama League basketball title, attempt to add their eighth victory Tuesday night in the feature of four circuit clashes. The Pirates go against the Amity Warriors on the Dayton floor.

Other league games Tuesday send Sherwood to Williamina, Banks to Sheridan and North Marion to Yamhill. The Banks-Sheridan clash is a big one also, inasmuch as Sheridan is now in second place, a game behind Dayton while Banks is tried for third with Amity.

The battle at Dayton will see the league's 1-2 scorers, Bob Edgerton of Amity and Elver Hoard of Dayton locked in what could develop into a personal duel. Edgerton now leads the pointmakers with 149 in seven games. Hoard has 121. Coach Keith Marshall's Warriors have no one else to match the high scoring abilities of both Bill Sherman and Jerry Allen of Coach Harry Johnston's leaders, however. They hold the third and fourth spots in the scoring race and are followed by Vern Brandt of Sheridan, Ron Barendse of North Marion, Roy Zimbrick of Williamina and Wray Chain of Banks.

Negro Hoop Star Barred

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) - Hadie Redd, University of Arizona Negro basketball player, will not be able to play against Texas Tech in Lubbock because of his race, the university announced Monday.

Redd was Arizona's outstanding player and leading scorer when it defeated Tech in Tucson two weeks ago.

Molalla's Indians, with seven straight victories, is out in front of the league chase by one full game over Dallas. The defending champion Dragons now have a 6-1 mark and the Woodburn Bulldogs boast 5-2. In last Friday's contests Molalla dropped Woodburn 53-43, Dallas beat Canby 44-36, Silverton beat Sandy 44-43 and Mt. Angel bested Estacada 57-39.

When league play resumes next Friday night Mt. Angel will be at Molalla, Sandy at Canby, Estacada at Dallas and Silverton at Woodburn.

Molalla's Jim Horton has taken over the individual scoring lead also. He now has 107 points, five more than Jim Bowser of Estacada, former leader. Bowser was checked to five points by Mt. Angel last week, losing the lead. They are the only two players over the 100 mark, however.

In third place with 86 points is Len (Swede) Pavlicek of Woodburn. Curt Hovland of Canby has 80 and Dave Hagen of Molalla 79. Then in order comes Larry Cook of Dallas and Ed Perrett of Canby with 77, John Gorman of Mt. Angel with 76, Jim Vandehey of Woodburn with 74 and Leon McCammon of Silverton with 73.

Brooks Sign Training Pact

BROOKLYN (AP) - The Brooklyn Dodgers and the city of Vero Beach, Fla., signed a 21-year contract Monday for use of the Dodger-town spring training base—one of the longest training pacts ever.

As part of the agreement, the Brooklyn club and at least 50 per cent of its farm clubs will train at Vero Beach each year. The Dodgers will play a minimum of two regular spring exhibition games at Vero each year, at least one with a major league team.

'Fix' Figure In Tax Snare

NEW YORK (AP) - Salvatore Sollazzo, convicted basketball game fixer, was indicted Monday on charges of evading $53,876 in federal income taxes for the year 1945. It was disclosed by U. S. Atty. Myles J. Lane.

Lane said that the evasion resulted from Sollazzo's failure to report sales of $98,140 by a jewelry concern he owned at the time, the Francine Manufacturing Jewelers.

Assistant U. S. Atty. Stanley D. Robinson said that in his 1945 return Sollazzo reported a net income of $28,048 and on that basis paid a tax of $11,939, when actually his tax should have been $65,815.

STICK TO COMiskey PARK CHICAGO (AP) - The Chicago football Cardinals, who had toyed with the idea of switching to Soldier Field, signed a three-year contract to continue home play at Comiskey Park Monday.

Skier Tamping Snow When Jumper Hit

SEATTLE (AP) - Jack Brewer, Seattle skier injured in a jumping accident which killed another man, said Monday, "I haven't the slightest idea what hit me."

Brewer spoke from a hospital bed about the Sunday accident in Snoqualmie Pass which killed Bill Gunderson, another Seattle man.

Gunderson, still in flight but nearing the end of an 130 foot jump at a speed of 60 miles an hour, struck Brewer as he stood tamping snow on the downslope. Gunderson's neck was broken by the impact.

Brewer suffered fractures of the ankle and shoulder, a thigh injury, cuts on his head and one ear and a possible cerebral concussion.

"I haven't the slightest idea what happened," he said. "It's a complete blank. I was packing snow on the underhill, which comes just before the outrun."

"As far as I can remember there was a flagman on the knoll at the top of the underhill and another flagman on the take-off."

"I hollered at the flagman on the hump, 'Hold it up a minute, I'm going to pack.' He said 'O.K.' Evidently the man on the take-off didn't get the signal."

"They were running them off pretty fast. These were practice jumps before competition started."

Brewer said his first conscious knowledge of the accident was when he came to two hours later in an ambulance.

The decision came after a meeting of the athletic council to decide sites for the four home contests for the Cougars next season. Other WSC home games are against Stanford, Idaho and Oregon State College. All three games are scheduled for Rogers Field on the Pullman campus.

The Cougars will have six games away from home: University of Southern California at Los Angeles; Baylor University at Waco, Tex.; Ohio State University at Columbus; Oklahoma A & M at Stillwater, Okla.; University of Oregon at Eugene and California at Berkeley.

WSC and Washington drew 24-321 at Spokane in 1951.

AA Nine Gets Kerr Contract

BOSTON (AP) - The Boston Braves announced Monday that the contract of Shortstop Buddy Kerr had been assigned outright to the Milwaukee club of the American Association, the triple "A" club of the Braves farm system.

Kerr, who came from the New York Giants two years ago in a six-player deal, last year batted only .186.

Football Yanks Texas Bound

NEW YORK (AP) - The formalities of transferring the New York Yanks football team to Dallas, where they will become the Texas Rangers, will take place Tuesday in the Philadelphia office of National Football League Commissioner Bert Bell.

Meanwhile Giles E. Miller, 31-year-old Dallas Textile man who heads pro football's newest team, dropped into New York.

In the course of a lengthy press conference, Miller revealed that Jimmy Phelan, who coached the Yanks during the 1951 season, still is under consideration.

"I have been instructed by the syndicate to talk to him," Miller said.

Phelan is a former University of Washington football coach.
